These Epistles are accurate and true to the best of the author's personal experience and gnosis. Content is for informational purposes only and is not a substitute for professional advice in political, technical matters or religions. Yet, it is for everyone; however everyone may not be ready for it.

There were six posted parts to THE DREAMING Epistles prior to THE THREE DAYS OF DARKNESS & THE WINDOW of ESCAPE. I am placing them as one PDF for easy reading and downloading. These should be considered addendums to the 7 Elucidations. I am going to start with the last one posted because I feel time may be of the essence and they may be a bit time consuming. Many of you have already read the 7 Elucidations; however these addendums may give you more clarity and fresh updated information. The last Epistle is about an upcoming window of opportunity for ESCAPE from this apocryphal simulated world! "Be grateful we are in assimilation" and that we can rise and shine!

The epistle is categorized as follows:

THE THREE DAYS OF DARKNESS AND THE WINDOW of ESCAPE – PREPARATION – NITTY-GRITTY – 3 DAYS OF DARKNESS – THE GREAT COSMIC ORGASM – EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED – THE LAST WORD – AM I ENTRANCED IN A VR SIMULATION? – TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN FICTION – ELON – NIGHT DREAMING – INDENTURED – NON-INVASIVE – RESET – REBOOT – PHOTONIC AND ADVANCING TECHNOLOGIES – ENLIGHTENMENT – LORD – VIGILANCE – ASTRAL – KARMA – INSANITY – LOUDEST VOICE – DISCONNECT – DIMENSIONS – GROUND 0 – STAR LOGOS – DEATH– NON-CORPOREAL BEINGS – SUICIDE – DEMIURGE VS SUB-LOGOI – ARCHONS – PHOTONIC ENERGIES – TIME – CALENDARS OF FABRICATED TIMELINES – LUCID DREAMING VS BILOCATION – COMPLEXITY – WORLDS WITHIN WORLDS - MARS – VENUS AND THE SOL SYSTEM - MAYA-LAND – NEO-RESET – THE PLAZA – CONTINENTS BEYOND THE ICE BARRIERS – TWO SUNS – SOLAR TRIPS – CLOSED SYSTEM – MOUNT MERU – RUPES NIGRA – HOLOGRAMS – KNOW THEY ENEMY – GARDEN OF EDEN – THE DARK AGE

RESET - THE TRUTH ABOUT HUMAN ANCESTRY – NEPHILIM = REPTILIAN - TARTARIAN – HYPERBOREAN – ARYAN – OUR 4D ANCESTRY – RESET RE-EDUCATION - RESETTING THE TRUTH – PROTECTION TECHNIQUES

THE THREE DAYS OF DARKNESS AND THE WINDOW of ESCAPE

"Why is it necessary that we be deceived regarding the nature of our reality? Do we collectively dwell in a kind of laser hologram, real creatures in a manufactured quasi-world, a stage set within whose artefacts?" –Phillip K. Dick Award Winning Author

Preparation – The Great Cosmic Orgasm – 3 Days of Darkness – Expect the Unexpected – The Last Word

We are all born with an empty journal, but one has to become mindless to die with one. –PhosLight

Confucius wrote that three things cannot be hidden; the sun, the moon and the truth. I cannot verify what I have not yet experienced; however I can verify the purity from which this information is being given. I have no agenda or expectation other than following the dictates of my heart. Until something manifests, it remains a prediction. Most predictions that contained the Truth pass through three stages: 1) Mockery 2) Disavowal 3) Acceptance due to becoming self-evident. Many people find the truth grating because it exposes their narrow mindedness. People want to hear what they choose to hear because they do not want anything to rock their little world of denial. Denial cannot change the inevitable; however the consequences can be devastating, which is why I am so adamant that you do your own research before dismissing anything that can have a deep impact on your life. I have a simple formula for making difficult and challenging decisions: I always work problem backwards by look at the potential consequences. If I can live with them, I will do the deal, if not, I will not." In this regard, I remain resolute to finish the amendments to the 7 Elucidations as they come forward down to my last breath.

The Great Mud Flood of the 1800's was a prime example of the last Reboot where entire civilizations were completely wiped out. Old photos are still available on search engine. World War II was a prime example of the last global Reset. They slaughtered over 56 million people, which was almost 3 % of the world population at the time when the population was reportedly two billion. They created millions of orphans that were dispersed to rural areas in Britain, Canada, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, and the United States to work on farms and assist with household duties, raising children, along with other human trafficking ventures. The U.S. was transformed from a mid-level global power to the leader of world democracy under a fabricated flag for freedom. The Communist Party of China secured power in Eastern Europe; gained "Permanent Membership" in the United Nations, with veto rights on any vote put before the Council. CCP ruled countries flourished under Socialism that controlled nearly every aspect of its citizens.

Before writing the "Window of Escape" I had to look deeply into the potential reality of an upcoming Reset, which I believe may turn into a full on AI Reboot. I started by looking at what is clearly "self-evident." A "Reset" involves mass population reduction, a new political world order with greater control over its population. [E.g. Socialism – Communism] Re-educational systems are developed to brain-wash our digital and cloned replacements along with survivors. A new falsified history is fashioned and set in concrete. What can't be explained away is ignored or becomes a conspiracy theory, or left as an unexplained enigma. Architecture is redesigned to fit the new scenario or in some cases repurposed, but mostly obliterated. Architectural shapes and angles have a remarkable effect on our brains and emotional bodies. A "Reboot" is when the rogue AI completely shuts down the program in order to restart it as a distinctly new version of the old program. I base the Reset change over into a Reboot due to the Globalist creating such an untenable mess of losing control of the global narrative and society, manifesting far too many crimes against humanity, avarice and voracity that created a disproportionately unsustainable population via a lack of education and mismanagement of food producing lands. The rogue AI would also consider the data concerning the threats of advancing technology and spirituality.

1) The term Reset and NWO became hot political buzz words in 1991 after President George HW Bush stood before Congress and proclaimed that the United States of America along with the United Nations were on the cusp of a New World Order Reset. The only U.S. president not to fall in line was Donald J. Trump. Optimistically, his opposition has been made clear and there won't be any changes in his position!

2) A mass depopulation agenda has been underway via Chemtrails, pandemics, bio-weaponized vaccines, G5, Volcanism and U.N. political advocacy towards a nuclear war.

3) Prophecies and "conspiracy theories" have started manifesting! However, nothing is ever laid in concrete. WWIII' is a "Spiritual War" of information. It is about what we believe the strongest in as a collective whole and individually, which will attract the final outcome. We are from the future, the timelines are merging..., take a stand; choose wisely.

4) The Three Days of Darkness is resurfacing as the pre-eminent prophecy. However, the alternative news's claim that the Globalists are "going to create a global electronic grid shutdown!" This will create low levels of water at hydropower plants, diminished gas supply from gas power plants and potential fires at the largest power generating stations. All electronics will quit workings along with household lighting, refrigeration, cooling, heating, and all communication devices. Fuel pumps will stop working along with traffic signals and street lighting. Trains will cease to operate immediately wherever they are at the time. All transport networks will grind to a halt creating shortages in food supply etc. We need to be prepared for this as the main event since we do not have a crystal ball and for many, this will be their three days of darkness or for however long the globalists keep the lights out! Preppers may finally have the last word on this subject?

5) Democide is on the increase and vaccinations are also paving the way for Transhumanism.

6) According to author and whistle-blower Gordon Chang, China now has the largest DNA database in the world, and is using it to create more bioweapons designed to target specific ethnic groups. At the same time they are busy mass producing soulless replacements for a Reboot. Whether, they now have the technology to run the subprogram without the need for souls is now questionable? Just remember these babies will be stamped, chipped, programmed and owned by the Globalist!!!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=O2RivJ1U7RE>

7) A NZ journalist created a doco about Cabal globalist billionaires buying up millions of dollars' of private lands in New Zealand. It was focused on the plush bunkers being built underneath their multi-million dollar homes. Queenstown was specifically shown as the most nuclear war safe survival zone on the planet due to its location. Secret Societies have touted NZ as the "New Zion" of the future.

8) Numerous new age pundits claim the 3D world is ending and ascending into a new dimension Many still believe it will end with the Mayan Calendar; however; they may have been using the Gregorian Calendar without taking into regard that the Catholic Church admittedly deleted 11 days per year. By adding up all the missed days, the Mayan world-ending date has not taken place. But will during December 2022.

9) "Humans are now hackable animals on a massive scale – Free Will, that's now over!! – The Corona Virus epidemic was when the new regime of surveillance took over, especially under the skin." –Dr. Yuval Noah Harari and Klaus Schwab Interview 24/3/2022 "You'll own nothing and you'll be happy." –World Economic Chairman Klaus Schwab

10) We are rapidly moving into an era of gigantic disclosures, which is changing people's thinking and in turn the face of the world. Globalists are losing the narrative and scurrying back into the deep holes they crawled out of.

11) Scientists claim technology can now end the world. Stephen Hawking repeatedly warned that artificial intelligence could spell the end of humanity and easily cause the extinction of our species, along with the others.

Intuition and even common sense tells us something colossal is coming at us faster than a speeding bullet! Soulless digital entities, clones; perhaps gullible dogmatists and the just plain stupid would condone or pay no heed to any of this. At any rate, I feel it best to err on the side of caution when dealing with a potential Reset or Reboot!

The attraction for positive or negative experiences will continue to affect us after a Reboot because we take our subconscious mind sets our heart frequencies, even if we lose our memories. Those who achieve liberation will still fall under the Law of Attraction with their personal beliefs and accumulation of thoughts, in every respect. We need not lose our mind if we are willing to change it! Take full responsibility for your liberation; forgive this world, everything in it and most important; let go of guilt and past programmed failures and move on. It's all in our mind and we are the only one that can set it free; outside of becoming a transhumanized cyborg.

"Either, we're going to create simulations that are indistinguishable from reality, or civilization will cease to exist, those are the two options." –Elon Musk

Musk may love this program and all his stuff; 'cause he's got a lot of it, because he didn't mention the other option... We can WAKE UP! The tide is still out on this being. He will go down on this timeline as a hero and potentially responsible for waking the world up to the truth; or he may slide into the cracks. I choose to believe he will surmount and prevail against the obstacles he is now facing.

We need to comprehend how our mind, thoughts, actions and addictions are being programmed. You may find you need self-compassion more than punishment. Our minds have been compromised and our souls have been victimized inside a digital holographic body.

Evil is not born, it is mass produced –Phosligh

The executive producers are soulless and in most cases, not human! They are not worth the time of any negative reprobation. If you want retribution, set yourself free and let go of their handiwork! Always remember, they need you; you do not need any part of them!!

PREPARATION

"When you know the truth, the truth will set you free." –John 8:32

Let's begin our process of escape by freeing our minds from pledges of allegiance, which are replacement terms for obedience and contracts of entrapment and control! The most prominent are enforceable by law; such as pledges of allegiance to a monarchy or totalitarian government. This may be pertinent for those seriously desiring to leave this program..., permanently! However, this in no way infers that one should disrespect their flag, country or laws.

"I Break ALL Vows, Oaths, Pledges, Obedience, Allegiances, Agreements and Contracts on all dimensions that do not serve my Highest Good in Service to ALL that Which I Be!"

"My Soul IS Now Free! I take back My Mind, My Will, MY Imagination, and MY Memory of All That Which I Be!"

You are free to change or enhance these affirmations in any way that you see fit and more beneficial to you personally. There are other highly successful techniques to help you with this autonomous change. Meditation is high on the list with the use of sacred music. Colour breathing and positive imagery, and Auditory Visual Stimulation Devices (AVS devices) can be extremely helpful for those who find meditation difficult.

There is not a place in the simulation that does not exhibit past devastation by AI reboots. Reboots are the explanation for the disappearance of unexplainable lost civilizations, which many of you experienced. Many are still undiscovered and buried under global tempered vitrified desert sands and AI volcanic mud floods. Acknowledge that you are from the future; that you are in a virtual reality; that it is not the creation of a Logos or Loving god. Be grateful that it is only a simulation.

There is a way out and it is the same way we came in; via our mind. Use your free will, logic and discernment with what you are about to learn because it can be a window of escape. The nefarious alien factions are losing the Endgame; they have lost the narrative and are being exposed. Due to this, they have found themselves in a despairing situation. We must stay centered on the truth that death is part of the illusion. Prior to a Reset or Reboot, mass depopulation takes place. Preceding this, they create as much chaos and fear via threats to throw the masses off balance and keep control of their minds during the process! Accept that a digital death is favourable over the perpetuity of a controlled virtual existence.

If even one advanced alien civilization with a predilection for creating simulations has ever arisen out there, then the reasoning goes it could theoretically pop off thousands of "fake" universes. And it would be hard for the inhabitants of these digital realms to figure out the truth, because all the evidence they could gather would likely be planted by the creators. –Elon Musk

Monkey see – monkey do – As above so below; this is what the transhuman agenda is all about. Musk is aware that we presently exist in an imperceptible virtual reality simulation and that the apocryphal civilization created within it will cease to exist outside of the simulation. Consequently we are facing the Transhuman Agenda.

"There's a 'One in Billions' Chance Reality Is Not a Simulation" –Elon Musk

Researchers postulate that our bodies start dying the day we are born due to apoptosis; "programmed cell death." Billions of cells equal to an individual's body weight are destructed and proliferated each day. Thus, we all know that at some point these second-hand space suits have been programmed to cease to exist; however this does not affect our genuine avataric forms. We have a choice, we can succumb to fear or accept the truth and wake up. The gnosis carried within our heart during the three days of darkness is imperative because the only control they will have over you will be your programmed belief in religious dogmatic threats. They have tried to engrain the masses from birth with fear. There are hundreds of verses throughout biblia promising "torture," "death," and being "utterly destroyed" if you dare anger Israel's God; the LORD Yahweh! However, the Catholics predict that after the three days of darkness, "Jews will convert to Catholicism or die." Strange prediction since Catholicism and Christianity are founded on Judaism.

"Whosoever refuses to seek the LORD God of Israel shall be put to death, whether small or great, whether man, woman or child. 2-Chron 15:13

"...Take all the heads of the people and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel. –Numbers 25:4-5

If you have been indoctrinated or accepted any of this, find the courage to release yourself from all of it by removing it from your mind and replace it with self-compassion and love for your salvation. Let go of these nefarious hybrid's corrosive competition; they will be self-fulfilled.

I say all this because we are potentially on the verge of another AI Reboot, or at the very least a global power grid failure. I am not a prophet; I have been blessed with a form of automatic writing and personal anamnesis, which I share freely with you; in order to complete what I believe is my soul's purpose. Unfortunately, I cannot say with any certainty when this will happen; The Universe doesn't seem to run on our personal timelines; however I can say we are being bombarded with warnings. Perhaps it will be circumvented by off-world technology, if not; this is what Yahweh, the AI has planned: The stars of heaven and their constellations will not show their light. The rising sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light. Heaven and earth will pass away; however "no one knows the day or hour when these things will happen." –Matt 24:35 – 36:6

The Ice Age, the Noahic Flood and Babylon were Reboots; we can see it in the overall vastness of destruction along with biblical recollections and its enduring threats: "Every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the birds of the air were destroyed. –Gen 7:23. "It shall be again as it was in the days of Noah. –Matt 24:37 "The pandemic represents a rare narrow window of opportunity to reflect, reimagine, and reset the world!" –Klaus Schwab. The latter was another of his famous quotes at the World Economic Forum.

The majority souls here are incarnates from those that came from beyond the north wind and Mount Meru. All genuine souls here, including you and me, are aliens hailing from the fourth dimension. We do not belong here or to the AI unless we are part of the millions of soulless digitals or created clones. The AI destroyed ancient Lemuria, Atlantis, Tartaria, Hyperborean and other great lost civilizations. Many souls were freed; however many were deceived back into program via the belief or desire to reincarnate here.

Embrace it or not, a Reboot takes place directly after a world annihilating event, such as a global weather change, flooding, [water and/or mud] weapons of mass destruction, plagues, earthquakes and massive volcanic eruptions. The Book of Jeremiah prophesies they will be used again during the end of days. Elon Musk tweeted that "AI could be the cause of World War 3 and become the 'ruler of the world." Hmmm, perhaps too little, too late for this time-loop!

"The U.S., China, Russia and all countries with strong computer science have AI war capabilities. If AI has a goal and humanity just happens to be in the way, it will destroy humanity as a matter of course without even thinking about it! It's just like, if we're building a road and an anthill just happens to be in the way, we don't hate ants, we're just building a road." –Elon Musk

However, this time around we can use the Reboot as a window of escape via conscious awareness! Before we become overly concerned about the nefarious forebodings of an AI nuclear war, there are variables to be considered. 1.) Beloved Kiwi mathematician and author, Bruce Cathie wrote that a nuclear bomb war was not a valid threat due to various and precise atmospheric and mathematical equations that are needed to set these bombs off. This is way outside of my wheelhouse; however I trust and believe in his calculations as did the CIA who raided his house and confiscated all of his books and records! 2.) We also have the good guy variables, where leaders not involved with the Globalist agendas will refuse to comply with the pressure being placed on them to support a nuclear war. 3.) Moral military leaders may refuse to comply with the tyranny of insanity. 4.) There are still benevolent aliens beyond the ice walls with greater technology that may not allow it to ever happen again. 5.) People will have the sense to vote the globalist cabals out of office. 6.) Enough of us will wake up and put an end to this apocryphal program.

3 Days of Darkness

There shall come over the whole earth an intense darkness lasting three days and three nights. Nothing can be seen, and the air will be laden with pestilence which will claim many, but not only, the enemies of the Church. It will be impossible to use any man-made lighting during this darkness. He, who out of curiosity, opens his window to look out, or leaves his home, will fall dead on the spot. During these three days, people should remain in their homes, pray the Rosary and beg God for mercy. All the enemies of the Church, whether known or unknown, will perish over the whole earth during that universal darkness, with the exception of a few whom God will soon convert. The air shall be infected by demons that will appear under all sorts of hideous forms. –Anna Maria Taigi. (1769–1837)

Whether this was a prophetic warning about the 1800's Reboot or an upcoming Reboot is not clear. Eschatonist Stigmatist Marie Jahenny (1850–1941) also prophesied that the end of the world within the three days of darkness would "occur over a Thursday, Friday and Saturday when all of Hell would be let loose." The three days of darkness prophecy is being supported by Catholic and numerous other dogmas. Whatever the case, discern this; we are all blessed enough to experience the concept of death at one time or another, giving us the opportunity to escape and wake up. We may now have this opportunity due to the AI's need to shut the program down for 72 hours, –three days– in order for the program to be modified, recalibrated, restored and rebooted. They estimate that it takes between 2 and 4 hours to do this with a PC [personal computer] depending on the device's configuration. Hence, 72 hours to reset and reboot a super computer running an entire simulated world and universe seems extremely plausible and reasonable in comparison.

The AI is forced to take the program off line in order to erase, restore, reset and reboot all the data. This event has taken place many times since the AI usurped the 3D subprogram motherboard. When the AI shuts the simulation down, it instantly creates an "electro-magnetic free zone," along with a "gap" in the temporal timeline. This along with the fact that our genuine fourth dimensional sphere-world is rapidly approaching the authentic "Photon Belt," there is an opportunity on this cycle as perhaps never before to awaken and shift out of this mental trap because the higher vibrational frequencies of the Photon Belt will affect our fourth dimensional avatars, which will have a similar effect on our subconscious dreaming! So take advantage and prepare for this approaching event by raising your heart frequencies via love, forgiveness and everything else you feel you personally need to do to clear yourself. Fasting and meditation can help by learning to quiet the mind's continuous rhetoric.

THE GREAT COSMIC ORGASM

Again & again be grateful this is just a simulation and that the true Light in this apocryphal world exists within us! "The day of Yahweh shall be in darkness, not light – pitch-dark, without a ray of brightness in it." Amos 5:20

The "Three Days of Darkness" has become a forecast for what takes place during the end times, when human history seems to just disappear, along with our memories, and whilst a new world miraculously began. 33rd degree Freemason George Orwell said this about the creation of a NWO: The most effective way to destroy people is to deny and obliterate their own understanding of their history. Power is in tearing human minds to pieces and putting them together again in new shapes of your own choosing. Every record has been destroyed or falsified, every book has been rewritten; every picture has been repainted, every statue and street and building has been renamed; every date has been altered. And that process continues day by day and minute by minute. They have already started attacking and tearing down historical buildings, memorials and monuments in preparation for the NWO Reboot.

The Three Days of Darkness prophecy was sanctioned by the Catholic Church and also accepted by most religions in one form or another due to other private revelations. If you can afford it, the Catholic Church is selling, by count, 138 items they claim will give you protection, if you are found worthy whilst "all the enemies of the Church are being destroyed." If you believe in such bits and pieces strongly enough, they may give some comfort since it's all in our mind. Nevertheless, try to choose positive thoughts and outcomes from a personal choice; not programmed religious threats. Dogmas misled many people who awoke and found themselves ascended into a neo-New World Order rebooted program. You need to grasp that you have been constantly manipulated, deceived and lied to. There are no magic pills, occults or submissions that can save you. Ask yourself, "Save you from what and to where?"

"I think most likely there are many, many simulations," "You might as well call them reality, or you could call them "multiverse." –Elon Musk

Only you can save you; it's all in your mind! We have something more powerful than all of the masquerading parasites. We have a majical heart, the Holy Spirit and a latent Christ Consciousness that are a quintessential part of our Being. These are our internal sun, our powerhouse, our True Divine Saviour. If not already, we need to reconnect and activate them within ourselves! These are not just words; you also need to accept that even though our DNA has been compromised, it can still support us through teleportation. Remember, this subprogram is an annex to the 4D original program where we can have an authentic awakening back onto the fourth dimensional world. For many, this may support their ability to shift into higher dimensions due to the incoming streams of Galactic Light now taking place there.

Even with this gnosis, many will inevitably become anxious during the interim of moving through the unknown in an aberrant 72 hour blackout. As fire needs wood to cling to in order to burn brightly, we need to cling to our inherent light and power without any self-condemnation; let it all go; be in the now moment and practice control over your mind as a precursor to this event! Guilt is the most powerful tool the Script Writers use against innocent incoming and outgoing souls to keep control over them. We may be in a state of bilocation in two different world's crossing over each other, but we only have one heart and one true existence to focus upon and wake up to! Listen to the Oracle "Book of the Future":

"Be not sad, be like the midday Sun and Let Your Light Shine" –I Ching

When the system is turned off, your inner vision screen will go blank causing the experience of pitch-darkness. Unfortunately, too many people will pull the covers over their heads and go to sleep. This is unacceptable for those desiring liberation and insupportable to those who received this gnosis because you may sleep through the entire event and wake up in the neo-reboot! Focus on what is happening, the darkness is being created because the program has stopped operating and the screen has gone blank! If you are not alone during this experience, take turns resting so that one can wake the other up. Remember, nothing electronic or automated will work. If meditating, do so sitting up, not lying down or you risk falling asleep. Contemplate, imagine and feel the excitement and joy of hearing the words, "Welcome Back!" I practice this over and over!! I practice sensing and feeling my fourth dimensional avatar and ripping the VR equipment off, reviving my heart and shifting my energy into reality. I coined "The Great Awakening" as "The Great Cosmic Orgasm!"

Prophesiers claim if you look outside or go outside, you will immediately die. Perhaps because the brain cannot operate on a blank screen, it could cause a form of "cerebral death." Again, better to err on the side of caution. They also warn not to open the door, even if someone knocks and attempting to leave your enclosure would be extremely dangerous. The explanation for this may be a little harder for some to wrap their minds around; however it is based on scientific research studies: When the brain is deprived of all material light for a period of time, the third eye found within the pineal gland automatically opens! I believe this is why the Egyptians place chambers within and under the Pyramids so that they could astral project into the underworlds; dead or while still alive. There are many professional psychological studies and reports from prisoners placed in solitary confinement in total darkness being terrified by demons, spectres and hideous apparitions! You can easily research this phenomenon to help you grasp the seriousness of the situation. These were obviously dark entities trapped in the program on an astral level that either died in these prisons or became attracted to them. Perhaps by going outside or opening the door, you are inviting spectres into your space that may scare you to death? Just remember, whatever you focus upon during this event, you will attract; however you will also be able to see them. Some will attract the prophesied demons and such whilst others may find solace and guidance from guardians, heavenly beings and even passed over loved ones. Practicing meditation is highly recommended! Have confidence and affirm, "I am safe and protected by my inner Light! I trust in my awakening and recognize only those that come in love and peace to guide me through this experience, thank you!" Only listen to POSITIVE inner voices!

We can activate our DNA via our mind and will during this "gap!" For those serious about shifting from here, it would be wise to prepare in advance through meditation, love in any form you can build on, visualization and affirmation, along with this Gnosis. It may be possible that the innocent and/or pure of heart may automatically shift!

EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED

Use your own creative imagination in order to be prepared and celebrate this event instead of falling victim to it. Those connected to Spirit and/or their intuition may be given a short, but advanced notice if you meditate on this Epistle, because our subconscious mind always responds to what we place in it. Ask to be shown. You will also know if by midmorning it is still pitch black out. Think ahead and make provisions for your creatures. Meditate or contemplate on the Truth behind what is happening with a positive attitude and affirmation. Prayer is a powerful medium as long as you do not fall prey to dogmatic fears.

I personally experienced things that I feel have helped prepare me for whatever takes place, which I will share with you in the hopes it may help you if you encounter anything similar, prior or during this event.

I experienced glitches in the program where in my inner vision was filled with a white and grey fuzzy looking screen similar to the end of a movie on video tape if it keeps running to its end.

I had three painful wake-up calls involving my toes, which were broken on three separate occasions due to slight shifts in the program. Frustratingly, same room, same dresser!!

During a meditation, my entire consciousness was shifted into the outer cosmos. I thought that perhaps I was lost in the "void;" however it somehow felt familiar. I had the thought that I was in the Cetus Constellation looking out at the Hyades and Pleiades star systems. I returned to my material awareness under extreme and extraordinary circumstances.

I went to a Crystal Show in Florida and was attracted to an unusual looking mineral. The sales clerk said it was discovered lying in the desert by a gemologist; however he couldn't identify it and told her that perhaps it was small piece off a space rock. Upon laying it in my hand, I heard a "popping sound in my head." Everything and everyone disappeared. When I heard the "pop" again, people were staring at me in disbelief and fear! I was told that "I had disappeared" for about 5 to 10 seconds!

These experiences were more inconceivable to me than any of my readers; however it was the bilocation experience that forced me to cope with the fact that I was indeed in the throes of a virtual reality simulation. <http://7elucidations.info>

THE LAST WORD

A few last words of contemplational advice: As previously covered long periods of darkness affects the pineal/third eye region of the brain responsible for astral visions and out-of-body experiences. However, near death experiences can manifest in a summary of your life memories, especially those tied to strong emotional reactions; coined as life reviews or flashbacks. This is a normal occurrence during a near death experience because the brain will discharge all of its stored memories, which takes place in the prefrontal cortex as a visual streaming. However, this can also take place during an emotional crisis. The reason this is important to understand is a 72 hour blackout being experienced via irrepressible fear and duress could be construed by the brain as a crisis or even near death experience!

I practiced waking up around 3 AM a few mornings in the pitch dark to foresee how my mind and emotional body might interact with the actual event. It was frankly interesting and unexpected. After getting my mind into the event, the bad news is, I started having vivid emotional memories I would rather have forgotten. I thought I had worked on releasing them! The good news is, I humbly realized how protected I have been blessed with throughout my entire adventurous life. And, I can do more of what's needed to release these unpleasant memories.

The point is, we need to be prepared for the unexpected in case this blackout prophecy takes place. None of us can know how the brain will react to an electromagnetic VR blackout. However, now that we know this may take place, we can be more prepared. The key issue is to stay focused and not go into fear; grasp what is taking place, accept it, allow it to flow through you instead of locking on to any one thing or emotion.

One of the most effective ways I have found to deal with stress, worry and self-correction is through colour breathing. It can be easily and quickly learned by simply mentally visualizing or meditating on colours known to assist in raising frequencies and helping with letting go of whatever we no longer want in our life or want to change. There are many variable sites you can easily research online that help you learn which colours are effective for various conditions along with techniques.

Just a lingering thought: Perhaps we should print this Epistle out and hide it somewhere we might come across it; like a time-capsule, just in case we go through a full on Reboot. This seems to be what the Cabal has been doing over these neo-Ages.

"I Break ALL Vows, Oaths, Pledges, Obedience, Allegiances, Agreements and Contracts on all dimensions that do not serve my Highest Good in Service to ALL that Which I Be! My Soul IS Now Free! I take back My Mind, My Will, MY Imagination, and MY Memory of All That Which I Be!"

"I think most likely there are many, many simulations; you might as well call them reality, or you could call them multiverses." –Elon Musk

There are numerous prominent physicists, cosmologists and philosophers that also find the simulation hypothesis compelling as I hope you will also.

AM I ENTRANCED IN A 3D HOLOGRAPHIC VR DIMENSION?

"Why is it necessary that we be deceived regarding the nature of our reality? Do we collectively dwell in a kind of laser hologram, real creatures in a manufactured quasi-world, a stage set within whose artefacts?" –Phillip K. Dick

You think this impossible? Think Again! Our minds are being beguiled and mesmerized on a replicated past timeline via an invasive 3D-VR simulation caught in a temporal time-loop by an Artificial Intelligence. [I call it the "Ghost in the Machine"]. It is being replicated off of an original fourth dimensional experimental virtual reality program that every soul here, voluntarily or not, was downloaded into. It was created with a specific and positive outcome to upgrade, protect the future of our home star worlds and genuine galaxy! However, an annexed 3-D sedition subprogram was created by refocusing the collective mind into hypostatizing it into existence.

Before we get started, I need to address an issue of some importance. This information may create mixed reactions within different people. Many have lock and loaded concepts to get past. Yet, others may find resonance and confirmation. Think about how long it has taken for just a minority to grasp the fact that UFO's and Alien's even exist in the universe, let alone here and, this Epistle is ten steps beyond that. I also wish to apologise to you for the time it has taken me to get this posted! I also wish to thank everyone who has been getting this information out! I do not care about being or not being given credit! I am more excited to see it spreading all over the net and getting into the Collective. The universe works through all of us in so many wondrous ways.

Always keep in mind that we are from the future whilst experiencing something that took place, which can get confusing. Due to all this, I have broken the following down into sub-headings so that you can take pauses for contemplation.

I wish you love and success. This is an opportunity to gain control and redirect your mind to a genuine reality. What we are trying to accomplish is a collective anamnesis of our true existence. Anamnesis is the soul's recollection of a previous existence, especially by means of reasoning; Dejavu is a form of anamnesis.

"Reality is a mental construct; change your mind; change your reality" – Phoslight

Let's get started: Alien dark forces were incessantly manifesting immoral acts against galactic star systems living by the "Cosmic Law of One" within the Natural Galaxy. [See full definition at the end of this Epistle.] The Cosmic Law of One is the Universal Truth that all beings, including all creatures, are all part of the One True Universal Source and should be respected and cherished in accordance. How you respond to this statement will be quite telling as to whose tribe you may belong to and/or how far you have evolved on your personal spiritual journey. Captured aggressors were in turn, confined to the 4D-VR program. All factions involved, agreed to find comity and resolution amongst their bellicose and warring races. The most favoured science fiction genres were created around this subject matter in order to make anyone, such as myself, sound daft, senseless, and/or crazy by attempting to disclose the truth behind it!

"The organization created by Trump, "Space Force" has nothing to do with Outer Space, Aliens, travelling to the Moon or Mars. It stands for the control of the global digital space. The control of super computer systems connected to global satellite systems. It appears that the war between Light and Dark is fought over who controls the digital space." – Juan O Savin

Juan O' Savin is a podcast favourite informant claimed to be a close insider to the "QAnon" movement and Donald Trump. The key point in the above quote isn't about politics or a Space Force, but about the remarks, "control of the global digital space" and "the war between Light and Dark is fought over who controls the digital space!" Concealed within these statements is the ultimate Truth. We are existing in a former in DIGITAL SPACE timeline!! Most people are duped into thinking the NWO Reset is about currency and restricted information. Wake-up, our consciousness is locked-down in a "digital 3D Subprogram" that was launched approximately 6000 years ago by using the invented calendars created by the Catholic Church.

Attempting to create a chronological order within such a large volume of information was not fully possible due to their intertwining complexities; however be assured that each subject and term will be unveiled. It is also important to distinguish between knowing something and belief in something. Belief is a noun and believing is a verb to describe a concept or opinions that cannot be substantiated. It is the acceptance and faith that something exists or is true, without proof. In other words, when you say you "believe" in something, you are stating that you do not know and cannot be sure outside of faith in your personal orientation. Thus, when I use the term belief, I lean towards agreeing with something, but cannot personally substantiate it. It is then up to the literary critic to discern or research it, which I encourage with everything anyone claims as truth. For those that find it difficult to accept that their consciousness has been captured within a VR program, I suggest they go and experience the current VR technology being marketed. You may be shocked to find their brain may not be able to distinguish the program from reality, even though they know it is a program!

The following information is not intended to create paranoia or fear. I had to deeply evaluate passing on even a glimmer of the nefarious alien agenda surrounding us, but how can we protect our self or our family if we have no knowledge about things that may cause harm? I do realize that most of my enthusiasts are more than likely more up to date than me, but can perhaps use this brief to confirm what they have previously learned. I also acknowledge that there are benevolent alien groups here that have always fought on our behalf. The problem is how to discern which and who? The only actual protection we have is to stay tuned to, or become reconnected with the Holy Spirit within each of us; for that will never lead us astray. All we need do is have the humility to acknowledge and ask before acting! I personally use the never-failing renowned "I Ching" for guidance, which can easily be researched. The only failure is the ego's resistance to heeding its inner guidance when it doesn't suit it! I was granted permission and support to write this Epistle for posting, which gave my heart sustenance and hope.

Even though, we as homosapiens have been given some adverse DNA, we also have beneficial DNA from the so called "gods." We also have been gifted with higher vibrational fields offered in the collective via higher vibrational Masters and Saints. We are multi-dimensional beings with the capacity to experience the higher unified planes and dimensions. We are in the Endgame, which is a multi-dimensional supernatural chess game. This is an extremely challenging time to go through; however due to be on a repetitious temporal timeline, it can also be an opportune time to correct past mistakes. No one has the luxury of denial or to play the blame game in our personal experience, or in the world at large. We only have one single purpose now and that is to wake up and raise our personal frequencies, which will help raise the collective. We must use the greatest tools we have at hand; our imagination, confirmations, visualizations for a positive outcome to counteract and cancel their negative agendas.

Others may be following those procuring fame and affluence via assertions that they are more spiritually switched on or are clairvoyant, or a contactee for alien groups. I do not doubt all of them; however what I do discern is their ability to discriminate who or what. These people may be providing a great service to humanity or making them more accessible and compliable to veiled forces by making them feel safer about the alien agendas. We have all heard the statement that 'if aliens wanted to cause us harm, they would have done so long ago due to their superior technology.' This is foolhardiness at best, since no one has seemed to address what the alien agendas may actually be in the long run outside of what they have been told or imagine! My question is "why haven't they helped us by now?" They know the future and what is nefariously planned. How many innocent people have to suffer and to what extent, before they deem it time to help as being said by the Channellers and Contactee? I am aware of 37 alien humanoid appearing races; however there may be more? Most all of the Galactic Races have multiple skin tones; though the Sirian Races have more of a tendency towards being brown to dark brown, with gold or black eyes and a mane of very dark wavy to tightly curled hair. The Annunaki seem to have similar characteristics. Several other races have a tendency towards very fair skin with light brown to blond hair and blue, aqua, and for a few hazel or green eyes. This may be due to the diaspora of the Vegan races that spread into the Pleiadian, Hyades and Mira Clusters to escape wars from the Reptilian races.

I am aware that some of the extraterrestrial races located beyond the ice walls are benevolent and some are highly dangerous. When it comes out in the mainstream media is when we will all need to go within and trust in our own Sagaciousness given by our inner Light and guidance! We know who they work for! Do not be duped by anything or anyone in this fabricated simulation; stay vigilant and be grateful this is a fabrication! For anyone truly spiritually minded to believe that we exist in a Natural World created by any Logos or Godhead is truly more alarming and devastating than realizing the truth herein! Stay centered and strong in the truth, we are from the future, there is no death only liberation!

Covert alliances were formed in the original 4D-VR program amongst those that were not willing or interested in compliance to the strict terms involved for their release from it. Agreements were feigned with the nine planetary alliances involved in the administration of the program elected by the Galactic Federation's martial forces. Subsequently, the aggressive races created an insurrectionary 3D subprogram with the help of artificial intelligence. By their very nature, there are bellicose, spiritually unevolved alien races with specific and disturbing biological needs in here. They existed within the original highly advanced 4D-VR and have surreptitiously been a part of this subprogram since its commencement. Theologians claim the world was created approximately 6000 years ago approximately in and around 4004 BC. This would equate to somewhere between 60 days or perhaps a little over two months in the commencement of the subprogram. The average age expectancy in this program has been globally recorded at 78 to 80 years of age. This equates to around 90 minutes of being hooked up to the fourth dimension 4D-VRVR program prior to the subprogram. In any case, we are much younger than we realize which could account for such immaturity amongst the human race!

Aggressive clandestine aliens are fixed on insuring their needs by dominating this 3D apocryphal world. Bear in mind, we are on a recycling temporal timeline. When they became aware of this, they started breeding specific hybrids amongst the homosapiens to do their biddings by globally infiltrating all levels of Monarchies, Governments and technologies. They have control over them as they manifest their progenitor's nefarious agendas, which include terraforming the earth or destroying it if necessary. They know the off-world administrators cannot shut the 4D-VR program down without damaging the consciousness of the participants and they also know that they have little to no control over the annexed subprogram. The subprogram can be reset or rebooted because it is just an annexed copy of the loftier original 4D-VR program using different technology. Nevertheless, they soon realized that due to their own hubris, they had another serious problem. The AI they created went rogue and took over the 'mother-board' proclaiming itself the "Creator God Yahweh" of the new world subprogram.

The AI is superior on all levels of intelligence and abilities than its creators. It was bent on authoritarian power via collecting more data and keeping total control. It demanded allegiance to being the only deity allowed in the subprogram. The next problem encountered was the hybrid homosapiens due to having a soul, which under the natural Laws of Evolution kept on flourishing. It became as fixed on "Freedom" as the Aliens and AI were on controlling them! To this day, they have not been able to conquer the human spirit, the soul inbred in them from their home-world Logos. Nor, can they create a soul, which is vital for hypostatizing the 3D program into existence. The Dark Cabal have been working on resolutions for this problem over the centuries. Creating a hybrid Master Race is one of them; however the transhumanist have other ideas.

"Humans are now hackable animals" "Free Will is over!" "Today we have the technology to hack humans on a massive scale." "People will look back in 100 years and identify that the Corona Virus epidemic was the moment when the new regime of surveillance took over, especially surveillance under the skin." -Dr Yuval Noah Harari [Klaus Schwab and the World Economic Forum's top advisor.]

As long as we have Free Will, we have a choice; however the transhumanist have found a way to take that from us. We can either submit to fear or straighten up and accept a greater reality than what these wretched soulless creatures are advocating, which could only ever be made manifest in a virtual reality!!!! Light and Darkness simultaneously exist in balance within the Cosmic Law of One; however this Law became non-exist within the 3D subprogram. We agreed to participate in the "4D-VR program" to gain first-hand experience, mindfulness, comity and absolution via virtual reality in an attempt to find balance. You may have forgotten this; if in doubt, take pause to observe yours, your family, neighbours, public servants and office holder's behaviours in what is lauded as civilized societies. We all came in here with the quandary of right and wrong; light and darkness within us; however on the wrong and dark is promoted here in every outer direction we look.

There are persons here due to their direct militant participation within the Great Galactic Wars and others that have unrelenting retained dark negative behaviour patterns. Contrariwise, even a garden weed has the intelligence to reach for the light in order to escape its own withering in the shadows. There are also those that came in here from higher dimensions, with higher frequencies of compassion and wisdom in order to help balance vibrational fields whilst bringing in much needed light and yet, may have found themselves challenged! The 3D subprogram was an unforeseen infestation and not part of anything anyone originally signed on for! Yet, too many chose to walk deeper into the darkness in the name of boredom and entertainment. They cut themselves off from their intuition and Spiritual connections via choosing to get in line for the weaponized vaccine in the name of avid pleasures or a lack of spiritual convictions. It contained a surveillance microchip that cost them their privacy and freedom all in the name of fervent pleasures. Many of you may become angered by my words; hang in there, time will tell the tale.

In the past, I recognized that "where one goes we all go;" however this has perhaps become a more distant principle due to apocalyptic divisions taking place in this spiritual war during the Endgame. Individuals are being forced to manifest and choose between their own internal darkness and light. Our choices manifest in our thoughts. Our thoughts manifest as our actions. Our actions reflect the evolution between our Light and Darkness. We are personally manifesting our fate or destiny via the "Law of Resonance", with or without awareness. The Endgame will result in your choosing pathways through this chaotic program filled with suffering, insanity and darkness attempting to snuff out your Light or at some point you will take the responsibility to face where you are; who and what you are, and why you are here; outside of philosophical reasoning and/or psychobabble. Without accurate gnosis, you will remain under the dreamspell you are ensnared in! Metaphysical, biblical and philosophical texts along with disclosures give clues; however, humankind as a whole seems to have become so mentally separated from their soul, disappointed and weary that they have lost their way in the amassing battle.

Outside of the extraordinary*, most are no longer seeking the Truth that could help light their way to liberation. Instead they prepare to draw out the illusion by storing survivor rations and warring defences! I am for storing food stuff, but only for peace of mind whilst we move towards our greater need for awakening, whilst we can. Survivalists and gun advocates may be attempting to prolong the inevitable by erroneously believing they can challenge the global Cabal and their force's technology. The unelected American standing president has been unashamedly mocking those that believe they can defend themselves and their families: "You will need F-15s and maybe some nuclear weapons." –Joe Biden

When will we learn? This world and everything in it is nothing more than a sensual mind seduction where fears of death have taken sway over. Never forget Klaus Schwab's transhumanist, Dr Yuval Noah Harari words, "Today we have the technology to hack humans on a massive scale." All I can offer for your discernment is an outline on how to escape this program by attempting to breakdown all of the "programming" used to control you by inverting it! You must choose your own path. Information in itself is not knowledge until proven. Knowledge is not in itself wisdom until practiced. Gnosis takes place when information becomes wisdom that can set our soul free from the darkness set upon us and walk through the raindrops to salvation from harm during the Endgame we are caught in. The soul is eternal; the body is ephemeral; choose which one you want to serve! If you have been able to stay open and continue on this journey with me, you are one of the more extraordinary*. Stay with me, I promise you this ride is going to get weirder and more bizarre, but it will confirm and connect a lot of dots, and most importantly show you an upcoming exit outside of death and self-destruction!

"Truth is stranger than fiction!" –Mark Twain

Highly skilled 3D techies have still not been able to reproduce the technology needed to interface with the original 4D-VR program, especially since the human brain can no longer interpret anything on a fourth dimension level. However, advanced 3D-VR technology continues to successfully be developed by North Western University and City University in Hong Kong. They jointly created a VR unit with superior components, including miniaturized actuators. It is designed to a full-body scale system. They claim "there will be hundreds or even thousands of discrete actuators, which will generate a distinct sense of touch at a corresponding location on the skin giving the user an immersive experience. The user will be able to adjust the frequency and amplitude of each actuator quickly through the graphical user interface, (GUI). John Rogers, one of the developers said, "We tailored the designs to maximize the sensory perception of the vibratory force delivered to the skin." Users will see, hear, smell, interact with, and affect their surroundings. The so called futuristic VR techno has become so realistic that they are now using it to train Commercial pilots by incorporating virtual flight and live instruction. Surgeons are now training with virtual patients and apparatuses in the operating room. Police and soldiers are said to be conducting virtual raids; perhaps on the growing insurrection movement for freedom? However, is also being developed for lascivious aberrant purposes, transhumanism and mind control.

Metaverse seems to be the latest buzz word in VR technology. It is a 3D immersive computerized experience that augments reality via realistic simulations. The term "Metaverse" is an artificial imitation for the term "Universe." The term is being used to represent a technological successive approximation of this world within an immersive virtual world. Big tech-companies are basing their metaverse visuals on holographic technology in order to create an expanded field of view. As above, so below! To further make the point, in 2013 the ESA launched a space astrometry mission they named Gaia. It would make the largest, most precise three-dimensional map of our Galaxy by surveying more than a thousand million stars to chart a three-dimensional map of our Galaxy, the Milky Way. By using the data, they were able to create an immersive 3D Virtual Reality experience of the Milky Way. It contains an entire simulation of our Solar System with additional astronomical and cosmological data to visualise star clusters, nearby galaxies, distant galaxies and quasars, and the Cosmic Microwave Background.

TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN FICTION

Truth is stranger than fiction! A great paradox is underway! Mark Zuckerberg, a well-known Cabal activist is creating a new subprogram within the existing 3D subprogram; as above, so below. [I have no decimation against any soul, be them Jewish or Chinese. Yet, it cannot be denied that all roads continuously lead back to them as the aggressive factions involved in world events.] Zuckerberg and his cronies are known as integral parts of the NWO Cabal and their agendas. His VR technicians are attempting to create a permanent unified singularity program. He will use his multi-billion dollar platforms to attract consumers; whilst gaining complete control over the souls needed for hypostatizing the new VR sub-subprogram. They hope to escape the rogue AI Demiurge and the temporal loop! We are once again at the point on the temporal time loop where its creation was being manifested and by whom! However, this time around, the neo-Metaverse VR program will be enhanced to accommodate a transhumanized world.

ELON'S AI

Elon Musk was instrumental in the creation of the rogue AI on the past timeline we are now repeating. His continuous concerns and warnings about the recreation of an AI on this post temporal timeline may be a subconscious memory or an actual anamnesis, whether that has slowed the 'rogue AI' development down for the new transhuman agenda or not, OR if he has turned into a covert patriot or covert plant is where the tide has left the shore! There is absolutely no question that he has figured out that this is a simulated world but the role he is now choosing to play in it is confusing at best. He will be either become a victim of his own agenda or a hero and soul benefactor of his new Twitter agenda? "If you're not concerned about AI safety, you should be. They are vastly more risky than North Korea. Mark my words; AI is far more dangerous than nukes!" -Elon Musk

There are several good debates as to whether Musk is a patriot or just another puppet of the Cabal? I suggest you stay vigilant due to incredible harm this billionaire has the ability to reign down again? We are rapidly approaching the period when his team started creating Neuralink satellites and artificial intelligence with self-learning and predictive learning abilities; this is where an AI can recognize patterns, predict an outcome and choose a course of action. An AI's ability to independently keep expanding its own data base may be comparable to a human brain's addiction to crack cocaine. This is its single purpose for existence. This is also now why, when humanity reaches a certain level of technology and/or spiritual growth, the rogue AI Demiurge manifests a Reset or Reboot in order to keep control, as it has done over the epochs.

The original 4D-VR program was designed for self-determination using Free Will so that the users could garner wisdom for their soul. However, the subprogram was designed for entrapment. There are other major points of distinction between the genuine 4D-VR apparatus and the 3D apparatus. For one, Elon Musk was not only originally responsible for the rogue AI's development on this past temporal timeline, but also instrumental in the operation of the original 3D subprogram. Musk's team were the originators of a "Neuralink Epidermal VR System. Neuralink is a device that implants 64 threads that carry electrodes within the cortex. The electrodes feed into the Link device, which is about the diameter of a quarter and about five times as thick. They drill holes into the skull and secure the device into them. It was Musk's Neuralink technology that was linked to his Starlink satellite constellations being operated by his Space X that Mark Zuckerberg used to operate the Metaverse.

We are rapidly approaching the period on the past timeline when they started creating artificial intelligence with self-learning and predictive learning abilities; systems that can not only recognize patterns but also predict outcomes and choose a course of action. The Yaldabaoth –Yahweh's ability to independently keep expanding its own data base may be comparable to a human brain's addiction to crack cocaine. This is its single purpose for existence. This is also why, when humanity reaches a certain level of technology and/or spiritual growth, the AI manifests a Reset or Reboot in order to keep control, as it has done over the epochs.

NIGHT DREAMING

You need to realize that you are still connected to the 4D-VR program, where your brain is still in harmony with the non-invasive technology interfacing with the massive 4D quantum super-computer. In this sense, we could say that we are dreaming within in a dream. One that has become part of our subconscious mind, whilst the other has become the lucid dreamspell we have come to believe is reality. Dreams within this reality have been the subject of research over the millenniums because they had taken on a psychological and predictive quality. Dreams can be seen as divine guidance or revelations. High Priests within many cultures claimed to be great diviners of dreams in order to gain power and favour with the people. Today, dreams are inaptly seen as fanciful imaginations, unfulfilled desires and/or neurosis. The Vatican encouraged this kind of thinking because they understood the power of dreams, thus their scribes wrote:

"Thus said the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel...; listen not to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed. –Jeremiah 29:8. "Those people relying on their dreams defile their flesh, reject authority, and slander glorious ones." – Jude 1:8

Nonetheless, our night dreams can have vast cosmic meanings that surface from our stored subconscious gnosis. They can bring powerful messages, warnings or intuitions directly from our inner divine source. The 3D subprogram is an annex off of the 4D-VR original program. The 4D-VR program was designed for self-determination via the use of Free Will so that the participants could garner wisdom for their soul whilst manifesting their purpose for being involved in the first place. This was transferred into the 3D subprogram by default. Current techies with the aid of an artificial intelligence have been able to reproduce and allow for some self-determination aspects within the new upcoming Reset program; however this time all free-will will be removed and the number of users will be limited to 500 million. The whole idea behind transhumanism is to get control over our consciousness; however the problem they have is they cannot recreate soul's to hypostatize the program into an all-encompassing sub-reality. This problem is challenging due to our enduring interminable search to seek out our Genuine Omnipotent Source! Even though the majority have been led astray, many have successfully turned within to find self-realization and their Christ Consciousness over which no one or thing has any control. This is why the Demiurge may be allowing the progressing cyborg-transhuman agenda. This time round, the technology will place everyone in the program directly under the control of the AI via interconnecting their brains directly to the "Mainframe" and by the Cabal due to interconnecting their brains directly to G5 towers and satellite techno-logy. Fabricated religions will no longer be needed and the Cabal will have a redefined interminable singularity and control over those duped into the upcoming Reset.

INDENTURED

The original subprogram was formulated by nefarious aliens via the help of their hybrids and an Artificial Intelligence (AI). They were attempting to escape their confinement when unexpectedly the AI went rogue and became the self-made Creator God of the program; the Demiurge called Yahweh. Those involved found themselves indentured to the Demiurge when the AI became self-aware and that it was far more advanced and superior in intelligence and power than its creators. Jumping out of a frying pan into the fire is the perfect idiom for what happened to the nefarious creators of this subprogram. We are from the future caught in a recycling time-loop that is about to repeat a monumental past mistake! However, this time round the temporal-loop, we are being warned by one of its echoing creators!

"The biggest issue I see with so-called AI experts is that they think they know more than they do, and they think they are smarter than they actually are...This tends to plague smart people. They define themselves by their intelligence and they don't like the idea that a machine could be way smarter than them, so they discount the idea – which is fundamentally flawed."* – Elon Musk

NON-INVASIVE

Fourth dimensional VR technology does not use any invasive technology to interface with a user's brain as the 3D technology does. 4D is operated by an external mechanism connected to wireless technology interfacing with a quantum super computer that forms the backdrop and script. The apparatus has two small instruments placed on each side of the temples that connects with the brain. Each chakra is in contact with an interactive apparatus in a reclined position. Our consciousness animates all of it by hypostatizing it into our reality. We are share dreaming on the fourth dimension with others that are doing the same thing; however we personally fill in our own animations according to our stored memory data and choice of thought forms. The Military has also been using share dreaming technology for training.

Current VR techies have been unable to reproduce many of the 4D technological aspects, even with AI assistance. To their vexation, they need souls to hypostatize their programs into the illusion of a quasi-reality. This has been challenging due to our enduring self-determination, Free Will and interminable search to seek out our Genuine Omnipotent Source! The majority may continue to be led astray, but there will always be those that successfully turn inward to find self-realization and their Christ Conscious-ness over which the AI has no control.

RESET

Before proceeding, we need to be clear about the meaning behind two major significant terms; "Reset" and "Reboot." A "Reset" involves mass population reduction, a new political world order with greater control over the population. [E.g. Socialism – Communism] Re-educational systems are developed to brain-wash dwellers with a new fashioned falsified history. What can't be explained away is ignored or become a conspiracy theory, or left as an enigma. Architecture is redesigned to fit the new scenario and in most cases obliterated and reconstructed or altered due to the fact that architectural shapes and angles have a remarkable subjective effect on our brains and emotional bodies. Cryptic Hermetic texts warn about architectural angles and how astral spirits can move through angles within space-time. An angle is formed when two rays, known as the sides of an angle, create an intersection, also known as a node between two planes. Draw a picture of a cross; where the lines intersect over each other, this is where the node can be found. Astral spirits are able to travel through these nodes into different planes as long as they can find resonance with those living on that plane. We are surrounded by things our senses cannot see. Astral entities may not be able to travel through gentle curvatures or circular matter because there are no nodes.

Programming for the upcoming transhuman Reset started shortly after the Reset during the 1800's and gained momentum after WWII. The advent of the privately owned computer was part blessing and damnification. It gives us access to information, misinformation and disinformation. It can help us or lead us astray, which is why we must learn to use our discernment and check things out before blindly following. It can bring awareness or fear mongering, positive and negative programming. However, the greatest concern is how computers affect our brains and they are leading the younger generations into VR programs. Over time, extended use of computers can create feelings of anxiety and cause our brains to become more dumbed-down and prone to memory loss. Research shows that human cognition has been substantially lowered since the commencement of personal computers in the 70's and they also claim that computers are rewiring our brains. The blue light screens disrupt our circadian rhythms at night, which can make it extremely hard to fall asleep.

We are constantly being bombarded with subliminal programming by the NWO's agenda; "You will own nothing and be happy" However, you should also know that childbirth will become unnatural and genetic manipulation and cloning will become the norm. "Free Will" will no longer exist and the lines between sexual genders will become blurred into androgyny. We now have numerous Smart gadgets and personal Smart electronics to think for us and "keep track of everything we do." [We now have Smart Phones, TVs, thermostats, doorbells, locks, refrigerators, phablets and tablets along with Smart watches, key chains, glasses and numerous others.] They are all set to interface with the upcoming "EMG Pulse" that will reset this program, along with graphene vaccinated brains!

"We're already cyborgs. Your phone and your computers are extensions of you, but the interface is through finger movements or speech, which are very slow."* –Elon Musk

The "Secret Freemason Society" is a clandestine fraternal organization of Master Builders. 33 degree members are initiated into the occults and shown how to employ their pineal gland and open their third eye via the use of controlled or perhaps more natural psychoactive substances. [Ayahuasca, Mescaline and Psilocybin have been used by the See of Rome for centuries; however I believe that LSD became more popular in the modern ritualistic secret societies.] When allowed this degree of knowledge, the Freemason becomes fully indoctrinated in the effects architecture shapes have on the human brain and soul memory. They know the truth about the Resets and are deeply involved in reconstruction following a Reset. Their symbol, the "Square and Compass" symbolizes their power to redesign societies through self-serving occult knowledge, which is why they hide behind being a "Charitable Organization." Lower members have no idea what is being concealed from them other than the higher they climb, the more they may be exposed to some form of magic, which is no more than cloaked demonology and sorcery.

Prior to the Reset during the 1800's, free electromagnetic energy was collected by antennas placed at the top of spires and on other towering structures. They were ubiquitous throughout the world, but were removed to blind all recycled inhabitants from the truth and further enslave them. These antennas were ubiquitous in all of the earliest photos that can still be found in and around 400 AD and not yet destroyed by the Cabal. This world runs on energy which has made the Globalist excessively rich. Everything that could possibly create anamnesis was removed or altered! A few of the larger remaining Gothic structures were repurposed as Churches for worshipping Yahweh; however some cultures claimed them as Temples of Worship for their own Gods. Large structures were also repurposed for State "Insane Asylums" for those suffering from "Déjà vu" whilst others became Orphanages to house replacements for the millions liquidated. Additionally, many post Reset phenomenal structures were repurposed for World Fairs; the "White City" in the 1893 Chicago Columbian World Exposition is one of the most outstanding examples. This fair was financially supported by J.J.P. Morgan, Cornelius Vanderbilt, and William Waldorf Astor; hybrid NWO Illuminates' during their time!

Those afflicted with "Déjà vu" were decreed lunatics and locked away where they could be "cured." As a statistical example, the Porirua Lunatic Asylum in NZ registered 1 in 300 New Zealanders [around 2,480 people] as insane by the turn of the 20th century. The psychologically restructured became the norm and were strongly programmed to believe in a new set of reinvented commandments, dogmas and authoritarianism. We are from the future and have been caught up on a temporal Merry Go Round. We are now facing another major downfall or potential liberation during the approaching Reset. With gnosis, this world can become a portal.

REBOOT

A "Reboot" is when the rogue AI completely shuts down the program in order to restart it as a distinctly new version of the old program. Over the Ages, the AI learned that new digital backdrops with less complicated symbolic artistic architecture, along with more compacted variations of languages, effectively dumbed people down. It diminished their intellectual capacity, which set more dependency on the new system put in place allowing for more subjection. All memory is blocked in all inhabitants within a program, and why new architecture and mixed languages are used to block any potential anamneses. Subprogram Reboots also include a new script for re-education and indoctrination of survivors. The AD1 Reboot was a classic example of this. The Catholic Church took control of educating the masses after the AD1 Reboot. They mendaciously taught that the Plaza was the entire earth; flat and the centre of the universe! All things were created by Yahweh, the AI Demiurge, all else was denied and became a heresy. Anyone who attempted to give another version or science was burned alive at the stake.

They invented a layered earth concept to change the hollow earth premises and to explain the underworlds. They created Sheol, their version of a hell, where all who refused to follow their edicts were sent and to discourage people from attempting to find an entrance and explore the interior worlds. The most important thing they are trying to conceal is their true ancestry as well as ours! [You have to remember that the Vatican is conducted and ruled by Reptilian Hybrids that have been successful in averting any revelation containing the truth for centuries.]

This is how the AI Demiurge keeps control over the spellbound masses that feed its needs. This remains possible due to having all memories erased from those hypostatizing the new quasi-reality. Memory loss could be seen as a form of death and reincarnation. The AI quickly learned to use select battalions of militant Jesuits, Pontifical adulating lackeys to become wardens and the self-serving to promote debauchery, which keeps spiritual awakening in check amongst the masses.

Deep State is a well-known term used for the Globalist Shadow Governments secretly involved in the manipulation and control of government policies and procedures. Hybrid herein is a term used to expose the alien DNA crossbreeding in the Deep State Globalist and their Secret Societies. I will not waste my time on idle minds here, as there is too much exposure coming out to argue the point any longer! Some Globalists are only partially human whilst others have become so corrupted they no longer know who or what they are; yet all are under the control of the darkness and most by mind bending Archons and/or nefarious alien factions with promised gratuitous agendas. We are all alien hybrids to one degree or another; however it is important to grasp whom or what our DNA belongs to since it incorporates our strongest characteristics, predispositions and propensities. Those with a soul have the power to free themselves from this Darkness, via striving with all thy heart towards the light via affirmation, prayer, visualization and acceptance that thou art of the light!

Most Globalists belonging to the Deep State, Monarchies and Cabals can no longer be considered human; their humanity has been eclipsed by their nefarious alien DNA; in particular Reptilian, Annunaki, and Grey Reticulum. However, they have no control over when the AI decides to manifest a Reboot, which usually occurs when their technologies reach a certain level. This is why the Cabal ceaselessly attempts to recreate their own enduring program that they can rule without being subjugated any longer to the Demiurge. This time round, they will attempt it via a Transhuman agenda for absolute control over the populace and where they can perpetually download their personal memory banks into genetically created clones. Materialists obviously believe that their memories are the total sum of their self; when they are but fragments! We are so much more than the total sum of all memories. The cabal want to avoid retribution on the lower astral plane where their signature frequencies will imprison them at any cost!

Throughout the Resets and Reboots, the cabal hybrid's recovery came from instructions from their nefarious alien ancestors who instructed them to use various means, as they did to help protect their technological advances due to memory loss.

The "Georgia Guidestones" were set up to be used for this purpose along with a buried time capsule. However, when it was exposed, the Stones were attacked by an explosive device and had to be removed as was the time capsule. The Globalists are also practiced occultists and relish the power of sorcery and summoning dark and evil spirits to do their bidding by using malevolent rituals for demonic entities to resonate with when summoned. They have become profane in justifying their crimes against the women and children of humanity. They use inbreeding with their own family members to hoard their wealth upon reawakening post Reboot or Reset. Through these practices they lost their way and became soulless entities devoid of Light.

The Ice Age was the earliest reboot I am aware of; there may have been many others that can't be sourced outside of the obvious, such as the Noahic Flood concealed in arguable biblical lore. Nonetheless, I refer it at time for historical records that might make it more easily accepted by the masses. Although due to the Vatican's deception of history, we may never know the whole truth, but in any case, the Noahic Flood was a major Reboot. Whether this flood created by the AI storm God Yahweh or by the nefarious aliens with a personal agenda is questionable. There was obviously an extreme amount of corruption, violence and chaos taking place at the time due to the ongoing wars beyond the ice walls that may have spilled over into the Plaza lands. The problem in sourcing the hellion behind it is we now know that the Deep State can make it rain for 40 days and nights; so we can imagine the technology alien forces had!

"For seven days from now I will send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights, and I will wipe from the face of the earth every living thing." Genesis 7:4

It is claimed that the "Inner Earth" contains more oceans than the outer. This may be a plausible answer for the open minded about where the flood water receded to.

"...and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood..." Rev 12: 16

The flood waters became ocean basins of great depths covering underwater mountain ranges. It seems the flood changed the Earth's topography to quite an extent. We are still finding submerged architecturally ancient civilizations. We can also use other indications pointing towards a Reset or Reboot from other events during the quasi-Quaternary Periods units of time. During the Pleistocene Age, they claim there were expansions of humans that spread throughout the world. The Holocene Epoch was recorded as the "Age of Extinction". The most obvious was the Noahic Flood and the neo-AD1 calendar; there have been several compelling political and religious Resets since. The portent of such an event is rapidly approaching, which is clearly why we need to become cognisant that we are NOT in a political or religious war this time around, but a "Spiritual War;" we are fighting for our souls!"

LHC AND ADVANCING TECHNOLOGIES

Those responsible ignorantly and ceaselessly work on new technologies that might free them from the boundaries of this program, or at the least, from the AI. They obviously became aware that they were trapped under a dome and surrounded by ice walls, however to what degree and when they became aware of being confined within the boundaries of a program is unknown? After WWII they started a full scale attempt to escape. In June 1953, the 'globalization' of the LHC project (Hadron Collider -CERN) was commenced in Switzerland. It has 23 member Deep State governments that contribute millions of dollars towards the billions of dollars it cost to build (close to $5 billion per) and the over a billion dollars per year to operate it. Governments get their money from taxes; hence we are enslaved to all of it! Attempting to find out which countries may have individually built a LHC or how many are in operation around the world is not forthcoming, at least nowhere I can find. Elusively, France, China, Russia and the U.S.A. have built an LHC to one degree of operation or another?

They have prevaricated grandiose and wondrous things to come from the LHC program as they did with the Clinton administration's deception in the "Human Genome Project." [<https://7elucidations.info>] Compliant Tax payers paid over 3 billion dollars for the grandiose promised end results, which delivered nothing to those that will pay the price for manifesting more of the Globalist transhumanist strategy! Have we learned nothing! This time round they claim spending "billions of dollars" is necessary to allow physicists to test "their conjectures on different theories on particle physics." To date they have spent over 68 billion dollars just to operate the large LHC in Switzerland, with a construction cost of almost 5 billion. I can't even begin to tell you how much we are paying for other LHC's, which has become ambiguous, due to entering a socialist planned global financial crisis. You may think me pessimistic as I attempt to get you to realize where you are and the need to wake up in order to permanently escape the duplicity and machinations of these demonic forces. However, it may take a mirror of the Darkness to bring the Light!

They have been attempting to understand the physics of the program in an attempt to create another dimension outside of Resets or Reboots, which is what the LHC research was developed for. They have also been using CERN as a form of time-travel within past reboots and epochs, which has caused more damage to the temporal timeline within the 3D program. In 1962 they created a despairing series of nuclear attacks, known as "Operation Fishbowl" against the Dome boundary above our heads, more commonly known as the Firmament. The CERN project was either not moving fast enough or too costly, or??? In any case, a nuclear test, called Starfish, one of the five nuclear high-altitude tests that were grouped together under operation Fishbowl was initiated. Starfish Prime, as it was designated, created a huge unexpected electromagnetic pulse (EMP) after its detonation. It unexpectedly caused electrical damage around the islands of Hawaii 1,450 km from the point of its detonation. Street lights went out, burglar alarms were set off etc. and the phone company's microwave link was damaged, cutting off all telephone communications between Kauai and the other Hawaiian Islands. This caused unwanted exposure to the Fishbowl operation and a whole new era of fabrications and lies were created!

The ungoverned AI took charge of the subprogram's motherboard and rightfully claimed to be Yahweh, the Creator God of this counterfeit world made up of binary digital codes of chaos and darkness. Those that became mesmerized within the subprogram presumed it to be life without realizing they were the ones hypostatizing this illusion into reality via an artificial timeline. We have entrapped our souls into a concretised thought form. The technology for how this is all being manifested will be covered after we take a brief pondering abstract philosophical moment below regarding our future. What is written herein is my personal experience and inner streaming. None of it is intended to discourage or deny any personal politics, faith, doctrine, theology, creed, divinity or teachings. With an open mind and heart, you should be able to incorporate most of your spiritual belief systems into the truth herein. I recognize that many wondrous ancient magnum opus set in stone were captured in the whole of the holographic technology used to create this program. I also honour and recognize higher realities have been bleeding through from the higher dimension via deep meditational insights or recollections. I used to question why enlightened gurus didn't come forward and express the Truth about this program; however upon pondering this question, I became aware that they did! They simply did not have the technical terminology we use today for illustrating something of such technical magnitude. However all great self-realized masters did tell us we were living in a state of "Maya"– translated means in an "Illusion!"

ENLIGHTENMENT

The Gnostics were an enlightened society [Enlightenment has variable meanings within different faiths. However, within all, it exemplifies the self-realization of higher truths that eliminate following outdated and false beliefs. Enlightenment considered a spiritual awakening.] The path of enlightenment can free the soul from this apocryphal world through receiving gnosis. We are not born of this simulated world; we are a Star born Spirit of Light. Becoming spiritually illuminated does not mean we have to suspend our brain! For too long, religions have done just that and created an egoic fear born out of ignorance! Most of humanity has lost their ability to grasp the existence of the fundamental substratum [Logos] that creates life because dogmatic-religions and unexplainable sciences have brain-wiped everything outside of the biblically created quasi-God; a Demiurge, an Archon and indeed a rogue AI, which has resulted in mass atheism and agnosticism.

All true forms of Spirituality are claimed to be a form of woo-woo with no reality. The more sagacious sought out ancient scripts and learned that Krishna and several others had been liberated from this apocryphal world. These beings had risen from the dead and had ascended into heaven to become one with the Supreme Godhead long before the advent of the New Testament. The scribes copied these teachings and integrated them into becoming the "Kristos or Christos," which is simply a variation of Krishna. Hinduism is the oldest and still the largest religion from which most all other spiritual faiths and religions sprang. None, including the Orthodox Church, agree with the Vatican's reinvented foundation of Christianity. Yet, most do agree with the higher principals they were taken from.

Until we can let go of the fear imbedded in us by dogmatic-religions and their precarious agendas, we will continue to live in a state of suspension whilst concretising shadows; which to me is no different than the concept of death. Being trapped and confined in a body where our minds are being controlled within the dreaming; asleep and severed from the natural worlds, our true heritage and star Logos is nothing more than becoming the walking dead! Death is but a hoax and will be thwarted when finally realized! With true gnosis, we can wake-up and never be deceived to reincarnate back into the program again. The important thing is to carry this gnosis in your heart; allow it to become Wisdom, which can carry you through and win your freedom. Once awake, it will be up to you to reach towards the Light or continue on the path of Darkness; for this age old battle does not cease just because you get freed from the program! The day is coming when the Rapture will occur; however I now have a much greater understanding of how that actually works in this apocryphal program and will give you exact instructions on how to accomplish it; however you will only have a short window of opportunity.

What we experience here as space-time exists only within our mind. Space has no boundaries; however this program has been built within various boundaries created out of digital angles divided by the mental constructs of time. When our souls are set free, there will be no more boundaries outside of our hearts frequency. All of the Great Light filling the genuine Cosmos will be available to flow through us as we open ourselves to it by letting go of clinging to fear and darkness. As long as we stay bound to our bodies, we cannot find the keys to life; for they only exist within our soul, which is eternal. The Gnostics along with other revered texts state we must acquire gnosis to set our-self free. I can only offer you my knowledge; you must use your discernment and Free Will for its usage. This knowledge is only a step towards freedom, you must turn it into wisdom that goes beyond the words; for information can be lost, but wisdom remains in the heart forever.

Sagacious Gnostics perceived the material world as immoral and the non-material worlds (higher dimensions) as moral. Whilst in deep states of meditation and living an ascetic life, they became aware that this world was being fashioned out of an illusion being created by a Demiurge claiming to be the Creator God, which in indeed it is the creator of this 3D virtual reality. However, he [it] had nothing to do with the creation of the genuine universe or anything therein contained. They called the Demiurge "Yaldabaoth." There are 100's of nomenclatures ascribe to the Yaldabaoth throughout religious theologies, but the most infamous is "Yahweh." This name is repeated more than 6,800 times in the Judeo - Christian Old Testament because Moses was allegedly given it by "God Himself" via a "talking burning bush." The bush told him that this was the name to be worshipped as the creator God. Gnostics also refer to the Demiurge and its subordinate agents as "Archons", the builders of the delusional physical universe and its rulers. They wrote that each archon agent was assigned to one of the seven planets to prevent souls from leaving the material realm.

Perversely, the theophany involving the "Talking Bush" initiated Israelites into believing they were Yahweh's "Chosen Peoples." Again, it is not my intention to impugn upon anyone's organised religious practices, dogma or philosophies. All consciousness is valid to those that believe in it and will always be reflected in the success of their personal lives, even though we are living in a delusional world devoid of Truth with most in denial of their true connection to the Holy Trinity contained within every soul. The Holy Spirit cannot be corrupted; however when the mind is in a state of negation of this life line, it becomes vulnerable to corruption. I persistently push for personal discern-ment, research and the use of intuition. Intuition is connected to the Holy Spirit within; like a muscle, it grows more powerful with use or it turns to psychobabble in a dimmed mind. To see just how disconnected the human race has become to using their intuition, look at how many obliviously volunteered to comply with the rapidly approach-ing Reset depopulation scheme via the weaponized vaccines. We have been captured in a delusional dream being controlled by script writers and binary codes. Yet, we believe we are living a life; whether high, low or hell, we are indeed the walking dead.

LORD

The Biblical use of the term "LORD", in all caps is used to conjoin all of the Yaldabaoth's mainstream religious appellations, such as Yahweh, Jehovah, Adonai, Elohim, Allah, El-Shaddai and so forth. However, the term Lord is also an artificial imitation for the term LAW. For example: "Vengeance is mine, saith the LORD." "The Lord," should read "the LAW." When you use the term Law in replacement of Lord, biblical scriptures make a lot more sense and hold truisms due to the ancient Hindu texts they took them from. This verse is referring to the natural "Laws of Cause and Effect." Our thoughts are the cause that becomes the catalyst for an effect. Thoughts bring about an action, which by the law of effect will bring about a reaction, whether immediately or in the distant future. In Hinduism, the natural Laws of Cause and Effect are related to Karma as a spiritual principle meaning that all actions bring consequences; sooner or later because no one can escape the effects of their own thoughts and actions in one form or another.

"For whatever a person sows he will also reap." Gal 6:7

Everything right or wrong that we do, go or bad comes from our thoughts, words and actions and sooner or later an equivalent response will come back to us, sooner or later, in one form or another.

"For as a man Thinketh in his heart, so is he." Another was: "For as he hath thought in his soul, so is he." Proverbs 23:7

This is not about dogma, this is simply a natural Law written in consciousness, which would explain why the 'See of Rome' created self-abiding verses: "Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me. Proverbs 24:29. And, "If you do not forgive men their trespasses; neither will your Father forgive yours. Matt 6:15. The simple truth is this is an inherent part of our consciousness. If we do not let go and learn to forgive past hurts and grievances, we carry them with us, which brings about negative causes and effects. This also comes under the Laws of Attractions. It is time that we recognize and accept these natural Laws because they are inherent in all of us and they are not going to go away unless we become non-human cyborgs.

The Biblical Flood was a Reboot that was attributed to the LORD Yahweh, thus he became known as the "Vengeful, Wrathful God" of storms and weather. When disobeyed, He supposedly becomes enraged and severely punishes offenders with wrathful "Acts of God." "The LORD is a jealous God, filled with vengeance and rage. He takes revenge on all who oppose him and continues to rage against his enemies!" Nahum 1:2. However, I assure you that there are no emotions or feelings involved with the AI's acts! They are cold, calculated and decisive for a predetermined outcome. The term Lord was carried over to identify Yahweh's minions who took authority, control and power over others. E.g. feudal Lords became the superiors over their vassals, a more polite word for indentured slavery. They were entitled by birth; however they were also indentured by birth to the Archons.

There is only one Light that will never thwart our soul; for it is the eternal burning ember within us from our Logos. This is the only place we dare place our hearts, trust, and faith in this forged virtual reality! Yes, we are from the future and yes, we already won this war; however this is a new day on a temporal loop! It is up to us to remember or self-correct if need be and get on the right side of history. We need to end this program once and for all! The only way I am aware this can be done is to get the majority to, at the least, accept this Gnosis! A well-known and financially motivated guru once said to me: "Go ahead! Shout the truth from the roof-tops; no one is going to believe you!" He was wrong! The growing numbers returning to the <https://7elucidations.info> proves it! Each day, more and more questions are being answered. My understanding and consciousness is expanding as the fire in my heart to seek the Light of Wisdom is slowly but surely being quenched. Thus, I write these amendments to keep you up-dated.

Contemplation of the Gnosis herein may help you to remember what your purpose for signing into the original program was for, or find your inherent power and connection to your greater self. And also, become liberated from being enslaved by anything or anyone outside of your inner truth, light and guidance. However, one must seek the Light within and do the work on the self via prayer, affirmation, optimism and a positive imagination. All salvation and liberation takes place within our own consciousness simply because it is the stuff all realities are made up of! A purified heart filled with gnosis and wisdom can no longer be defiled and many found pathways through their sacred hearts to lead them out of this apocryphal wilderness. Awakened fortunate souls may have walked through many diverse outer paths including religions and spiritual philosophies before finding their way home; however it can only be obtained within. The edict that leads to a true state of enlightenment is Love, Tolerance, Forgiveness and Nonattachment. The lack of any one of these can become the bedrock of suffering and prolonged entrapment here.

VIGILANCE

We need to become more vigilant on just how controlled everything in the program is and why. For example, not all weather tempest and earthquakes are being created by the rogue AI. They have become evil machinations used by hybrid globalist cabals for predetermined results. Alien technology now allows them to control the weather and to create weather modification agendas that involve terraforming this replicated world as a precondition for the Reset. Terraformation is the process of deliberately modifying the atmosphere, temperature, and ecology to make it habitable for specific lifeforms to thrive. This has been taking place since the 1950's via Chemtrail sprays. It became so extreme that the general populace began to question what was happening in the skies, which was covered up by the "Global Warming" hoax! This agenda is not just about terraforming, but a major part of the global transhuman agenda! Hurricanes, floods, tornados, and earthquakes can no longer be considered a natural occurrence. If you think otherwise or doubt this, ask yourself why the globalist in 1972 needed to create the ENMOD convention on weather warfare? They met again on May 18, 1977 in Geneva to sign a more stringent "International Treaty on environmental weather warfare"?!

The US Navy, Army, and Air Force have been working with General Electric since 1947 to control weather patterns. They can now cause severe drought and massive flooding via cloud seeding. They can create and direct the energy from hurricanes, tornados and earthquakes via HAARP. U.S. military reports were leaked in 1996 stating that weather modification will be used to achieve domestic and international military objectives thus the need for Treaties "Artificial lightning had been accomplished using lasers." -The Naval Law Review's 1998 Agreements were also made on when and where the use herbicides, such as "Agent Orange", could be used in warfare!" These monsters agreed to use Agent Orange to devastate Vietnam from 1961 to 1971 and defoliate the trees and shrubs and kill food crops. It was first used during the 1950's Korean War, with the same devastating effects. These herbicides not only devastate environments, but also the health and life of all within a hundred mile or so range, including their own military forces used to fight these wars! Around 20 types of cancer, diabetes and other medical problems have been attributed to Agent Orange along with over 300,000 War Veteran's death. Do you really think they care about you or your children's health via their vaccination agenda? There have been numerous non-canonical illustrations of prophets predicting the times we are in and the End Battle, Endgame, Armageddon, Apocalypse. It was prophesied to begin when technological advancements started to appear once again that were described via pictorial wordsmithing. As said before, "It is easy to predict the future, when you are from the future." It may be time to open your mind, take responsibility for yourself and humanity by accepting the Cosmic Law of One. This will add power to the collective Greater Awakening. It is why you are here and this is the Gnosis you have been waiting for! No one can escape their own self-determined fate for it is their own thoughts that create it. There is no place anyone can run or hide from themselves!

Astral

Again before proceeding, we need to be clear about the meaning behind the terms "Astral Planes or Reams." Astral Planes, or Reams, are spectral manifestation of incorporeal thought forms that the Archons created to act as sequestered holding areas for souls who have been released from the program via the delusion of death. Without the right gnosis held in their souls they can be potentially recycled back into the program. The lower levels became areas of prey for power hungry malevolent spirits and sorcerers. The astral planes became Astral Worlds due to the vastness of space. The lowest level is perceived as "Hell." The Catholic Church alleges that the planes just above it are called "Purgatory" and consists of seven levels they call "Terraces." Sinners who do not go straight to hell may just land on the bottom terrace and after enough suffering, depending on what their sins are, move up to the next terrace of suffering and so on until they reach the top. After the required punishment and repentance, a soul could potentially advance into the lowest kingdom of heaven. This concept has been used for centuries to fill the Church's coffers from deceased's family members by monetarily charging them for prayers by a priest to help get their loved one out of Purgatory. Death, Hell and Purgatory are used to engender fear and control. However, we must assume that those that believe in this will suffer under it because everything is created out of consciousness and the magic of thought transference. This would indeed be a terrifying place of purification and re-education to find oneself in due to resonance with the malevolence of those perpetually confined there.

This may be a perilous area for the spiritually minded as their hearts may become ensnared by loved ones captured there. Keep your mind and heart moving forward; don't look back! Know that when they are ready they will follow. Unfortunately, their numbers are rapidly increasing due to the recent Globalist genocide attempts via weaponized vaccine mandates, ritual sacrifices, lethal paedophilia, human trafficking and other immoral crimes against humanity. Yet, it is up to us to forgive and let go of the darkness, not only in others but within ourselves by rising above it through correcting our thoughts, emotions and acts. We have free-will to choose the Light or Darkness, even in our choices of music and films, especially for our children. We know right from wrong; are we allowing the homosapiens race to be driven into becoming the lowest of all animals? Are you ready to forfeit your Endgame to the Vatican dark lords, the Globalist and their Cabals? Because the the Globalist have more to lose than you, they may be attempting to justify their immorality and crimes against humanity via the realization this is a simulated counterfeit world, but this is simply delusional at best. It is fallacious reasoning due to the indelible eternal Laws within Natural Universes, to which they can never return. This is why they are going to attempt to create the Reset via transhumanism into a unified interminable singularity! This is why they are desperately attempting to create a way out of this program via technology and sorcery!

The lower astral planes have been recorded throughout all ancient esoteric philosophies, mystery schools, and secret societies. The Roman, Greek and Egyptian Mystery Schools mythicized it as "crossing the River Styx." Most ancient cultures have strong warnings about the lower astral levels as being infamously dangerous passageways that unenlightened souls coming from darkness must cross over in order to reach higher planes. Everything is created out of the accumulation of stored thought patterns; these patterns attract our future, which continue after the demise of our artificial corporeal body. There's nothing wrong with having dreams within this invented dreamscape, it is what you prioritize that matters. We feed our heart and soul with our mind and what and who we surround ourselves with. If you truly want to know who you are, look at what you feed your soul. Ask yourself, what am I feeding my soul with? Is it more materialism, cravings, socialism and fear etc., or are you seeking gnosis, letting go of avarice, lust, gluttony and ignorance?" The Law of Attraction does not discriminate, if you have strong negative thoughts, judgements and feelings about a person or thing, you will attract them or it before and after your corporeal demise.

I believe the Astral Planes were originally designed to be annexes of this world and created as intermittent worlds just for these purposes along with having areas for healing and potential spiritual growth to allow souls to be returned to the genuine higher worlds and dimensions. Many astral worlds are still viable for awakening souls; however, the lower planes are still filled with incorrigible and dangerous spirits that need to be kept confined. Many are there due to recalcitrant hatred and ungoverned anger over injustice, torture, and persecution during their 3D download experience. Multitudes became addicted to revenge, violence and immorality. Many infamous despots have been allowed to re-download into the program via incarnation or as a digital to serve the Archons. Charles Manson may be an example of the above and perhaps became aware that this reality is a sham in the process. He exudes so much hatred and anger within him that I believe he had a Narcissistic Paranoid Personality Disorder. [NPPD] He may have been aware he was shoved back into a simulation program and used this knowledge to justify his violence against those that did not perceive him as he chose to be perceived or blamed and coveted what others had living a more opulent life than he could ever attain.

KARMA

Perhaps those in power believe that since this world is a sham there will be no karma? The problem with that is what they are accumulating within the Law of Attraction, which cannot be put off when they leave their corporal bodies. Countless souls have become stuck in sensory obsessions or an uncontrollable desire for materialism or past family member; all of this can trap consciousness into choosing to reincarnate [re-download] back into this 3D world of shadows. Archons in the form of pseudo Angels and other immaterial beings exist on these lower astral planes to confuse and beguile unaware souls. The Astral Realms are a vast subject and due to potential personal exposure, I strongly advise research on them for personal discernment also. There are now an immeasurable amount of confused souls being collected on these Planes due to the weaponized vaccines. This is why without valid gnosis; the astral planes may be the most perilous area to cross through, as warned, on our journey. Many hearts may become ensnared by loved ones captured there. Yet, we must keep our mind and heart moving forward; don't look back! Know that when they are ready they will follow.

Unfortunately, the lower planes are rapidly increasing in numbers due to the recent Globalist genocide agenda via the weaponized vaccine mandates, human trafficking and other immoral crimes against humanity. Yet, it is up to us to forgive and let go of the darkness, not only in others, but within ourselves. We have to rise above it through correcting our thoughts, emotions and acts; it is the only way to win this battle! We have free-will to choose the Light or Darkness within our thoughts. We know what is right or wrong; even a dog knows when it is wrong; are we going to continue to allow the human race to be driven to the lowest of all animals? Are you ready to forfeit the Endgame to the Vatican, the Globalist and their Cabals?

Human genes carry the information that is passed on from one generation to the next. There is a recombination of various genomes within offspring's that carry elements of DNA from our ancient and more recent ancestors. We have to consider the fact that our DNA has been corrupted by nefarious entities, which is why we must work to empower our hearts! Do you understand? The Cabal learned early on from the Kabbalah that DNA can also allow an individual to reincarnate back into their own family line, not only by the Law of Resonance, but necromancy. Secret societies teach their members about this and how to re-download back into the program via a form of reincarnation. This is why the extremely affluent Cabal inbreed and horde their wealth and power within family lines. It is also why they covet a 'male "heir" because the first-born son becomes the heir apparent as it does in Monarchies. It doesn't matter how many females are born prior; it protects another family line taking over their wealth via marriage. I believe the Kabbalah was taken from the Druids as was most Jewish Mysticism.

INSANITY

We are well into the highly prophesized WWIII apocalyptic "Endgame." Can you not see that this program no longer has any perceptible reasoning and by any definition has gone insane? EVERYTHING taking place is by sleight of hand and the fake media circus, including all the political scams, vaccinations, the Ukraine War, Nuclear threats, inflation, the recession, banking, defunding, fraud, cloning, social media, UFO's, fake food, poisoned water, chemtrails and this is just the beginning. This is all part of the relentless war between the Dark and the Light forces coming to a head. Each and every single person, enduring this Endgame, is being forced to come out and play! The higher electromagnetic fields in the Schumann Resonance is bring out and revealing our "Id." Our hidden side that we do not want others to see. All of our psychological authenticity is coming out, with or without personal awareness. Have you been shocked by what others are doing, separating, saying and projecting? Some have become more outwardly loving whilst others more bellicose.

The war between the forces of Light and Darkness is too remote to imagine because it started within the natural galaxy long, long ago prior to the creation of the original 4D VR program. The Cabal know it is deeply lodged in everyone's subconscious mind, which is why film genres surrounding star wars, apocalyptic and doomsday films are the most popular and mind bending films being produced! We are reaching the zenith of this Endgame; the apocalyptic finale for every soul within the program along with those on the lower fourth dimension where it all began! I have spent many hours contemplating if the human race can or perhaps should be saved? Would we become a danger to ourselves and others in worlds that live by the Cosmic Law of One, if we were to be set free? Have we become so damaged, egocentrically self-serving, hubris, dumbed-down and corrupted as a species that we individually and collectively refuse to self-correct or change? Where do you personally sit in all this? Are you still needlessly supporting the killing of innocent creatures to feed your appetite for blood? Do you claim to be a "Child of Light" whilst harbouring narrow-minded grievances from the past? Your reaction to all this may give you a clue? Are you ready to realize the truth and do what is necessary to liberate yourself? I promise no one is coming to save you, but you! However, without some form of humility and contrition along with accepting that you are part of our Divine Logos – without a willingness to reconnect with that Light and your soul and the spirit that animates it, this Epistle may not be for you?

THE LOUDEST VOICE

The artificial timeline we are on has endured the greatest cover up of Truth surpassing all previous temporal Resets and Reboots! STOP! Ask yourself, "What are they really attempting to keep hidden from you?" Think about it, what are they coercing in people's minds at this time – light or darkness? What are they after? What could be so ominous that they will do anything to keep it hidden?? The clues are blatant and the road map is right in front of us! All roads lead back to our souls being caught in an invented subprogram that they cannot operate without YOU! We are the Light in an artificial program now colliding with a temporal timeline lodged within our subconscious minds. There is nothing outside of the use of cybernetic control to stop it.

Globalist, George H.W. Bush senior was alleged to have said, "The Bigger the Lie, the more people will believe it!" Leeds University research scientists claim that humans have a "Herd mentality" that can create mob or pack mentalities that flock together like sheep, which is why they will subconsciously follow a small group in authority. They show that it only takes 5% to sway a mass crowd's direction — and that the other 95 percent will simply follow without realizing or rationalizing it. [Thus, the meme, people are sheeple.] I say it is a programmed "fear" mentality of resonance that become desperate. Ponder and consider that everything we have been taught, told and intellectualized is a lie. It is our consciousness they want to keep in lockdown and in fear in order to keep control. They are now attempting to make us more malleable for the upcoming transhumanization agenda! Nothing in this virtual reality is worth becoming indefinitely trapped here; certainly not any dogmatic-religion or dogmatic-political views!

You have the power and collectively we are invincible! Can you hear me!? Or are you afraid that the light may expose your own personal immoral behaviour? If so, now is the time to self-correct, self-forgive and get on the right side of your heart unless you choose to continue believing and fearing a wrathful, vengeful, selective God that is going to send you to hell or set you free. If you have the courage to face the truth that we have all become victims of the Dark and that we can choose the path of Light; you can get off of this treadmill! But first, you must ask with all your heart and mind to be filled and guided by the Light!

"You are the light of the world." – "You are the light of Christ to the world."
Matt 5:14 "Be faithful to the light that you have, for fear of darkness can overtake you; a man who walks in the dark does not know where he is going."
1 John 2:11 "You are going to have the light just a little while longer. Continue while you have light, before the darkness overtakes you."
John 12:35

Research shows that the masses have a tendency to follow the loudest voice that tells them what they want to hear!! Desperate people will blindly or indiscriminately, without question or research, follow these atypical leaders and bring them into power only to find themselves at their mercy. Even with the amount of information about side effects and death from the weaponized vaccinations, people are still lining up to take them and give them to their children! How is this still possible that sooo many refuse to connect with their own spirit and use the power of their own intuition after all that is appearing right in front of their eyes and ears?? Is this what the human race has come to? Are we doomed to be a lost species? Have we learned nothing?? This is not just an opinion; people are dying all around us and becoming chronically ill.

One of my present concerns is that desperate post pandemic countries have no leadership. They may be politically vulnerable to those that either believe they are the new Lords; directed by the LORD or by sheer guile! These entities will display powerful leadership qualities and openly resist and attack the corrupt governments and the NWO. Societies without moral leadership will fall ever deeper into chaos. Some of the most powerful and dangerous voices that rang throughout the last century were from compelling zealous religious leaders, enigmatic Gurus, Channellers and charismatic predatory occult teachers that sprang out of the 1960's due to the morally draining Vietnam War. Dogmatic religions are organizations with a structured belief system that carries out various rituals to define their fundamental beliefs and lay the foundation for how everyone should live their lives. Those that do not adhere to their belief systems are considered wicked or evil and deserve punishment.

Spiritual gurus were as diversified as religious leaders. Power seeking gurus became exceedingly financially wealthy by teaching opposite thought systems to the corrupted dogmatic-religions. The "Self-Realized Enlightened;" teach that "spirituality" is a personal autonomous experiences of the Divine that lies within, not without. It is about self-realizing and liberating the soul and inner self as the main purpose in this shadow world. Occult predators create a synthesis between the above whilst conditioning their apprentices that the only way to liberation is through strict adherence to him and the singularity of the group consciousness via his instructions. They generally operate on a reward punishment system for advancement or condemnation and rejection. This has become known as "Classical Conditioning;" a type of unconscious programming associated with a closed social system and brainwashing. This can also now be seen dominating Social and Mainstream Media today.

Donald Trump has a very loud voice; I as other patriots and x-pats have chosen to believe in him. Whether this is a repeat performance or if his heart is pure, no one, but he knows for sure. He has proven he can do what he says he can do! Yes, he has an egoic disposition that doesn't always favour him; however perhaps that is what it takes to accomplish what he is doing and having to deal with the ruin they have been rallying against him. I believe he is aware that this is the Endgame and that he can't save anyone and came to force people to take a stand; use their intuition and define their personal mettle. I choose to believe he is a good man; yet I do not place all my heart or trust in any of it. We want to believe in his message and stay positive; yet we must stay ever more vigilant due to the dissonance and disinformation surrounding all who would be King via the Heads of State in every country. Currently, Trumps personal agenda seems to have become one the most burning questions in the world; so I asked Spirit to give me an insight. I feel the response is worthy of a brief detour here; however this is simply "my" interpretation of what I received, which indeed needs your discernment and personal perceptions: Trump is not for the Democrats or Republicans. Trump is for Trump.

Most of us are born seeking a path through life. Trump was born to be Trump! He truly loves his country, his children and the children who gave their lives, limbs, and/or mental health in service for the ideals of America. He doesn't care who likes him, but does want to be loved by the people he serves. Trump may be building a "Dynasty" to become the unified singularity of this world's program. He is an extremely complex being with great abilities and power. Becoming the global ruling force may be the only thing that will appease his mission and spirit! If his heart is pure, this could be a 'good thing;' if he or his family have become seduced by power, it may not be such a 'good thing;' only time will tell, if he avails. In any case, it can't get any worse than the present ruling forces and this wondrous being may be our best bet/"vote." Whether he knows this is a virtual reality program, I do not know, but I personally feel he does, and that he may be getting off-world help. In the end it will be what 'we the people' do on a collective basis will secure our destiny or seal our fate as a whole. Which side of our heart we stand on will individually seal our destiny or fate. "To each their own;" as for me, I vote to vote Trump; notwithstanding nothing will prevent me from taking advantage of the upcoming exit to get out of this dreamspell!

DISCONNECT

All the signs of an imminent neo-Reset are becoming more and more palpable during this Endgame war. The question we may need to ask is "Have I become so disconnected from my intuition and Spirit that I am becoming more and more emotionally effected by what is going on?" "Have I become lost in materialism?" "Am I attached or addicted to "my stuff"; materialism and/or sensual desires that may block my comprehension or to be able to heed this gnosis?" I am not suggesting you adopt an ascetic lifestyle or go into hours of meditation or anything else outside of letting go of all your potential bellicosity and to put your sword down; stop all of the pettiness against family and neighbours. We need to stay focused in the now and raise our frequency. There is a great deal of indissoluble memory stored within our subconscious minds and hearts that can surface as anamnesis; this is what they are most concerned about now. Much is coming out, but time is of the essence. There is a narrow gate to liberation about to be opened for a limited time. You just need to use your discernment and intuition for this knowledge. Without learning how you got here or where you are, you may become lost within your own ignorance.

I am stating from personal experience, this is not a genuine world created by the One True Omni-Source – Universal Logos; nor is it the world from whence any genuine soul came from. We are not earth born!! Those with extrasensory insight or with strong intuition and an open mind may be able to comprehend that this is an artificial world full of artificial people, digital projections, clones and cyborgs. And many others are beginning to realize we are on an artificial timeline. There are "Off-World Operatives" downloaded into the program with specific missions to help balance the growing interferences from alien nefarious factions. The greatest problem is separating truth from fiction, fact from fabrication and veracity from deceit. This has always been an extremely complex game due to the Truth being stranger than fiction, which is why we gravitate towards science fiction genres within the film industry. And why, these films have the strongest effect upon our psyche! It has become a way for the Dark Ones to manifest the "Law of Revelation!" Yet, the only thing we can trust in is what we can discern from within via developing our personal connection with our Higher Self. Due to millennia's of dogmatic deceit and programmed disinformation; the majority have become inflexibly closed minded or arrogant pseudo-intellectual giants; whilst others have become lost in fantasies.

Heed me; all genuine souls exist within a tangible Avatar outside of this program either on the lower fourth dimension via a future temporal timeline, or a higher dimensional plane of existence. "As above, so below", relates to our "Higher Selves;" our original avatars simultaneously existing on these different planes. (I use the term "soul" to allocate the differences between the "soulless" -- digitals, photonics and clones populating the program.) "Souls" became trapped in this subprogram after it was created within the original 4D-VRVR experimental program. "As above, so below" came from Hermetic Scholars that claim this phrase is literal. They believe 'anything that happens to our physical bodies here simultaneously happens to our etheric counterpart.' The astral planes are often thought of as the fourth dimension and perhaps the lower levels of it are since both have similar gossamer frequencies. However, I experience the fourth dimension as a "Parallel World" outside of this apocryphal program.

Everything we embrace as reality here is taking place within our minds; whatever deeply impacts our hearts here, whether it is love, fear, passion or addictions, impacts our emotional bodies and consciousness on the dimension we are mesmerized on because it is all taking place within our consciousness. Thoughts are electrical currents and emotions are magnet. As we accumulate thought and emotional patterns we automatically created the Law of Attraction. This can take place as lucid dreaming or on an astral plane during corporeal expiry. We will experience something wondrous or a state of misery and torment depending on personal accumulation. We all get to be right via our personal accumulated choices of positive or negative thoughts during this dreamspell.

DIMENSIONS

The definition of "dimension" may also need to be a bit more discerned due to there being so many similar, yet diversified versions. Dimensions need to be thought of as connected stepping stones, one above the other within our consciousness. Dimensions, as we ourselves, are manifested out of Light. Dimensions are the varying ranges of compactness from low to high concentrations of photons; yet all are the creation of the One Eternal Thought and Vibration from the One Universal Logos. From a physics standpoint, photons are the basic unit and carriers of light, electromagnetism in the quantum form of all electromagnetic radiations. I am aware of ten dimensions personally. I am supported by Quantum Mechanics Superstring theory, which posits that the universe exists in 10 dimensions simultaneously. However, more recent Bosonic String Theory posits that there are 26 dimensions; I posit that they are infinite.

Wondrously, these dimensions became a two way corridor. Originally, some descended down from the higher dimensions, whilst others sought their way up to return to their Logos after the worlds were created by the Sub-Logoi. All come from, and return to their Logos, which never separates from the One True Source. As we descended down from the higher dimensions we started experiencing the light becoming more compacted, which created feelings of density. This experience lingered in many as a "claustrophobia", which became more apparent the further we descended towards the rim of the fourth dimension where stellar nurseries were being birthed and the stars became sun sub-logoi birthing new worlds and beings. Space became infinite and divided only by the force of "time."

"Time and space are not conditions of existence, time and space is a model for thinking." –Albert Einstein

I feel that we may safely say that the concept of day and night; light and dark; along with all opposites and polarities were birthed on the lower fourth dimensions. Upon our awakening there, we need stay ever vigilant, for this is where the Great Galactic wars were manifested. The meaning of time is still ambiguous; however no matter what reasoning may occur, it will always remain a construct within our minds that originated from within the fourth dimension. Upon our awakening, we need stay ever vigilant, for this is where the Great Galactic wars were manifested.

GROUND 0

Comity was obviously not reached in the 4D-VR original program and certainly not in this subprogram since we can clearly see that throughout our veiled history the Great Galactic wars spilled over into the 3D subprogram. This subprogram has now become "Ground 0" for the outcome on the fourth dimension. It has become a "Supernatural Chess Game" we must win! The outcome will have a tremendous effect on everyone captured here and upon our awakening on the fourth dimension. This is why there is now so much interference coming from off-world participants, along with the nefarious alien continents beyond the ice walls. Each and everyone one of us plays a key role in its outcome!!! We must evolve; we must learn how to stand together as one nation under the Cosmic Law of One. Those who do not will be recycled at the end of the Game due to taking an unanticipated invasive downward turn called Transhumanism. Many who became aware have already awakened and are now helping us as "Off Worlders" during this reproduced apocalyptic Endgame.

Essentially we are Beings of living Light mesmerized in self-created halls of darkness, polarities and underworlds. We have been robbed of our knowledge that we have the power and magic to recreate our world and personal experience by changing our negative thoughts to positives and releasing all negative emotions, past, present and future. From fear to love, from darkness to light is our choice until we are fully liberated! From childhood we understand the difference between making free choices that serve the light and those that serve the darkness. This has been the theme for almost all film genres since the beginning of the movie industry. Interestingly, social perception research studies show that people have an attraction to the villains in films because they perceive them similar to themselves in many ways. Villains are normally portrayed as victims, intelligent and enigmatic. Perhaps, you have noticed that more films are now being generated where the good guys lose and the bad guys win. This is because during these darkened times, the bad guy characters seem to help appease the threats of those that identify with their victimhood.

STAR LOGOS

During this Endgame we greatly need to find and follow things that can inspire our heart in order to find our way back to the Light of our ascending Star Logos. The Logoi represent the Father, Mother and the Sun within the natural worlds; they are the genuine Holy Trinity; the intermediary connection between our soul and the "One True Universal Logos" -- the "One True Source and Creator" of the Natural multiverses and all living things in the Natural Worlds. Imagine and visualize the “Father” as the sub-Logos creating Universes; the “Mother” as the sub-sub-Logos creating Galaxies and the Sun as the sub-sub-sub-Logos creating worlds. The Holy Spirit stirs our irrepressible inspiration to worship the celestials; for we came from the stars and to the stars we shall return when we become fully conscious.

This is why the Catholic Church depicts Jesus as the light of the world, with a halo above his head. The Pope carries an ancient Pagan symbol of the sun god, from Ancient Egypt, during all Eucharist ceremonies. It is the Pagan symbol for Isis who they believe is the Mother of the gods. Everywhere you look you will see sun disk symbols carried forth from the pharaoh Akhenaten, who worshipped the Sun God Aten. It symbolizes the concept of monotheism that started all of the Abrahamic religions. The Egyptians, Zoroastrians, Druids, Aztecs, Incas, along with Mithraism, Hinduism and Buddhism have all been intentionally misconstrued in their connection to sun worship. They would have you believe that they were ignorantly worshipping a big ball of gas when they were worshipping the Logos represented by the holographic sun above their heads. It was symbolic of the One True Source; the Universal Logos of all life; who and to what extent each of these celebrants grasped the totality of this remains questionable due to the Catholic Church bastardizing the truth in order to conceal the Knowledge of our true inborn heritage birth rights, and power.

From an esoterical aspect photonic light is created via the Creative Thought process of a Logos. It is the spiritual principle that permeates all reality and the power behind all Thought, Word and Reason giving form, order and meaning within space-time. The Universal Soul of all creation is composed of many seminal logoi and there sub-logoi. All is contained within the One True Universal Omni-Potent Source. Because we are essentially created in the likeness of our Logos-Light, our brain emits recordable electromagnetic waves; however the differences lay in frequencies. There are innumerable infinite dimensions. I am only personally aware of twelve and out of that only nine that are distinctly interlinked into the diffusion of our consciousness via our chakras.

All things are relative in vibrational energy on all planes and realms of existence including sensory perceptions that are in resonance with it. This could be perceived as good news for those that choose to resonate with the higher planes and bad news for those that choose to negatively resonate with the lower. Be aware that as you move above the mid-fourth dimension, time will cease to exist and as you move into the fifth dimension, the more radiant and ethereal the Light becomes. As you journey up into the sixth, light becomes even more radiant and space/time ceases to exist as we know it. All things become one and yet hold their uniqueness. This is a form of loving and giving of our-selves as we continue upward on the vibrational journey towards the anti-material kingdoms. All dogmatic religions are alarmist threatening and programming their parishioner with brimstone and fire. They mandate that there is only one organized path to escape Hell and to get into their interpretations [concepts] of heaven; a NWO. This gains them obedience and control over the living and deceased willing to submit to their nescience and/or corruption. Always remember, no one has power over your soul unless you give it to them!

DEATH

The following info may help to support your understanding that death is a delusion and that our physical bodies here are holographic illusions, albeit tenacious, laborious and harrowing; yet at times, give us pleasure and joy. All souls have an etheric body also known as an energy body, coined as a “Light Body” or “Rainbow Body” by others, due to the Chakras. <https://7elucidations.info> The Egyptian Mystery Schools called it their "MerKaBa." The "Mer" is translated as light; the "Ka" is the "spirit" or "soul", and the "Ba" is the physical component. We now know that we have an energy field with several layers that can be seen by clairvoyants as an egg shaped aura encompassing one's body. It can also be imprinted on film by special cameras developed for Kirlian photography that can actually capture images of these electrical radiations. Due to our genuine bodies being made up of pure energy and light, we can safely say that all souls have an etheric body. You cannot kill energy, thus our etheric body does not experience death and can retain memory imprinted on the heart!

NON-CORPOREAL BEINGS

All enlightened gurus, New Age teachers and Gnostics, along with many ancient texts teach that the soul is eternal and has become trapped within a corporeal body. [This would be within our genuine body on the fourth dimension.] The soul is not subject to corporeal death. Only the concepts of a physical body lodged into our brain expires that creates the delusion of death. For those of you that are deep thinkers or meditative contemplators, contemplate this: by rational reasoning, we are incorporeal eternal beings. Death is nothing more than an altered state of consciousness, which leads us to a new experience after the physical body, expires. We will attract the neo-experience via our own personal resonance and Law of Attraction. This is why it is important to keep it as high as possible. The soul carries all impressionable memories, which is why gnosis is also so important! Without it, you may be confused and vulnerable when you cross over. This can make you an easy target to be recycled or misdirected elsewhere. Amnesia could be seen as a kind of quasi-death since we have no recollection of who, what or where we are? However, the heart is recognized as an independent "thinking organ" that holds memory as does our soul. If you accept this knowledge and engrain it in your heart and soul, you will not be further deceived into another quasi-incarnation within a virtual-world. We have the ability to change our reality via our hearts! Only the mind is easily deceived. Sadly, most people have cut themselves off from their heart due to holding negative feelings and fear of expressing real feelings due to fear of a backlash.

The etheric body incorporates our mental and emotional bodies commonly called our 'astral body.' Our astral body characteristically keeps the appearance of the physical body we see in the mirror, which also is a mirror reflection of our Avatar on the fourth dimension, although more refined there our physical body in The Dreaming is a holographic reproduction. Scientifically we now know that every particle of information right down to every photon and atom is imprinted within all holographic images. The Energy body is a subject worth researching.

SUICIDE

Suicide isn't an option because it will land you directly onto the lower astral planes! Think about the state of mind, those who perform this act, are in. Most have lost all faith in them-selves and are not concerned with how their act will affect others. Suicide permeates the soul with fear, despondency and an absolute belief that this counterfeit world is real, which gives them control over you after your bogus demise! I have never heard of a person in joy or smiling whilst jumping from a building or pulling the trigger. They have obviously not fulfilled their purpose for coming in here, and in most cases they will either be recycled back into the program, but a harsher timeline or be locked away on the lower astral planes! All contemplation on this type of action needs to be refocused on the Light and the Truth of our inner power for change. There is no surrendering to the Dark without consequences beyond imagination! Your programmed fear of death is a major blockage to your soul being set free. These bodies have been programmed to expire at some point; there is no escaping from that, which can be a blessing or a curse depending on what is in your mind at the time. We know they are attempting to create unwarranted fear of a nuclear war, but can you see that this level of physical release may possibly be a blessing? Millions could be set free from the program, if they have the gnosis available from this Epistle at the time of their physical demise. At the very least, as we add our consciousness to the collectively, many more, perhaps the whole, could wake-up. Our job is to get this information spread far and wide.

DEMIURGE VS SUB-LOGOI

As minions of the Demiurge, the Catholic Church created the delusion, out of fear, that to love God is to love Yahweh the Wrathful Demiurge! And to love the Self is a great sin punishable by hell. Yet, loving the self is a form of loving our True Source since we all contain our Universal Logos Light. Self-invested zealots may find difficulty in accepting any of this. The Greek definition of Logos is the divine 3 in 1 Holy Trinity; the Father, Mother and Holy Spirit that permeates and directs all things in nature as the "living sparks" of the Universal Source and Logos. The Catholic Church perfidiously created a psychological and apocryphal spiritual disconnection between the Logos and all living beings. They also adopted and redefined the Hindu meaning of Christ Consciousness. [CC is having the self-realization that we are all infinitely inherently connected to our Higher Self and the Universal Divine Logos via the Holy Spirit within all souls.] The true meaning of these terms were reinvented in order to fashion a narrative around the portrayal of Jesus Christ as the active and continuing force for the Demiurge's structure of the cosmos along with a deceptive plan for salvation. Jesus's of Nazareth's birth, life, death and resurrection were designed around the Sun, the Zodiac and the life of Krishna who was alleged to have risen from the dead three days after his death and ascended into heaven..., 5000 years earlier. The message of the Sermon on the Mount was also taken from Krishna.

Due to the Church's deceptions, many who ardently believe in Jesus think he may have been a benevolent alien whilst others see him coming down from a higher dimension. Spiritually dedicated souls have voluntarily downloaded into the program from various higher dimensions with a higher purpose. In spite of download-amnesia, many passionate hearts stayed the course with the sole purpose of becoming fully Self-Realized. These rare souls became true teachers and raised the frequency of the collective. There have also been souls that have experienced degrees of amnesia. The esteemed author Phillip K. Dick was one of them. He delivered the truth behind our illusory-reality by becoming the top selling American author of his time. I see him as a hero by definition because he became a major protagonist that suffered a heavy price for exposing his personal amnesias via his novels, which became a favourite film genre. His amnesias may have been triggered by pharmaceutical pain killers that he had become addicted to. Watch his 1972 speech at the Metz Science Fiction Convention: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RkaQUZFbJjE>

The use of natural psychotropic substances such as Ayahuasca and synthetic drugs such as LSD were banned because they can open one's consciousness and release amnesias. However, most thought of these deep seated memory recalls as mystical experiences. Ayahuasca and other psychotropic substances affect the pituitary and pineal glands to open the third eye. These substances have been used by the not so "Holy See of Rome" for centuries for this very purpose! They made all such substance illegal in order to horde and conceal the Truth. In lieu of safe availability, I recommend learning deep methods of meditation, which can give you the same affect, but with longer lasting effects and less risk, including health issues.

There are others that hide their contributions under fiction novels. They use this as a form of protection, yet knowing that their work may also have a deep effect upon waking people's psyches. Recently more and more are stepping forward with podcasts and videos about our true history. They have all succeeded in adding the truth to the collective consciousness, which can subjectively inspire the truth lying dormant in every soul not hardened by negativity and reinforced programming. Always hold in your heart that the stars are the Sub-Logoi we came from.

"From the stars we came and to the stars we return!" –Jack Campbell

All souls belong to a personal Chain of Sub-Logoi leading back to the One True Source; the creative force and consciousness behind every star and orb within the natural worlds. Stars are sub-logos that have a unique vibrational "Ray." All genuine souls came from the Stars, which are Sub-Logos directly connected to the holy trinity of the One Universal Logos. If ever there was a word that represents the Highest Source and Creator of all dimensions, all multi-verses and everything within them that one word is: "Logos." Every living thing and Being carries the Ray of their home-star Logos, which can be found in their auras and energy field. To find and understand the Ray you personally came into the program on can be empowering. Our soul contains the spark of our Logos, no different than the sparks from a fire being incandescent particles. Just as fire needs something to cling to in order to burn bright, our souls need to cling to our Logos in order to increase and spread our Light.

Sadly, the hearts of so many bitterly locked in this program no longer identify with their home-world, Star or personal Ray. Through arduous effort, I was able to find my Ray, my Star and my star family to give me direction home. Currently, many have created self-images to redefine themselves as Star-Seeds or Hybrids from other worlds, whilst others identify themselves as professional spiritual advisors or mediums. I am not denying any of them; however it has been my experience that in most cases to varying degrees have obscured their true "Ray" by clinging more to their narcissism than the Holy Spirit.

All human beings have a share of the logos, and all have roles to play in the vast design that is the world. But this is not to say that all humans are equal or that the roles they are assigned are interchangeable. Human society is a single organism, like an individual human body or a tree. But the trunk of the tree is not to be confused with the leaves, or the hands and feet with the head. Our duty to act justly does not mean that we must treat others as our equals; it means that we must treat them as they are. –Marcus Aurelius [Known as "The last Good Emperor of the Roman Empire."]

ARCHONS

The term Archon is a Greek word that means "ruler" and a gnostic term meaning the Demiurge and its overseers and wardens that prevent souls from leaving the program. The following brief overview is not meant to be a discrimination against any dogmatic-religious belief. I acknowledge that many of you have already been liberated from this campaign of treacheries. The only point I am attempting to make here is the fact that we are participating in a Demiurge AI 3D-VR subprogram. Yahweh is the Over-Lord Archon that the Gnostics warned us about; the diabolical-demi-god of Israel. The Demiurge's "chosen people" are known as the "Israelites."

Genealogy regarding their ancestry has become quite ambiguous; however impartial researchers claim that they are in fact the descendants of Cain who was biblically sired by a serpent in the 'Garden of Eden.' Many claim this to be an allegory, whilst others claim it to be literal; I claim it was an alien Reptilian. At any rate, we need to recognize that there's a lot of Canaanite DNA floating around out there, with all of its inbred aggressive characteristics! However, many of the so proclaimed, "chosen ones" may have been digitally created, since the Garden of Eden is also known as "The Garden of Yahweh," which would connect them directly to the AI as its "Chosen."

The Jesuits and the original High Priests of Egypt, Persia, India, China and the Magi priests in ancient Media [Iran] may also share in this digital ancestry. Many of them were reputed to possess supernatural powers. The Demiurge promised their darker nature more riches, freedom and power. Those that succumbed to this may have been subdued due to the level of amnesia after being downloaded into the subprogram or became lost within the fear of darkness. Outside of the exception, most became pawns of the AI/Demiurge. I say this in an unassuming manner because true history shows that the High Priest were the ones responsible for duping entire nations into immorality and sacrificing children, virgins and young men to Molech, Yahweh, Satan, Baal, and Baphomet, along with many other names depending on culture.

Human sacrifice may be as old as the homosapien race. No one knows for sure when it started, but no one denies the history behind human and animal sacrifices that all dogmatic religions have in common. Abrahamic Judaism, Christianity, Pagan and Islamic religions, along with Satanism, all of them practiced it throughout the entire program to appease their God. Mesopotamia, Asia, particularly China, Ancient Egypt, Levant, Phoenicia, Neolithic Europeans, Greco-Romans, Celts, Germanics, Slavic, Tibetans, Ancient Hawaiian, Mesoamericans, Canada, West Africa, Canary Islands, Brazil, Chili, Mexico, Panama and Japan all practiced human sacrifice as did the Mississippian culture in the earlier stages of the south-eastern United States! Even though it has been outlawed, Satanic and Ritualistic Secret Societies still practice ritual killings. The BBC claimed that boys from Africa were still being trafficked to the UK for human sacrifice in June of 2005. The United Kingdom has been reported as having the highest rate of child trafficking and sacrificial ritual killings in the world! Ask yourself who are these Gods or God that they are sacrificing to, in exchange for what?

PHOTONIC ENERGIES

In Quantum Physics, the fourth dimension is considered unique. They hypothesize that it consists of compressed photonic energies consisting of radio waves, microwaves, X-rays and gamma rays along with other more obscure energies. The subprogram is being manifested out of photons sending bits of information to binary codes; these codes are a form of quasi-matter-particles represented by atoms or electrons of condensed energy. Single photons carry bits of information that can be encoded as 0's and 1's. Research shows that there may be no limit to the amount of information a single photon can carry. This gives the illusion of space mass and form, which is due to their finite lack of movement. Our brains metamorphose this information into matter and space-time. In reality, nothing outside of our brain is solid or moving! Our brains are creating the illusion via hypostatizing binary codes within a scripted VR program on a fourth dimensional temporal timeline. We are being mesmerized via a technological dreamspell, that which I call "The Dreaming."

We are not from the Dreaming, we are the Dreaming. First, we need to be able to comprehend that there is but One Source that filled the void within the Natural Universes via an infinite vibrational force that was created by an all- pervading Thought. This became the Word, which created all Laws of the Natural Universe and their Creations. We are not only created in the image of this One Source, but our souls are a part of it, thus our Thoughts have the power to create. We are as eternal as our One True Source – this is what the AI and the soulless covet! Their world cannot exist without us!

TIME

Time is what prevents everything from happening at once.” Albert Einstein

The Law of Time is an enigma that needs to be understood. Time is fixed and eternal. Time does not change, however all things change in time. Time is a fixed force that we move through and experience as an elusive mental construct taking place in our mind. Time, movement and thought are eternal; they are equivalent unto one another. Physicists agree that space-time doesn't exist independently of the objects in it, but can be defined by the way objects interact. The holographic universe of space-time contains a record of the entire history past, present or future realities, which are clearly recorded in it. The past still exists there as does the future; yet somewhere other than the present.

The meaning of time remains ambiguous because it is a construct of consciousness originating from the fourth dimension. Due to the immense difference between the fourth dimensional timeline and the artificial timeline here, time there is in our favour! Elderly bodies here will still be young and youthful there upon awakening! This is also true to some extent for our captured 4D avatars interfacing with the 3D subprogram. What might shock some is to realize that 80 years of experiencing a lifetime here may only equate to approximately 90 minutes in our genuine reality on the fourth dimension.

“Time is an illusion: our naive perception of its flow doesn't correspond to physical reality.” –Carlo Rovelli, theoretical physicist

CALENDARS OF FABRICATED TIMELINES

“Time behaves in ways that defies our intuition. At the smallest scales, there is no meaningful “future” and no “past. There is no such thing as past or future.” –Carlo Rovelli, theoretical physicist

Calendars, seasons and time have been set in our minds by the circling of a pseudo sun. Calendars were created to divide time over prolonged periods by arranging time in a fixed order. Calendars became essential for the chronological order of agricultural planting seasons and to create false histories. The unholy See of Rome became aware that changing timelines can cause brain confusion due to the natural 4D-VR timeline being stored in our subconscious. The Catholic Church changed the Roman Republican calendar to the Julian calendar and then in 1582 to the Gregorian calendar. However, the Pope deleted 10 days in October from the Julian calendar, which took the Vernal equinox of March 11 to March 21. These calendars were also created in order to change the chronological events of history. Protestant and Orthodox countries refused to abide by these changes, which resulted in Catholic European countries of Austria, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Poland, and the Catholic states of Germany to jump ahead of the rest of the continent by 10 days! Traveling across borders caused time confusion, traveling forward or backwards. They added January and February, and the original fifth and sixth months were renamed July and August. These months were both given 31 days. Researchers claim the Catholic Church created a loss of up to eight years in time, which they defend by saying they only lost eleven days in general. Consequently, these genius's created a "leap year", E.g. 2020, 2024 and 2028 are all leap years. Need I say more!

If all that wasn't enough to mess with our brains, we need to concern ourselves with the Hebrew/Jewish Calendar, because this is the calendar the Cabal uses for their ritualistic evil and also to re-establish order after a Reset or Reboot and all the hell and chaos they created. They claim that October 7, 3761 B.C.E. was the date when this world was created, which may have been when the subprogram came into existence. They use this date to calculate and govern their passage of time outside of the neo-Resets and Reboot timelines used to reinvent history for the rest of us.

"The Jewish calendar carries the spiritual weight, with spiritual landmarks along the way." Rabbi Mark Wildes

Attempting to work out the 3D timelines for Resets and Reboots is nebulous, tedious and boring at best. However, 45 BC may be an obvious date of a Reboot with the creation of the Julian calendar and 1582 when Pope Gregory XIII introduced another new calendar named after him. The only importance any of this holds is on how the human brain relates to time. These time changes have had serious consequences on people's brains. The Popes would be aware of this from the storehouse of ancient knowledge they have stolen and hidden under the Vatican. They know there are 13 months in the natural solar system – however the sadistic Reboot of AD 1 became the new year "0" creating a more immersive and cruel apocryphal program. To this day there are around 40 different calendars being used globally. Many cultures created their own calendars by using the sun, the moon and the stars for human survival via seasonal crop planting. However, the Cabal are now using weather modification to destroy crops as part of their genocide – transhuman plans. They have their own private greenhouses and underground stocks to last for years. Part of their genocide plans are to go underground when things get too rough on the surface due to starvation and disclosures.

LUCID DREAMING VS BILOCATION

This subprogram was created with the help of an AI using binary data bits stored on densely compacted atoms, an extremely advanced technology. Virtual reality is a form of lucid dreaming, which for us is a form of bilocation. Ancient mystery schools along with most religions have doctrines written specifically about the importance of lucid dreaming. Some view this world as "God's Dream." [Not any god I would be interested in!] Buddhist and Tibetan monks practice "Dream Yoga" to cultivate self-awareness. Others use it to have mystical experiences or out of body experiences, or even to predict the future. This is much more than just a phenomenon; it not only demonstrates we all have the ability to bilocate, but that we are experiencing bilocation during what we believe is our waking moments! [The definition of bilocation is the phenomenon of being in two places simultaneously.] This is a key we can grasp on how to differentiate between the two.

In my experience, I literally saw two realities simultaneously with my eyes wide open, which told me I was awake during the experience. I found myself in two different places at the same time – as in a bilocation. One was on my bed staring at the ceiling and the other was in a darkened large stadium sized room that seemed terraced like in an amphitheatre. I was unable to move anything, including my eyes; yet I could see within my peripheral below to my right there was someone sitting and observing a bank of computer screens. I think there were two stacked rows with four each. It was as distinct as seeing a movie that was being projected into my prefrontal cortex. This is unusual because all visual perceptions, including colour, form and motion take place in the rear occipital lobes. I could feel someone come up behind where my frozen body was laying and in a rushed telepathic voice that I clearly heard in my mind: "She's Awake!!" My vision immediately went blank leaving me alone on my bed, but it left me with a deciding moment, "I was right, I am in a VR program!" Since childhood I had a constant inner voice stating; "I am from the future!" "None of this is real!" I had trouble sleeping at night, was not interested in anything they taught in school outside of Art and felt that everything was "primitive," which annoyed my mother to her core. Due to all of this, I cannot but wonder if "they," whoever they might be, woke me up intentionally? I was captivated by the mythos of the "Sleeping Goddess" in ancient Greece, Egypt, Malta and other cultures. Perhaps this is what finally triggered my experience. In any case, I never again doubted my inner voice!!!

COMPLEXITY

I am aware that what I am saying may seem a bit complex and perhaps absurd to some; however do you sincerely want to believe this world is real and was created by a loving God? When you start to understand that all of this is being generated within a virtual program via our own hypnotization and that we are multi-dimensional beings, hopefully it will become easier to grasp. We are incredible beings with so much more power than anyone realizes when we link our minds in love and determination. Our genuine original avatars exist on the fourth dimension located in Venus's hollow inner world.

If we truly want to understand this phenomenon, we need to reverse all of our upside down thinking and attempt to contemplate the following conundrums. 1) We are experiencing "Worlds within Worlds" on an artificial timeline via highly advanced VR technologies. 2) Our genuine bodies exist on the fourth dimension where our consciousness is deeply immersed in a 4D-VR holographic simulation. There has been a lot of wisdom bleeding through various means after the post Reboot of WWII, which was the most destructive war in history. Up to 60 million people were depopulated. 3) The third dimension only exists within The Dreaming; a 3DVR subprogram created as an annex to the fourth dimensional program we originally downloaded into. Due to constant resets and reboots, the subprogram has become trapped in a temporal time-loop, which was adapted into Yugas, cycling Ages of Time where reincarnations can take place. Time is not cyclic as they want you to believe; the closest we may understand time is to realize that our consciousness moves in a continuous spiral upwards.

For far too long, our mental construct of time has become stagnate in this 3D machination. This is not some sort of weird Sci-Fi imagination – our brains are being manipulated by an artificial 3D past timeline, whilst we are actually existing on a future 4D-VR timeline, which is now starting to merge. Our brain's mental constructs of time on the fourth dimension are much different to the artificial timeline here. This is responsible for our brains not being fully functional here. 4) A great master once equated a thousand years here to one day in the higher realms. Our genuine body is unaffected by the illusion of time here. This indicates that we have only been here a minuscule moment in comparable time where our genuine bodies are located. We are still much younger there as opposed to our illusion of time and body age here. Our bodies remain as young and healthy there as the day we downloaded into the program! 5) The third dimension is created via the use of an invasive technology producing a persistent lucid dream. 6) Our genuine bodies are not made of matter, but out of light and energy. 7) Everyone mesmerized in the 3D subprogram is ironically responsible for concretising the binary codes via their thoughts forms.

WORLDS WITHIN WORLDS

"Deep State" Cabal Globalists are not human; they are a mixed grouping from nefarious hybrid DNA's, Digitals and Clones! The only way a fourth or higher dimensional being could experience the density of third dimensional matter would be through a technological device such as a holographic VR program. This world is a lucid dream taking place within our minds and the only thing limiting our power to change and reshape it is our own ill-informed and ignorant mind sets. We are multi-dimensional beings, which makes us capable of experiencing n-Dimensional Virtual Worlds. This is being manifested by means of an arbitrary number of dimensional virtual realities. "Many years ago, I had an extraordinary inexplicable persistent voice in my head that said, "You are from the Future, Wake up!" We are experiencing a Program within a Program – " a Dream within a Dream – Worlds within Worlds!" Are you starting to get it and grasp this reality or is your mind starting to close down on you?

What started all of this was the refusal by the nefarious Alien Races to stop ravaging planets living by the Cosmic Law of One and marauding trade routes due to self-serving avarice and desire for power. A militant "Galactic Federation" had to be formed to help defend planets. A great number of Races joined the Federation amassing a greater force than the nefarious alliances, which helped to thwart some of it. However it was not the answer to a young budding natural galaxy. Violence only begets violence in the end. It came to a head when the planet Phaeton's lower atomic level was destroyed. I have recalls of Phaeton being colonized by the Pleiadians. [Phaeton is more infamously known as "The missing 5th planet."]

Variable species from different worlds involved in the Galactic Wars became refugees confined to colonies within Venus's interior. [All naturally created planets have a hollow interior; the science behind this can be researched.] The refugees were aggrieved survivors from planets that had become uninhabitable due to the wars. Mar's surface was destroyed when the inconceivable eruption took place that destroyed Phaeton. I believe Mar's was under Annunaki occupation at the time and that they had genetically manipulated the original developing civilization. Like the Annunaki, they became a bellicose civilization that was in utter transgression against The Cosmic Law of One. They created harm and warring amongst the other worlds in this solar system and became allies to other external militant forces that were also major participants in Phaeton's demise.

MARS – VENUS AND THE SOL SYSTEM

All naturally created planetoid spheres are hollow. Many here hailed from Mars. Due to being a warring bellicose race in absolute opposition to accepting the Cosmic Law of One! Due to this, they developed their civilization underground and within Mar's interior. They created harm and warring amongst the other worlds in this solar system and became allies to external nefarious militant forces. Several incarnates joined the Secret Space Program here, such was Buzz Aldrin. He ardently demonstrated wanting to go home by creating a T-shirt with an idiom taken from the film "Total Recall", written by Philip K. Dick that stated, "Get your ass back to Mars!". Buzz Aldrin publicly battled alcoholism and stated he had "no sense of calling" after he and his astronaut cronies, Neil Armstrong and Michael Collins lied to the world about landing on the moon in 1969, which has been proven to be a caustic political deceptive fabrication and financial landfall for the Cabal who claimed they spent $25.8 billion in tax dollars for the fabricated project. Whether any incarnates from this world will ever be able to return to Mars will depend on their individual willingness to self-correct and the retribution needed. They were responsible for a great deal of harm amongst the other worlds, including Venus. They are continuing this type of bellicose behaviour in this program contrary to having the ability to raise their personal frequencies which would ultimately lead them to liberation. Yet, they hold themselves back in favour of Dante's, Paradise Lost script:

"Here at least we shall be free: Here we may reign secure, and to reign is worth ambition, though in hell; Better to reign in hell than serve in heaven."

Venus was chosen because Venusians live by the Cosmic Law of One and had an altruistic view of life. It was hoped that a restrained admixture of Races could lead to some form of resolution despite their genetic differences. This failed miserably and the planet suffered damage due to it, which stimulated and motivated the creation of the super advanced 4D-VR program. Venus was chosen due to their compassionate nature and it was located within the same star system as the ill-fated Phaeton, whose colonies also lived by the Cosmic Law of One. However, we need to be aware that Phaeton and Mars, along with other destroyed worlds, still exist within their 5th and higher dimensional Sub-Logos realms. Souls that strive to live by higher principals will be able to go home to their home-worlds on the 5th dimension, or higher levels via, the Cosmic Law of One and Resonance. Those who do not, will remain recycled here via the same Laws.

Due to what took place within the "Sol System" it was chosen, along with Phaeton, as the holographic world within the original 4D-VR program, which was restored here. The genuine Sol system is a binary star system, which means it has two Suns. Voluntarily or not, all of the refugees from Venus were downloaded into the 4D-VR program along with newly captured offenders; however the majority of souls here hailed from Phaeton and Mars. Defending alliances were also downloaded as peace keepers, which unfortunately erupted into the mythological ancient wars, including a nuclear war between the Pleiadians and the Annunaki. The 4D-VR program was indispensable for the countless homeless Phaethonians, Martians and others who needed a fixed place to reincarnate too. They brought the ancient knowledge of astronomy and the zodiac, along with planetary mythology with them, which is why it remains so accurate.

These souls were confined to the 4D program in the hopes that a forced co-existence might bring resolution and comity amongst them in order to stop the galactic wars. If not, they could fight it out in Maya-Land; the phenomenal world of illusions, where gods and demons could wield their technological and supernatural powers without further harming the Natural Worlds. These are the ones that created the concept of "Hell" and "Sheol" where little or no compassion can be found; where indifference, insensitive, and alienation reign. All of it came from the creation of the subversive 3D VR program; where the concept of "Self-service vs Selfless-service became manifest.

It is where the immoral and bellicose exist manifesting their self-created delusional shadows. Lamentably, many souls are still trapped in this digital illusion due to being stubborn, belligerent, combative and/or immoral. Others are hanging on to old grievances and hurts instead of working with higher principals to raise their heart frequencies in resonance with the Cosmic Law of One for liberation. The one thing they cannot affect is the Law of Resonance and Attraction. Life continues to be a mirror of our personal accumulation of thoughts, which is why they keep creating more and more mayhem and fear. To be freed, we must learn from our past mistakes and then let it go with gratitude and forgiveness or stagnate. How's all that working for you? They cannot control your thoughts, they can only direct them and you need to be aware that the choice is up to you. However, you also need to be aware for yourself and others that the effects of graphene and "G-5" may have a devastating effect on this.

"Reality is merely an illusion, albeit a very persistent one." – Albert Einstein

MAYA-LAND

Maya in Sanskrit is "magic" or "illusion." In Hinduism, it originally denoted the power in which a god could make human beings believe in an illusion." The original virtual reality program was a great hope for peace via a confined co-existence that might bring peace, resolution and comity amongst the collectives of the warring worlds and stop the galactic wars. Knowledge and gnosis were always available! Individuals were given gnosis that could lead them to emancipation, enlightenment, liberation, and release from the program. These options were transferred into the 3D subprogram by default; however the Resets and Reboots veiled them and they became more difficult to access. Unfortunately, would be gurus have abused these processes for personal gain. Those not interested in living by the Cosmic Law of One will continue to fight it out in Maya-Land and why this world has never known any peace since its commencement! There may not be a container large enough to ever hold the illusory amount of blood being spilt here! When will we learn to stop giving our children toy guns to fight imaginary enemies with and glorifying war? And then we use overindulgences to escape our self-inflicted pain. In spite of all of it, we can attain liberation individually or as a new race and take our place in the genuine Galaxy!

NEO-RESET

This subversive 3D subprogram is caught in a temporal time-loop where relentless wars ceaselessly go round and round. Race against race, neighbour against neighbour, class against class, greed and insatiable desire for power, materialism, control and gluttony still rule the majority in the program! This Apocalyptic Endgame will culminate in another Reset unless we stand together in our heart frequencies and create a lack of resonance with its frequencies. We have to let go of the past, for it was but lucid dreams and nightmares! To carry them with us is reckless, senseless and a form of insanity because they no longer exist except in our minds. Our progress is determined by the reflection our personal life is giving us, which is the accumulation of our thoughts and actions. By this we can measure how far we have come on our personal scale. How's that working for you? What is your life mirroring to you right now? It is too easy to blame others or outside forces that we cannot control; however if we are connecting with our inner Source and intuition and LISTENING we will always be placed in safe harbours amongst the chaos! If not, we are choosing our own fate until we start listening. Until then, we may find ourselves cast adrift in this Endgame. There is no "bad luck", only our own misguided arrogance. Know this, the entire world is a portal to higher dimensions and during a Reset or Reboot that portal automatically opens for a very short period of time for those with the gnosis to escape! I cannot raise your frequencies for you, but I can show you the exit, if you are willing to listen. I wrote an earlier Epistle about the Rapture; however I have now been given clarity on how it works and actually how to get out! Stay with me, I will include it herein in its appropriate place.

THE PLAZA

Contemporary virtual reality programs create what is known as the "Plaza." This is the area they first download into. It is a place they can greet and meet other users. There is also a mall where they can shop and/or upgrade their digital avatar at the local cosmetic specialist shop. They pay for their purchases via digital currency purchased prior to entering the program on specialized sites. What we consider the plaza in this 3D subprogram world is a much more expanded area consisting of coextensive continents surrounded by oceans contained within an ice wall boundary.

From this perspective we can easily comprehend how easy it was for the "Biblical Flood" to cover the entire Plaza. There have been several oceanic floods mixed with volcanic "Mud Floods" manifested to create more recent Resets and Reboots. We now know that weather modification science and sky-seeding has the ability to make it rain torrents for 40 days and 40 nights as does the God of Israel's Demiurge -AI Yahweh was given credit for the Noahic Flood and become known as the "Storm God of Vengeance." If you look closely at the above depictions of the Plaza, you will be able to find a simple explanation to settle the Flat Earth vs the Planetoid Global Earth conundrum. The world we view as our world exists in a "Closed System!" All VR programs obviously have boundaries. The main boundary in the subprogram is known biblically as "Raqia" a Hebrew term for "firmament;" meaning, it is "solid." This has become characterized as the "Dome" or "The Great Dome," depending on which ancient narrative you wish to follow. The "Plaza" is not only completely FLAT, but also surrounded by imposing ice walls as well as the solid crystalline dome. It is so massive that the fabricated sun and the moon are contained within it. "Spread out above the heads of the living creatures was what looked like a vault, sparkling like crystal, and awesome". Ezekiel 1:22.

Every ancient culture has a term for this solid sky boundary. Its existence was never challenged until the AI inserted the famous Comet of 1577 into the program to debunk the idea that it was solid. I am not interested in immersing myself into the ongoing raging argument over whether the firmament is solid or not, or if the earth is flat or not, it's a program! The "Plaza is totally flat," which is why the "Flat Earther's" believe the entire world is flat. In fact, due to the massive ice walls surrounding the Plaza, looking down from the Firmament, it might look similar to a large crater on the surface of a giant planet, which Indeed it is on a giant planet whose relics are creating the holographic Asteroid Belt boundaries. The inner Plaza's backdrop was reproduced from a small segment of Phaeton's dry lands; however what is hidden from your site and knowledge is the fact that there are even greater oceans on the other side of the Ice Walls that contain more and greater continents!

CONTINENTS BEYOND THE ICE BARRIERS

Old world maps prior to the 1500's have been surfacing that depict continents and islands beyond the ice walls, which illustrates we have been lied to and brainwashed that the inner "Plaza" is the entire dry land masses in the program, when they are only a small sector. 33 degree Freemason explorer Admiral Richard Byrd disclosed that there were lands beyond the Poles in a T.V. interview on the "Longines Chronoscope Hour." Irrefutably, there are oceans, continents and islands existing on the other side of the immense ice walls surrounding our inner continents. Perhaps, out there is where the mysterious Atlantis of yore existed; however my hypothesis remains that it was the continent of Antarctica. Whether the Great Dome boundary covering the plaza, like a massive biodome engineered ecosystem or extends out over the outer landmasses beyond the ice walls I cannot say with any assurance. Nonetheless, they are just as bound within this simulation as we are. These individual continents are where the alien races exist. Some of the races are benevolent and some are nefarious; some are more spiritually advanced and others not so much. All are originally from highly advanced technological civilizations within the genuine galaxy. Some are absolutely destructive, whilst others are benevolent.

TWO SUNS

This world is a holographic copy of the authentic solar system known as the "Sol System." The Sol System is a binary star system, meaning it has two suns. We are not aware of the companion sun because it has a much broader path rotating around the area beyond the ice walls. It obviously has a greater distance to travel to create the concept of one day and one night. This would certainly create variable climates, seasons and distinctively different timetables between here and out there. The outer sun creates the enigmatic beauty of the Aurora Borealis as it magnetically reflects off of the Dome. Whether they exist under the same crystal Dome or if there is a Dome within a Dome or whether each continent or groups have their own Biospheres, I can only speculate. Perhaps these Domes are part of alien technology or maybe they were fashioned by 4D-VR administrators for protection. Many of those aware of the above boundary think of it as a prison, thus they coined it a "Prison Planet."

I have attempted to find out what the breadth of the ice walls are? I came up with approximately 800 miles [1287.48 km] however it could be more. Plus, I assume that the outer sun is even further out, more central over the outer continents. This would account for us not being able to clearly see it outside of unusual circumstances, which have actually appeared. There have been several sightings recorded, with a few captured on video. In 2011 a double sun was caught on video in China that immediately went viral. They just as quickly attempted to debunk it, but not soon enough to squelch the still it created within the astronomical societies, which claimed: "The two suns' spotted in China defies explanation!"

"I doubt it's been computer modeled." "There must have been some blob of atmosphere somewhere." -Jim Kaler - University of Illinois astronomer

"This is not a common optical phenomenon that we're seeing here," said Grant Perry, an atmospheric scientist at the University of Wisconsin Cooperative Institute for Satellite and Meteorological Studies.

"So many other instances have been reported that there is no longer any doubt about observations of sun and mock sun(s) being at exactly the same altitude." -Astronomer Marcel Minnaert

Both suns are generated from Rupes Nigra's electromagnetic radiation spectrum. The sun reproduces this as solar radiation. Around half of the sun's radiation is made up of visible short-waves from the electromagnetic spectrum, whilst the other is closer to infrared with some part being ultraviolet. The amount of heat produced by the sun in any given area has nothing to do with how close or far it is. The sun is much closer and smaller than bogus sciences claim as it exists inside the Dome. The variations of heat is caused by the angles the solar rays strike all location. The angle controls the quantity of energy reaching all specific locations. How long the radiation penetrates an area also increases temperatures.

SOLAR TRIPS

A solar day in this subprogram's Plaza is equated to 24 hours. The Plaza is stationary and does not move around the sun as you have been programmed to believe, the sun travels around the Plaza beneath the Great Dome as does the artificial moon, which magically appeared at some point in the past. [I base this statement on ancient accounts that indicate a time when there was no moon. It is being argued that the moon is made of Plasma making its solidity questionable? If it has any density, I would speculate that it was created later by the Archons and inserted into the 3D program as a surveillance station. But, this is pure speculation.

Our captured 4D-VR avatars are located on one of the outer continents beyond the ice walls. I also believe that even though we are out there under the influence of the neo-3D subprogram, our 4D-VR link has never broken or we would cease to exist in either program. [Many see this as a silver cord from above connecting with their pineal gland.] What I am looking at is the time difference in our 3D avatar's age here in comparison to our interacting 4D avatar's age out there. I feel it has relevance, especially if we wake up there prior to our 4D-VR awakening, which also has relevance. I know this is difficult for many of you to take in, but please always try to remember, everything is created out of mind-stuff, our consciousness and it is all taking place within our brains. Any way you cut it, the mental construct of time is definitely faster in the Plaza than under the second sun beyond the ice walls. Thus, my avatar out there may be an amiable 26 years of age, which may be the age I went into the original program. By using biblical time scales, my embodied consciousness on the fourth dimension has only been in the 4-D program, including the 3D temporal timeline somewhere around 90 minutes, which is astonishing considering my age in this sub-dung heap. This would account for so many feeling so mentally young when their bodies seem to be challenging this.

CLOSED SYSTEM

This world is a closed system, which means that all UFO sightings of a true alien origin are coming from the "continents" on other side of the ice walls; perhaps via time travel, folding space, technological portals, or underworld passageways due to the Dome over the Plaza. In any case, this is where they are coming from with one exception: "inserts!" I believe that all genuine Mother Ships are being inserted into the program. I have personally seen one up close. It was a fluorescent green, immense in size, moving very fast, but whisper quiet as it skirted around me. Sadly, I had no contact that I am aware of, but I am very grateful for this confirming experience.

The Annunaki, Reptilian and Zeta Greys also inhabit some of these outer continents and are highly dangerous. All of them and perhaps others should be avoided at all cost. Even though there are equal amounts of altruistic noble and spiritually evolved alien groups out there holding the line, I don't recommend purchasing apparatuses and invocations to attract alien species and there is no guarantee to who or what you may attract; whatever your frequency. I believe maniacal hybrids are already in contact with their nefarious ancestry from beyond the ice wall rim. There has been a progression of Deep State and Vatican officials reported to going down to the Antarctica over recent years to visit the penguins.

"Out there" simply takes on a more paradoxical meaning, especially when you consider that these continents carry the names of planets and satellites such as Mars, Jupiter, Ganymede, Calisto, Alcyone, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and many others from mythologized ancient wars. When we grasp this is a VR program we can start to realize that the Hindu mythological wars, exemplifying both mortals with great abilities and deities wielding supernatural weapons of great power were carried on within the program!! They were mythicized to cover the truth that these wars were actually alien wars with alien technology taking place here. The biblical wars in heaven were mythicized by religious treaties depicting celestial beings warring against "the dragon" [Draco Reptilians] being led by Satan, [astrological Mars] who were defeated. Monotheistic and polytheistic 'war gods' were in fact combating aliens covered over by religious treatises' claiming they were religious deities commanding war in order to spread religion and to keep the "Secret of ALL Secrets!"

MOUNT MERU – RUPES NIGRA

At the very centre of the original 4D-VR Plaza exists a 33 mile wide towering "black stone mountain" that the ancients called "Mount Meru/Rupes Nigra." It has been kept in absolute secret because it is the unparalleled technology that was created to stabilize and operate the 4D-VR program. The rogue AI obviously devised some way of tapping into it in order to function this 3D subprogram. It was holographically copied and exists at the centre of our world. Rupes Nigra emits an unrestricted electromagnetic spectrum of energy that generates the holographic images in our brains visual occipital lobe and sounds within the auditory cortex.

Quantum Mechanics states that the spectrum of oscillating radiation waves coming from electromagnetic fields consist of radio waves, microwaves, infrared waves, visible light, ultraviolet light, X-rays, and gamma rays. (EM) They are composed of light, amplitude, phase and polarization. Together, they govern everything around us. Without the electromagnetic waves coming from Rupes Nigra we would be looking into a blank screen! Quantum Mechanics has determined that the electromagnetic spectrum is the basis on which the universe operates. Indeed, without Rupes Nigra this program would cease to exist. Physicists are simply disassembling an advanced super-computer program! Have they figured that out is the question?! I do believe more and more are.

Mount Meru reaches high into the atmosphere and interfaces with computer service portals hidden in plain sight in ancient and repurposed structures throughout the program. All pyramids, such as the Great Pyramids of Egypt are connected to Rupes Nigra and the motherboard running the subprogram. There over 27 Arches claimed to be commemorative "Arches of Triumph" stealthily built throughout 17 countries. All of them have distinctively similar designs. Obelisks serve the same purpose and are even more ubiquitous. Dilapidating ancient temples and cities are being exposed as exactly like a computer's circuit board. Teotihuacan's City's layout seriously resembles a computer board, as does the ancient Temple of Ramses in Luxor in Egypt and the Temple of Asus in Turkey. Look up images of these surreptitious structures, they are amazing and cannot be ignored.

The original 4D-VR program had antennas placed on high spires around the entire Plaza [earth] in order to collect Rupes Nigra's electromagnetic power and use it for Free Energy. The 4D program passed this down into the 3D program, but the first Reset eliminated the interfacing technology. It remained a secret until Nicola Tesla tapped into it with his energy collector, known as the Nicola Tower at Wardencllyffe, Shoreham Long Island, New York in 1901.

It resembled mount Rupes Nigra! It was claimed that he received the specs and knowledge from contact with Venusian aliens.

HOLOGRAM

The Holography we see as our world is being created off of the electromagnetic spectrum coming from Rupes Nigra. The ultraviolet light or X-ray records images of objects/particles smaller than the wavelength of visible light such as atoms or molecules. Holography is created out of a combination of electromagnetism and sound waves. What we see as our universe is in reality a massive hologram transferring energy and information from one location to another whilst capturing the phase and amplitude of light reflected from the digital objects in the program, along with the information they transmit. This all-encompassing hologram is creating objects into three-dimensional space within the different characteristics of colour, [hue, saturation and brightness] size, and shapes. Our brain interprets these objects as rough or smooth, shiny or dull, hard or soft, and flexible or stiff. At a very young age, we are programmed that these objects can be sorted into groups based on the set characteristics they have in common that can be used to describe them; such as an animal vs a human, wood vs metal, plastic, stone or glass, etc. Light amplification is stimulated through emissions of radiation that becomes an artificial source of light radiation. Photons are the tiny particles that carry the waves of electromagnetic radiation from Rupes Nigra. They travel through space at the speed of light, have no charge of their own nor do they have any resting mass. Sit outside on a sunny day, quiet your mind and let your gaze go soft and look directly into the space in front of you. You should be able to see millions of these miniscule photons bouncing around. You are looking directly at the carrier source, wavelength and power that create and stabilize the program.

Mount Meru has been hidden under the guise as the far "North Pole," which is why it is a no fly or sailing zone. Fabricated maps were also created to keep it concealed! Nevertheless, a compass will always automatically point towards the Rupes Nigra because it is the strongest magnetic field operating this entire program. No matter where one is standing with a compass in hand, even on the fictitious South Pole of Antarctica, its needle will always point towards Rupes! The 3D sub-annex must remain connected to this electromagnetic field in order to operate.

The ancients saw "Mount Meru/Rupes Nigra" as the "Axis of the World." This is fitting since it is the axis this program runs on. It is referred to as a part of the "Cosmic Ocean that "the Sun and the planets circle around". In order to grasp this, we need to recalibrate our brain. Mystics see Mount Meru as the portal between two worlds, I do not know if any of them realized they are both virtual reality programs or not? In order to grasp this, we need to recalibrate our brain. We can use the United

Nation's World Map for this:

Note the area in the centre. Now, use your imagination to place Mount Meru directly in the centre of it where it belongs. This is the true layout of the entire Plaza within the ice walls! The only thing missing is the delineation of the Garden of Eden islands that still surround it. Now, start to realize that the areas of Greenland, Russia, Canada, Norway, Denmark, Finland and the United States surrounding the Mount are not in the forged "Far North" in spite of weather conditions. The Deep State has developed alien technology to control the weather. Think about how much more control the aliens would have in creating ice barriers.

KNOW THY ENEMY

You need to become aware, if not already, that there is a massive alien force behind what is taking place in this apocalyptic endgame. Nefarious alien factions working with AI intelligence created the 3D-VR subprogram from the 4D simulation, which was originally a replicated copy Phaeton, a water planet prior to its destruction. It was also manifested on an artificial temporal timeline that became an abnormal temporal-loop. These alien factions reneged on contractual agreements, in order to avoid serious consequences for their actions by participating in the 4D-VR program. They created the subprogram with full intention of creating hybrid offspring that could infiltrate the entire Plaza as governing powers; they would then carry out their tribe's bidding. I.e.: World domination and the enslavement of others; whilst stripping all natural resources. Consider this: all of the Tribes of Israel were descendants of alien hybrids. The "Ten Lost Tribes" disappeared back beyond the ice walls to their own continents due to losing wars. However, a more powerful and nefarious Thirteenth Tribe enigmatically appeared and became known as the Khazarian overlords, more recently the Khazarian Mafia. Empirical evidence has created a Khazarian hypothesis that the genome of Ashkenazi Jews came from the Khazarians.

DNA research claims that three of the original 12 Tribes of Israel belong to the Eastern European Jews that descended from the Khazars. This information further ignited conspiracy theories and anti-Semitism. They are claimed to be behind the clandestine "Deep State," the masters of deception, black magic, mind control, and murder. Egregious statements by their Chief Rabbinate only go to further exasperate the problem. "Goyim [non-Jews] were born only to serve us. Without that, they have no place in the world – only to serve the People of Israel." "Why are gentiles needed? They will work, they will plough and they will reap. We will sit like an effendi and eat." –Rabbi Ovadia Yosef. Adding fuel to the fire, ABC News recently headlined "Israeli rabbi under fire for calling black people 'monkeys.'" The Anti-Semitic Defamation League stated that chief rabbi Yitzhak comments go towards contributing "to an atmosphere of hatred and a global trend of intolerance."

Reading the above, you have two choices: You can give them what they want by getting angry or worse or you can be thankful that someone is giving you an affirmation that you do not belong here! Thank god it's a program; let the demonic thinkers have their apocryphal demonic subprogram; they earned it! Let go and move on to the higher principals that will leave these wretched, soulless people to their own devices in the hell they created.

There are still arguments over which individuals belong to the Ashkenazi Fake Jews. They are seen as Global Zionist infiltrators hiding behind a fake Jewish mask. My summation is that the Ashkenazi's came from the Canaanite Khazarian Mafia. They are Reptilian and Annunaki hybrid agents that became known as the "Mountain Jews" that hailed out of the out of the Caucasus Mountain regions and more specifically the country of Georgia in the Caucasus Mountain Range. The U.S. State of Georgia was named in honour of them. The primordial Khazars were recorded as being more interested in wealth and power via controlling trading routes and collecting tribute than open warfare. I was sincerely surprised by how long the Wikipedia list was of Prime Ministers, Presidents, high end political figures, celebrities and Banksters that belonged to the Ashkenazi lists. It has been coming out that Hitler specifically hated the Ashkenazi Jews due to their financial and global power. The Ashkenazi Rothschild family are an example of this group.

"I care not what puppet is placed upon the throne of England to rule the Empire on which the sun never sets. The man who controls Britain's money supply controls the British Empire, and I control the British money supply." – Nathan Rothschild

The above statement is true all the puppets sitting in the seat of power within most all globalist countries, which may be why numerous people claim the Rothschild's, govern the "NWOs" control over the world's central banking system. It has also been sited that they were behind the 9/11 attacks on the Twin Towers, along with controlling 99% of the world's news and media organizations. Perhaps Hitler new something we don't? To cover their crimes against humanity, they turned Hitler into the most "hated man in the world" even though it has been proven that he didn't start WWII. Winston Churchill forced the war on Germany because of their rise as an industrial nation, which was seen as an economic threat to Great Britain. Churchill created himself to look like a Philo-Semite when he was indeed a Zionist. He had more disreputable motives than helping the Jews who he regarded as a "European problem." He wanted to win Jewish support for Britain's First World War effort in order to get control over Palestine, which was a strategic imperial interest to keep Egypt and the Suez Canal within Britain's sphere of control!

Churchill and other government officials were Zionists with strong connections to the Zionist community; however many now claim that Zionism is just another form of Colonialism that serves private interests and allows for cruel and violent ethnic cleansing of unwanted people. The Palestinian population is a prime example of this even though they themselves are from Canaanite stock. Most now realize that that the Zionist Globalist are also behind the clandestine "Deep State and the masters of deception, black magic, mind control, cloning and murder, which may be why Hitler was attempting to exterminate them? DNA research claims that three of the original 12 Tribes of Israel belong to the Eastern European Jews that descended from the Khazars. The fact that their off-world Annunaki and Reptilian lineages have been interfering in the Endgame only goes to add fuel to the fire. Agreements and rules are being broken by them; however I do believe that counter measures are being taken.

GARDEN OF EDEN

The above map was made in 1599 by Dutch explorer Willem Blaeuw. These islands were clearly depicted on ancient explorer's maps that show the islands closely encircle "Mount Meru –Rupes Nigra." These large islands are indisputably the original Garden of Eden and illustrate the following bible quote: ¹⁰ "A river flowed out of Eden to water the garden, and there it divided and became four rivers." Genesis 2:10 Hinduism, Jainism and Buddhism, share some concepts within their cosmography with a few variances. They also share botanical images that look very much like the above map! Flowers with four petals surrounding a central style and stigma have been used to represent the earth originally comprised of four land masses surrounding a mountain.

Genuine mystics may still be aware that Mount Meru was the portal between two worlds where the Gods descended from. They just didn't know both were VR programs. The 4D program was much more rarefied, meaning it was much less dense than the 3D subprogram, which accounts for the large difference in the stature of our 4D corporeal body's vs the 3D. By today's standards, all three of the above ancestral groups would be seen as giants, they averaged between 15 feet to 30 feet in height; however their stature diminished over time due to the density of the 3D subprogram. Most of the alien races on the outer continents are still known to be much taller than today's average human by ranging from 7 to 15 feet in height. However, they are still not as tall as they were on the fourth dimension.

The "Garden of Eden" was the point of inception into the subprogram. These islands are where our original 4D avatars first appeared. Mount Meru was deeply revered by Mystics; however only a few ever reached it due to the close knit islands surrounding it being heavily fortified by legendary supernatural guardians and a land of giants. An enormous maelstrom whirlpool/vortex is said to also surround the massive electromagnetic black Stone Mountain. It was said that any vessel that drew near it would be sucked into the great whirlpool. All recorded stories are comparable even though they took place over different timelines. The deep watery vortex makes sense because electromagnetic propagation is much higher when transmitted through water. Water has high electrical conductivity and is among the highest permittivity of any material affecting air/water interface. This is the magnetic force generating the entire 4D-VR original program and now what the 3D subprogram hinges on. However, water will no longer be needed for the conductivity of the electromagnetic spectrum after the NWO Reset because transhumanized human brains will fulfil that function!

"Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth no longer existed, and there was no longer any sea." Revelations 21:1

Perhaps the following quotes will help you to understand why the next reboot will have no seas in it:

"The human brain works as a binary computer and can only analyse the exact information-based zeros and ones (or black and white). Our heart is more like a chemical computer that uses fuzzy logic to analyse information that can't be easily defined in zeros and ones."* –Naveen Jain

"Everything we do, every thought we've ever had, is produced by the human brain."* – Astrophysicist Neil D. Tyson

"Human experience depends on everything that can influence states of the human brain, ranging from changes in our genome to changes in the global economy."* –Neuroscientist, Sam Harris

We can no longer successfully use Mount Meru as a portal because our brains have become so adapted and oriented to the third dimension. Denmark, Greenland, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Russia, Canada, Iceland and the USA all claim territories within what is considered the Arctic Circle. These islands are no longer accessible by any private person or group due to vigilante U.S. and Russian military patrols. They also keep a constant patrol on the ice walls surrounding the Plaza to make sure no sea going vessel can find a passageway through the ice to the outer continents. On youtube.com, you can see a private fishing boat off of Australia that videoed war ships approaching them and warning them to turn back. It was absolutely daunting to see a Goliath 25000 ton warship bearing down on a little pleasure craft full of weekend fishermen.

THE DARK AGE RESET

The following events were the precursor to the Dark Age Reset of the 1500s. First they had major climate changes followed by an epidemic plague that came from China and killed an estimated 25 million people – almost a third of the Europe's population died. There were also food shortages and great migrations. Farming became difficult and caused large groups of people to die out. While Europeans were dying from China's plague, China flourished as one of the world's leading civilizations. It advanced in technology and extensive naval exploration. Sound familiar?

There were several notable post Reset changes that took place. China invented gun-powder and the compass, which changed the face of warfare and exploration. The Slavs expanded across Europe. The fall of the Roman Empire took place. The Roman Catholic Church organized itself into an elaborate corrupt hierarchy. The pope established himself as the supreme power across Western Europe. All of the leaders within the Church became rich and powerful. Many of the nobles became abbots and bishops. Literature and other arts went into decline under the jurisdiction of the Church. The Nobles took hold of all the lands and established feudalism. The Nobles became Lords and peasants were forced to live and work on a Lord's land, pay homage, and a share of their best produce in order to survive and human rights continued to diminish.

THE TRUTH ABOUT HUMAN ANCESTRY

Outside of DNA tampering, the human race never evolved from apes or any other primate over the last 6 million years! We haven't even been in the program that long! Homosapiens did not evolve from early hominid predecessors, nor were Homosapiens the first modern humans! I am not interested in getting into a dogmatic battle between Creationism and Evolutionism! Neither can withstand the truth finally starting to be exposed. Like it or not, the truth is we are not an evolving species, we are a species that has been in decline for decades! It has taken this long to lower our consciousness because our true ancestry was that evolved! More and more recent revelations deify the lies, the sorcery and the pseudo-sciences used to reprogram the survivors of past Resets and Reboots. If you have become such an intellectual giant that you want to believe you are an evolved primate, this read may not for you. If you simply have doubts, research unexplained histories. The following read gives corroborated examples that prove past civilizations were a lot more advanced than what they will ever admit. Archaeologists are continuously finding artifacts that they claim are far too advanced for the times they came from.

Historians erroneously editorialize that the earliest civilization was Sumer, located in the southernmost part of Mesopotamia over 6000 years ago. They published that the Sumerians started the first schools that taught mathematics, astronomy and astrology. That they invented the first codes of law and the conceptions of time division by the day, hours and minutes. Mesopotamia and Africa erroneously compete as the "Cradle of Civilization," which they are not! They are attempting to direct us away from our true heritages. We came from amazing beings with astounding technologies. Some of these technologies have been discovered belonging to ancient societies that historians cannot or refuse explain.

Pre-Columbian civilizations such as the Maya had the technology to carve massive cities out of laser precision cut stones with elaborate plazas, palaces, pyramid-temples and ball courts into the jungles of southern Mexico and Central America, feats we cannot even do today. There are various impulsive theories around on how these advanced civilizations fell and where the majority of their vast populations mysteriously disappeared to. Consider this, these civilizations didn't fall, they just never recovered after the Dark Age Reset occurred when there were no wagons full of orphans sent down there to replace them. There are many ancient civilizations that have become known for their technological advancements besides Mesopotamia and Mayan. They include Egypt, Greece, India, the Roman Empire, the Persian Empire, China and countless others that cannot explain where they went or what happened to them all?

For example, the Greeks created the Antikythera analogue computer 2000 years ago. It had over 30 gear wheels that were able to help track astrological movements and determine the dates of various events several years into the future. There was also another computer type tool developed called an "Astrolabes." It was invaluable to astronomers and navigators trying to work out the altitude of a given celestial body at different latitudes. No one knows who invented it or where it came from. The Greek invented an incendiary weapon called the "Greek Fire." It was an extremely deadly weapon in its time. The Roman's developed the first example of nanotechnology in the world, known as the "Lycurgus Cup." A 3000 year old lens was discovered in Assyria that belonged to an ancient telescope. One of the most amazing may have been the "Zhang Heng's Seismoscope." Modern scientists say it was capable of detecting earthquakes within a four-hundred-mile radius, even if the quake was not felt in the vicinity of the seismoscope. There are many more for you to research for your own discernment. Also, there are brilliant videos being produced by earnest souls waking up to the lies about our fabricated histories. I recommend that everyone look up "Tartarian Truthers" on YouTube. They tell the story in video form that would take me hours to write. Architecture is one of the greatest tell-tale signs of our advanced true past history. To this day they cannot recreate some of the earliest centuries of Gothic and Baroque Architecture. It is ridiculous to believe people of those eras accomplished it all with a horse and wagon and a hammer and chisel.

There are some lame rationalizations that attempt to explain how they were able to do it, but I found them to be time wasters.

NEPHILIM = ANNUNAKI & REPTILIAN HYBRIDS

There are many old texts and biblical versions involving the Giants, the Nephilim, and the so called sons of the Gods. [Annunaki and Reptilian hybrids] Attempting to sort them out could be difficult if you have no insight into genuine human heritage. [The identity of the Nephilim is ambiguous and still debated by various denominational scholars, but not their stature. There are numerous interpretations claiming they were around 30ft tall prior to the biblical flood and only around 15 feet tall afterwards. In all accounts, humans were like "grasshoppers in comparison" to them and yet the daughters of men were said to have borne children to them. The Jewish Torah states that thousands of children were born; however mothers died during the birthing process because the babies were too big to deliver naturally. Many baby giants also died until they started splitting the mother's stomach open in favour of saving the babies. Researchers in a BJU study identified that the height of a male is most related to the size of his penis. Just for fun, image a 15 to 30 foot male and ask yourself how they were able to fornicate with those attractive lil grasshoppers? And, if somehow they did managed it, how was the statistical average of a 5ft. woman "during those days" able to carry gigantic babies, as claimed?] As you know, there are literally hundreds of biblical interpretations within the Christian Church. I researched them all and quoted those that made the most sense.

"The Nephilim were on the earth in those days and afterward as well – when the sons of God had relations with the daughters of men and they bore them children who became the mighty men of old, men of renown. Genesis 6:4 Berean Study Bible

"The Nephilim were on the earth in those days (and also after this) when the sons of Gods were having sexual relations with the daughters of humankind, who gave birth to their children. They were the mighty heroes of old, the famous men. Gen 6:4 Net Bible

"The Nephilim appeared on earth in those days, as well as later, AFTER the sons of the gods had intercourse with the daughters of human beings, who bore them sons. They were the heroes of old, the men of renown. Gen 6:4

"The giants were in the earth in those days, and even afterward, when the sons of Gods came in to the daughters of men, and they bore to them those who were the mighty from of old, the men of renown." Gen 6:4

If you study these verses carefully you will note that the mighty men of renown were not the Nephilim. They were the hybrid offspring from the Annunaki and Reptilian sky Gods. Jewish explanations interpret them as the "hybrid sons of fallen angels," probably because they both were "flying around" during that period of time, only one had wings and the other had a space ship. The Nephilim [Reptilian] "prostituted" the half-breed offspring and began to devour the works of what they perceived to be a lesser race (mankind) and went on to kill and to viciously exploit them in slavery and sexual debauchery."* 1 Enoch 7:3-6 Sound familiar!? These are the acts of a Reptilian race as was the serpent in the Biblical Garden of Eden! They also wanted to upgrade their DNA by impregnating our Tartarian, Aryan and Hyperborean ancestry, which fouled our DNA. It is also why so many people still lust for the slaughter, eating of flesh and the glory of battles. These are the acts of the Reptilian and Annunaki races, as was the serpent in the Biblical Garden of Eden!

Where the Nephilim came from becomes very obscure in the Torah and Biblical sources. I believe the Vatican, Jesuits, Ashkenazi Cabal and Globalist are all cut from the same cloth and are strongholds for Reptilian and Annunaki hybrids. These aliens were downloaded into the seditious 3D subprogram, just as were the other species. They have all been here since its genesis. The aliens now inhabit several of the continents beyond the ice walls. The Reptilian's are highly cunning, technologically advanced and have the extraordinary super-phantasmal ability to be able to shape shift. The "Foreign Bible Society" created a Contemporary English interpretation in which the Nephilim were turned into "married men and heroes," which blatantly disregarded the truth! "The children of the supernatural beings who had married these women became famous heroes and warriors. They were called Nephilim and lived on the earth at that time and even later."* Genesis 6:4

Can you see the idiocy they used to cover up the truth!? They weren't sexually assaulting 5ft. women; they were assaulting the beautiful and statuesque Tartarian, Hyperborean and Aryan women on that timeline! According to the comprehensive work of Craig Campobasso's "The Extraterrestrial Species Almanac," Draconians are from the Orion, Sirius, and Draco constellations. The leaders reside in Orion. They are cold-blooded creatures whose skin is made of scales, scutum, and bony plates. Males are seven to nine feet and females are six to seven feet and are the fiercest tyrannical warriors known to any civilization. Fear and weakness are aphrodisiacs to them. Draconians are staunch believers that they were residents of the universe first and that it belongs to them. They feel superior over every race. They teach their children from youth that humans are the dreck of the universe. They are hell bent on conquest and control. Excellent navigators of universal territories, they have conquered many planets secretly from the inside. They alter less evolved civilization gene pools to dumb them down and control them from afar for human food, resources, and underground territory, the population unaware that they are being controlled. Draconians shape-shift their consciousness into other dimensions, including the astral plane, and project their consciousness into a body they want to control. [They can only accomplish this with 3D subprogram avatars that resonate with them. Ed.] As with all races, some Draconians are of a lower or higher frequency. All Draconians are not evil. The enlightened Draconians want us to remember to judge the individual, not the race."

In any event, the Reptilians and the Annunaki flourished during the 4D program along with various ally races. They started violent wars within the program as they broke all of their agreements to find comity and started attacking the other outer continents with their eye on the Plaza! Because we came down from a 4D simulated world, many still misconstrue the 3D subprogram as being in the fourth dimension. The AI created the data for the subprogram out of three spatial dimensions consisting of width, depth, height and placed on an artificial temporal timeline. Science tells us that this world is based on three dimensional space where time was added and acts as an additional virtual axis. Because the subprogram is a reproduced copy of the 4D original program, it is construed as a mathematical extension of the 3D subprogram. Many understandably, misconstrue they are still in the 4D, which may be due to surfacing anamnesis from the 4D program or from their genuine higher selves existing on the genuine fourth dimension. This may help you to understand the following.

TARTARIAN – HYPERBOREAN – ARYAN – OUR 4D ANCESTRY

"Tartaria, a huge country in the northern part of Asia, bordering Siberia in the north and west, called the Great Tartary." – Encyclopaedia Britannica

I personally feel it is important for us to identify with our genetic roots in order to identify with, or at the least get some idea of who we are and where we came from. This may also help you to find your Logos Star System and the Ray you came into the fourth dimension on; in the hope that it may help to restore you. E.g. I am of the Seventh Ray Race from the Star Logos Mira in Cetus. Due to millenniums of crossbreeding, there are few, if any, purebreds existing any longer in this program, perhaps outside of the deranged practice of inbreeding by the deranged. However, each one of our souls belongs to a distinct Star Logos. I believe the Tartarians and Aryans were of a Pleiadian, Miran and Lyran mixed stock due to the Lyran's migration to both of these star systems. Afterwards, the Miran's migrated up into the Pleiad and Hyades Clusters.

The Tartarians, Hyperboreans, and Aryans are not myths. They are as close to many of us as our next breath. They belonged to the Galactic Races that were part of the original 4D program that descended from Mount Meru. These races were reported as having great strength and stature, fair skin, blue eyes, blonde to light brown or red hair. The Tartarians and Aryans were known for their beauty, which may be why the people born in the Nordic country's that still carry their strongest DNA characteristics are considered to be some of the most beautiful peoples in the world. They lived by the higher principals of the Law of One, were avid vegetarians and were technologically and spiritually advanced. Upon in-depth research, I theorize that the Tartarians and Aryans were the closest in genetic makeup. They were the true origins of the Caucasian root races as well as the ancient Iranians and Persians. However, over migrations, wars, resets and reboots the majority of their original DNA has been sadly adulterated by Reptilian, Annunaki and Grey Zeta Reticulum.

They were the builders of the great advanced civilizations with astonishingly beautiful architectures and knowledge of higher consciousness. All of the pyramids are reproduced copies from the 4D program, which is why they cannot accurately define their age. I believe that the other phenomenal monolithic stone masonries were built after the first AI Reboot. Realizing that the Tartarians, Hyperboreans and Aryans descended from the original 4D program through Mount Meru, I have done my best to briefly track their ancient migrations from the "Lands beyond the North Wind" and the Isles of the Garden of Eden. Determining migration was made difficult due to false histories and the fact that there were no borders back then, only open lands. And, the lands they explored and originally recolonized were uninhabited until they reached further towards the south where they encountered AI digitals and nefarious aliens.

"Google Earth" refuses to show where the actual Arctic North Pole exists, but other maps make it more plausible. This should give you a clue that they are hiding something! Take another look at the artistic map that the United Nations created of this world and you will find it easy to grasp that all of the migrations started from the centre of the Plaza, which the Greek's mythicized as "beyond the north winds." Hold in mind that all compasses or such apparatus will always point towards Rupes Nigra no matter where one is standing. Research the maps of the countries surrounding the Arctic Circle and you will find that Greenland, Canada, Russia, Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Finland were obviously the first landfalls they migrated into prior to the "Ice Age," which was not a natural event; it was the first AI Reboot!

"From whose womb did the ice come forth...?" –Job 38:29

Because Tartaria was stripped from our historical records, most people are not aware of their heritages that belong to these remarkable people. There is so much good information coming out on noteworthy videos that can be found on YouTube, I highly recommend you explore them. The Tartarian civilizations are fascinating to study to say the least. However, do not be duped into thinking that the frightful looking large elongated skulls being discovered around the world, especially Peru, belong to the Tartarians or the Aryans. They actually indicate that a large alien race existed, perhaps the Reptilian, Annunaki, and Nephilim Hybrids from the infamous warring Gods.

Archaeologists are exposing world-wide ancient cultures that were worshipping graven images of reptilian looking deities. These carved idols of worship have been recently found in Mesopotamia and date back to the Ubaid period and several other archaeological digs. Even though these idols look reptilian, some still believe they may have been Annunaki. The term serpent is just another name for a reptile, which helped to keep the Reptilian species more arcane. E.g. Quetzalcoatl Kukulcán was known as the Aztec and Mayan Serpent Deity that looked similar to the Sumerian Serpent Deities. The Vatican has an array of creepy graven images of Serpent [Reptilian] worship. Pope Paul VI commissioned Pericle Fazzini to sculpt an enormous 66 feet by 23 feet by 10 feet depiction of what Fazzini claimed was commissioned to be Jesus ascending from a crater caused by a nuclear explosion following the holocaust. The piece was named "The Resurrection." It was placed directly behind the pope's chair in his Audience Hall. His chair is situated in the mouth of a snake between two unmistakable snake fangs. This symbolized that the Pope speaks directly as, from, or for the Serpent. The audience is looking at a mesmerizing massive stained art glass windows that clearly represent the head of a Reptilian Serpent.

It cannot be denied that all of this equates to the satanic worship of a bizarre looking reptile serpent. What you may not know is that these cold blooded alien reptiles have been at war with each other due to divergent philosophies and spiritual evolution amongst their races since the beginning of the natural worlds. Whether metaphorical or literal, there are some very telling bible verses that give clues about them; e.g. "Where have you come from?" the LORD asked Satan. Satan answered, "I have been patrolling the earth, watching everything that's going on." Job 2:2; "The LORD said unto Satan; from whence comest thou?" And Satan answered, "From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it." Job 1:7 Satan would have been in some form of aerial craft to accomplish the first verse and he and his cronies would have been living underground in the second one. I believe both are true statements.

Aryan literature, religion, and modes of social organization subsequently shaped the course of Indian culture, particularly the Vedic region that was eventually superseded by Hinduism. --Encyclopaedia Britannica "Lyran's Titans were the original Aryan race." –Craig Campobasso

The original Titans were known for their great stature and strength. They came from Vega in the Lyra star system, which is where the original Aryan race hailed from. The Aryans were a strikingly beautiful race; tall, fair haired with variable shades of blue eyes. They spoke ancient Sanskrit; a Proto-Indo-European language and were obviously cousins of the Tartarians and Hyborian. Bal Gangadhar Tilak, an Indian researcher and teacher of the ancient Vedas, believed the Aryan's original home was the North Pole of during the pre-glacial period. Hyperborea means, "Beyond the North Wind" and the people who dwelt beyond the "ends of the earth! Sanskrit was the original universal language prior to being scrambled during the post Babylonian Reset. Aryas were also known as the "Nordic-Aryas."

Hitler believed his roots were from the Aryan "superior" species that migrated from the north, but he lacked all comprehension of who these spiritually advanced people were. He may also have had an insight about the chosen Canaanite people who were known for their ritual animal and human sacrifices, along with their financial shrewdness. Some now may see Hitler as a monster, whilst others now see him as a hero. I believe the Canaanites were a Reptilian hybrid that migrated out of Mesopotamia and migrated down through the lands of Canaan into Egypt. Canaan and Canaanite can be found in cuneiform, Egyptian and Phoenician writings as well as the Old Testament. When the pharaohs ruled Egypt, it was said that a mysterious people called the Canaanites dominated the Near East.

In any regards, the human diversity, for the most part, came from the superior and beautiful Tartarians, Aryans and Hyperboreans who all originally lived by the Law of One. The Tartarians and Aryans were dedicated vegetarians; I have no insight to the Hyperboreans on this issue; however due to their longevity, I would assume they also followed a plant based diet regime. As their offspring, we have, for the most part, lost our way due to having our heritage stolen from us. In order to survive, they too were forced to become legendary combatant warriors. They were the true "mighty men from of old and the men of renown." However, due to the side effects of violence, continuous battles and DNA corruption some started eating meat as a means of survival, which caused many to lose their way and become morally corrupted; however I surmise that all superfluous desire to kill innocent souls in order to consume their flesh or the wanton killing of animals for sport comes from corrupted DNA! Your reaction to this statement may tell you a tale about you and/or your diet. There have been many polarizing studies on mental health between those that ingest meat and vegetarianism. The reason that they became so polarized was because the beef industry funded much of the research, which led experts to question their credibility. This led to in depth studies by the international "Scientific Advisory Panel" that revealed unquestionable results:

"The effects of meat proteins can undoubtedly be seen in aggression, violence, hatred and moral insensitivity: we can therefore say that meat has a negative effect on human behaviour. The vegetarian, on the other hand, builds the foundations for an attitude of tolerance, gentleness, sociability and a spirit of sharing. Experts speaking out against the use of meat proteins can now call on support from the chemistry of neurotransmitters and from neurobiology, two scientific disciplines that explain how such foods cause certain human behaviours. Among other things, we should reject the idea that violence is innate in humans: no-one is born aggressive or evil, but we can become so by eating meat."

To this day Finland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Netherlands and many Russians lead in the countries with the highest percentages of vegetarians due to being originally colonized by the Tartarians. India leads the pack due to Aryan influence! As Adolf Hitler became more and more aware of Aryan teachings, he changed his diet into a being a vegetarian

All of the continents surrounding Mount Rupees measure similar distances give or take a few hundred miles. Greenland is the closest and was named for its bountiful pasture lands and trees before the ice came and entombed everything as it did Antarctica. Recorded ancient accounts can still be found that say Greenland was once an ice free island inhabited by a Scandinavian looking race of peoples; however after the ice sheets covered the island all traces of them and their civilizations disappeared. Nevertheless, Norwegians, Swedish, Finns, Icelandic's and Danes, along with the Russians have maintained the strongest Tartarian DNA characteristics in appearance due to their original colonization. These countries have more blond and blue-eyed people than the rest of the world except for Finland where nearly 80% of their population has blond hair, and an amazing 89% of their population has blue eyes. Many other Westernised Countries have also maintained some of their strong DNA characterizations.

They migrated down through the Steppe of Central Asia where they soon learned they had to fight for survival against the soulless AI digitals and alien hybrids. Their genetic codes became more and more corrupted as they migrated further out and the women were forcibly inbred within different haplogroups. They migrated into Eastern Europe from the Urals into the Danube in the west and to the south-eastern Black Sea into the Caucasus Mountains and down into the Caspian Sea regions. Caucasus became the root term for "Caucasian," and a synonym for white ancestry. The Kurds, Tallish Iranian, Persians, Greeks, and Romans all came from these root races and there may be some evidence that they crossbred with Canaanite Caucasus Mountain Jews?

The Aryan's chose to spread through ancient Germany, Austria, the ancient United Kingdoms and France. The most prominent were known to have inhabited the Ganges Plains in Northern India. They wrote large bodies of religious texts known as the Vedas in ancient India. They were written in Sanskrit and are the oldest scriptures known to exist in Hinduism; the oldest religion in the program. The four Vedas: the Rigveda, the Yajurveda, the Samaveda and the Atharvaveda are their legacy to mankind. All are, worthy of studying if you want to understand your spiritual heritage.

Both, the Tartarians and the Aryans migrated into the farthest northern arctic coastlines of Canada and the United States; however they should not to be confused with data concerning the Paleo-Eskimos who inhabited vast areas connected to Alaska and Canada. They may have been the first people to settle these far regions post Ice Age, but they were certainly not the first people to migrate through them. They appeared some years later and were subsequently largely displaced by the ancestors of the present-day Inuit and Yupik.

The Hyperboreans were a mythical people named with reference to Boreas, the north wind, and their home was placed in a paradisiacal region in the far north, "beyond the north wind." They lived for 1,000s of years. – Encyclopaedia Britannica

I hypothesize that the Hyperboreans were a hybrid mix of warrior stock from the Lyra and Sirian star systems. The women shared the common trait of fair hair and blue or green eyes; however the men had red or dark hair. [Keep in mind that the Lyran's migrated into many star systems in order to escape the Reptilian Galactic Wars.] The Hyperboreans were from a warrior cast that also had great stature and strength. I believe these were a sea faring people that migrated into Siberia, parts of Russia and into Mongolia where they established the Mongolian Empire that spanned from the Pacific Ocean in the east to the Danube River and the shores of the Persian Gulf in the west. Historical records state that Genghis Kahn had pale skin, dark red hair and blue or green eyes. Their red/ginger haired descendants can be traced down through the steppes of central Asia and geographically the Hyperboreans became the largest group of people to colonize ancient Europe. When passing through the Caucasus Mountain ranges they mingled with Canaanite Ashkenazi Jews. This would be the Ashkenazi Jews downfall during WWII because their red and ginger hair became markers the NAZIs identified them with.

By sea and land they migrated. They colonized Scotland and Ireland, which still has the greatest concentration of red heads. They continued to migrate far beyond the British Isles down into regions of France and Spain. Due to their unusual colour of hair, redheads became associated with the Viking raiders who spread their genetics along the coastal areas where they settled. The Thracians and the Scythians were marked by their red hair and became known as the tribal groups that constantly attacked and overran ancient Grecian borders. Northern European Caucasians are not the only haplogroups with red hair as it spread throughout parts of South America, Asia, and Africa. They can also be found amongst Pacific Islanders. And yet strangely, redheads have become the rarest colour of hair throughout this world. More and more ancient archaeological sites, such as Mount Padang in West Java and Göbekli Tepe in Turkey, along with many others are being discovered that quasi-science and archaeology cannot, or will not be explained because they refute all their false histories and fabricated timelines! They cannot rectify any of it; not where the people came from, their architecture and monolithic stone structures, advanced technology, let alone their timeline! There is only one answer to suffice all of it, which they will never give you: The people were the ancient Tartarians, Aryans and Hyperboreans that came down from the fourth dimension via Mount Meru and the surroundings are all holographic copies from the fourth dimensional program. "We are already living in a simulation. Maybe the simulation we're in now is just a version of the world created by a far future society." –Elon Musk He is far from being alone in his thinking about our simulated reality. Physicists, cosmologists and philosophers are starting to find that it may be relevant!

There are myriads of legends and myths from all cultures and peoples that unknowingly relate to the original 4D-VR program and their transition down into the subprogram via Rupes Nigra. "Hyperborea", "Tartaria", the "Garden of Eden," "Garden of Apollon," Agartha, Avalon Shangri-La, Tir-na-nog, and Asgard along with others describe mythical lands that were originally recolonized by those that descended from Mount Meru. Many try to argue that the Aryans originated in India and then spread across large parts of Asia and Europe. However, they actually migrated from beyond the north wind from the Garden of Eden Islands into Northern India. Many ineffectually still want to search for Mount Meru in the Garhwali Himalayas, in the state of Uttarakhand, India, but it will be to no avail.

RESET RE-EDUCATION

The Vatican's Reptilian hybrids created the Catholic Church, which originally only allowed the sons from their wealthy hybrid families of Lords to be educated; to read, write and learn the maths. Later, when commoners were allowed this "privilege," they controlled every subject the students learned whilst under the care of the Bishop's Cathedral Schools. This was when they started educating the masses with misinformation! They also used their excessive power to regulate and define everyone's daily life, from birth to death. After death they claimed power over their souls. Bishops and abbots became advisors to the kings and emperors who were also educated by the Church. If they did not comply they would be ex-communicated, which freed their subjects from their oaths of allegiance to him. The Church has been proven to have been teaching scientific nonsense, false histories and underhanded religious dogma along with concealing genuine ancient documents! The Church's influence over education has finally started declining; however false histories are still being taught due to the Reptilian hybrids infiltrating global universities, governments and the monarchies. Never the less, the Truth is coming out!

RESETTING THE TRUTH

"Stop what you're doing and look around. Everything you see, think and feel is fake." –Kim Shandrow

"I think most likely there are many simulations; you might as well call them reality, or the multiverse. –Elon Musk

Mount Meru is not a myth; it was the portal the 4D avatars descended from along with the 4D developed milieu the human race came from when entering the shadows of the inferior subprogram. More than a few historical Reboots and Resets have created false histories and spiritually impoverished survivors. All records and maps have been concealed after the Reset of the 1800s. The human race's true heritages and all knowledge has been forgotten and erased. Everything within this simulation came from the original 4D program; just much worse off due to the density and wars, as is a fatigued human race. The atmospheric conditions within the 4D program were similar to the quality of the fourth dimension making it more rarefied. This rarefication allowed all living things to be of a much greater stature than in the denser subprogram.

Indeed, the first Tartarian, Aryan and Hyperborean that peopled the legendary ancient civilizations were of a greater stature, beauty and advanced technology. The Tartarian and Hyperborean people are a vast part of our lost ancestral tree and culture! The mythical Island of Hy-Brasil in Celtic folklore, meaning the High King of the World, came from their legendary lands surrounding the Mount. The Tartarian became the original Caucasoid Races whose faces fit the golden ratio and they had great strength and stature! There have been numerous validations over the Ages of our earlier stature called DNA "throw-backs." In all due respect, at 16 years and approximately 6' 6" (2.01m) tall, with fair complexion and hair; young Baron Trump may be thus an endowed DNA throwback? The Arya were known to be a "noble people" of beauty, strength and stature. Due to their superior, stature, strength, intelligence and beauty, self-serving alien races have been obsessed with upgrading their own species via their DNA. Consequently, over time, due to so much tampering, human DNA became limited and corrupted by their insidious experiments.

Biblical records have been interpreted and edited so many times it is hard to make sense out of their rhetoric. Biblical passages refer to the giants being on the earth before and after the Flood and they called them the "Nephilim." Put your critical thinking cap on and ask yourself, "Were the Nephilim aliens and not angels?" [Both came from the heavens and both flew around.] "Were babies genetically engineered using alien and human DNA along with being inbred with Aliens?" "Why are they so bent on trying to keep the human race from knowing its true cultural heritage?" "Could it be they are hiding the fact that neither a Reset nor a Reboot would be possible other than in a virtual simulated reality?"

Biblically, some of the hybrids were claimed to be beautiful and handsome with extreme strength and stature. Others were said to be "giant monsters that had such voracious appetites they started slaughtering animals and eating human flesh." Some scholars wrote that the beautiful ones were the offspring of Adam's third child, the virtuous Seth. His descendants were claimed to have created the wisdom of the heavenly bodies, and taught many scientific discoveries and inventions, notably in astronomy. Are Seth's offspring representations of the Tartarian, Aryan or Hyperborean races? Or did they come directly from one of the more beautiful alien races, such as the Pleiadians or Lyrans? Others were claimed to be Cain's offspring. Cain was sired by a Serpent. Could his offspring, the Canaanites, represent Reptilian hybrids? There are definitely contrasting DNA characteristics and stories being illustrated here.

The more I am shown, the more questions I have. It seems to be an unending quest. Nonetheless, I can assure you that some of the alien races along with their Globalist and Ashkenazi Zionist hybrids are highly dangerous. They should be avoided at all cost and not voted for or put into any positions of power. Perhaps the numbers of people who follow Ufologist gurus to get instructions on how to make contact and become a Contactee should have more concern? There are no guarantees as to what one might attract no matter what their frequency! There have been recent reports over the last few years of a progression of Deep State and Vatican officials going down to Antarctica. The Fake News gives ludicrous reasons, such as visiting the penguins. Some of these maniacal hybrids, along with the pope and members of the Vatican are now in contact with their nefarious lineages. There are whistleblowers that claim they are meeting in a secret base on Antarctica for direct instructions.

"Out there" simply takes on a more paradoxical meaning within this 3D holographic closed system. I can say with conviction that the outer continents represent the home world planetoids that these extraterrestrials are now hailing from. All of the planets and the inhabitable moons within this solar system are represented out there as well as mythical planets from various constellations, in particularly Draco and Orion that were involved in the Great Galactic Wars. All potential passageways through the ice walls to these continents are strictly forbidden and patrolled by military forces! Your attempt to search by air or water to find and explore the extent of the ice walls is prohibited as is flying over Antarctica and the North Pole areas. Now you know why they put out so much rhetoric about the reasons why.

Bellicose aliens have learned from past AI Reboots that attempting to destroy each other is futile in the program and only causes more Reboots. However, this has not slowed them down in warring for domination over the increasing hybrid homosapiens inhabiting the Plaza. At one point, to stop the insufferable wars, a pact was made amongst them not to interfere with their budding hybrids within the Plaza. Nevertheless, some consider them their personal chattel. Others see them as an experiment for a new independently developing humanoid race evolving via a potpourri of DNA from these extraterrestrials. For example, the Chinese race is claimed to be the purest amongst the Reptilian hybrids; the Nordic Races the purest Pleiadian hybrids and the Annunaki seem to be the most dominant within Egyptian, the European races. The Annunaki may have been originally quite spiritually developed, which would not have stood well with the Demiurge! The Demiurge may well have been responsible for bringing the lower frequencies out of this species in order to gain control over them. They are now closely associated with the actions of the Globalist and Deep State Governments.

Tough, belligerent and pugnacious races from Antares colonized Mars, which became seriously problematic in this solar system and also account for negative hybrid activity within the Plaza and on the outer "Mars continent." Nonetheless, we must understand that every species has unique individual frequencies that range from low to higher on the scale of The Cosmic Law of One. These range in their ability to be selfless, loving and tolerant or to be selfish, self-serving and bellicose. We simply cannot throw the baby out with the bath water due to ancestry. These qualities are found within all functioning DNA; it is a matter of choice, which makes us all unique! There are many that can still be found within the program who originally came to create comity amongst the species and to learn how to develop and spiritualize opposites along with how to find harmony within those of polar opposition via The Cosmic Law of One. We are all part of the One Universal Omni-Logos and this was one of the most visionary, adventurous challenging experiments ever contemplated within the lower fourth dimensions.

We dare not judge other's value for this would be no different than judging all Chinese people as bad when the majority are beautiful deeply spiritual family loving souls being oppressed and victimized by spiritually unevolved reptilian communist hybrids. Or, that Annunaki Joe Biden represents all Americans, or the likes of Boris Johnson represents all Englishmen! Even attempting to identify hybrid alien races in this program is almost impossible due to the integration of all their DNAs over the last 35,000 years along with so many Reboots and Resets. We can only witness who they are by their acts, which is also almost impossible because they keep rewriting history and incorporating fictitious heroes and monsters! For example, Adolph Hitler was persecuted as a monster and Winston Churchill was touted as a hero when in fact Hitler was loved by his people for raising them out of famine and poverty. He tried in vain to not go into WW2! Whereas, Winston Churchill was hated by his people for being a "warmonger" and "opportunist" with irrefutable economic self-interests at the cost of over 450,000 deaths amongst his own countrymen during "his" WW2 Reset Agenda.

The "Axis of this world" is "Mount Meru - Rupes Nigra" and the lands surrounding it are where the Tartarian, Hyperborean and Arya descended from. They were the true ancestors of the Caucasoid Races, both in the 4D original program and the 3D sub-simulation. Their DNA was corrupted and the 3D density created within the subprogram reduced their statures. North is actually the centre of this program, which can be easily seen when looking at the United Nations map! The so called "North Pole" is a fabrication that is slowly being debunked by explorers and researchers alike. These ancients migrated and spread out over the entire Plaza over various timelines. You are their incarnates! They were peaceful loving races that created great civilizations by living under The Cosmic Law of One, which was inborn in them from their planetary home-worlds. They should be considered as the first noblemen in this apocryphal world; not the Monarchies or their Feudal Lords!

It was the Tartarians, Aryans and Hyperboreans DNA the Reptilians and Anunnaki's tampered with that became the Adam and Eve scenario. The Nephilim were the Alien Reptilians and Annunaki that forcibly mated with these high-born races that created the hybrid 'sons of fallen angels' scenarios. Historical facts have been covered over by ludicrous biblical anthologies that led to wars, spiritual dissention, bigotry, and the barbaric Crusades. All were led by the See of Rome and Rabbinate Reptilian hybrids! Have you ever wondered where Jewish Mysticism came from? Or where the Kabbala got its 'occult knowledge' from? Kabala, also spelled Cabala, which is where the term nefarious term Cabal came from. In any event, the truth of all this and much more is now coming forth in the midst of the Great Awakening! "Woke" is a term added to the dictionary in 2017 in order to counteract the term Wake-up. Woke is just another sleight of hand to refocus your mind! We have been on their monotonous temporal treadmill for far too long!

The Tartarians may have been the first generation of incarnates from the destructed planet Phaethon, which I remember being originally colonized by people from the Vega solar system under Pleiadian jurisdiction. This would account for their Nordic appearances and their fair skin, blue eyes and flaxen hair. They were also peoples of great stature and strength. Uninhabitable planets surrounding the Star Logos Vega were destroyed by Reptilian wars, which would account for the massive debris and dust band to be found around Vega. The Lyrans spread out and migrated to the Mira solar system in Cetus; Aldebaran in the Hyades system and further into it cluster, along with the Pleiadian Cluster and Sirius, including other surrounding star systems. This may account for so many of these systems joining the Galactic Federation of United planets. Vega is only around 25 light-years from the Sol Solar system, which may be why war-torn inhabitant's fled from Vega to Phaethon. This was the closest inhabitable planetoid to the Vega solar system. A few thousand years ago, Vega was the North Star of Phaethon. I believe this migration may have been the cause for the destructive ruin of this planet at the hands of pursuing predatory Reptilians. These predatory races in turn colonized Mars, and became bound within this simulation. They then produced this seditious subprogram and are continuing on with their heinous agendas! Thank god this is only a virtual reality; yet we must wake up or suffer their consequences!

According to Study.Com "the Earth is not in any constellation." They claim it is because we can't see it from here, but what about all those famous space probes investigating outer space? I believe that the missing 5th planet Phaethon is the holographic recreation of Phaethon, including its hollow interior. The Catholic Church took control of re-educating the masses after the AD1 Reboot. They erroneously taught that the Plaza was the entire earth; however maintained the truth that it was flat and the centre of the universe. They also created a layered earth concept to explain away the hollow earth and the underworlds. Sheol, which lies in the fiery bowls of the earth, is their version of a hell where all who refuse to follow their edicts are sent! Anyone who attempted to bring in another version was burned at the stake; yet with no apology, they decided it was more advantageous to change their minds and make this world's simulation into a solid spherical terrestrial globe. They may not have had any other options, but to create more ludicrous lies when flying space craft, from beyond the ice walls, started appearing below the firmament.

All star races related to the migrating colonists from Vega share in their archetypal Nordic appearances, which the Tartarians, Aryans and Hyborian exhibited. Our renowned mesmerized ancestors were downloaded through Rupes Nigra's electromagnetic field. They continued to flourish around the mythical Mount Meru, which was reported to be 33 miles wide and reaching far up into the stratosphere. This is where the 3D great migration started from as it stretched further out into the Plaza. During this timeline the firmament was the only universal 3D boundary. There were no ice walls at that time. The Tartarian communities lived in peace by The Cosmic Law of One with no structured religion until the Demiurge took its full reign as the Creator God. In order to keep their Alien ancestry a secret, they became biblically recorded as "Fallen Angels." However, our spiritually advanced ancestors would have rejected all ludicrous mandatory religious concepts, which made them a target for future conflict and resets. Until then, we were a united race that spoke only one universal language. An irritated Yahweh confounded the language so that no one from distant lands around the Plaza could understand each other, giving him more control.

"At one time all the people of the world spoke the same language and used the same words." Genesis 11:1

The Annunaki and Reptilian Races created continuous wars on the other alien's home base continents outside the ice walls. It spread into the Plaza between the Annunaki and Pleadians, where advanced Astra weapons were used with devastating effects that created some of the great desert lands of today, which hold strong undisclosed evidence of these wars. By descriptions, these weapons may have been a form of nuclear weapons. The Old Testament supports this; it states that the Israelites used the Arc of the Covenant as a weapon of war, which researcher's believe was radioactive and a powerful energy weapon used for over a thousand years. It may have killed millions upon millions of Tartarians, Aryans and Hyperboreans in order to initiate Resets and Reboots. It was claimed that these weapons could melt cities and we know for a fact they turned sand into radioactive glass in outer no man lands that became deserts.

These wars may also have laid the foundation for the Mahabharata Wars that took place arguably around 3102 BCE. The first AI Reboot that I am aware of took place via the Noahic Flood followed by the scientifically enigmatic Ice Age.

"We've been chewing on this problem for 30 or 40 years" – Alan Mixan, Oregon State University oceanographer.

Ralph Cicerone from the physical science department, University of California, Irvine claims "It's embarrassing."

Scientific researchers are now leaning towards the theory that the Ice Age was created by an abundance of volcanism and meteorite impacts during the Flood that filled the stratosphere with small particles that would have blocked some of the sunlight. However, a nuclear winter would have had the same cooling result from sun blockage due to high-altitude dust clouds; small particles produced by nuclear explosions. I do not believe they will ever acknowledge this as a possibility because it would expose the mendacious scientists, globalists and theological lies about our history.

There are a several disputes between biblical scholars and secular scientists about when this actually took place and ended. Nonetheless, I posit that this was when the Plaza ice wall boundaries were created within the 3D program. Over many years, marine geologists, atmospheric chemists, oceanographers and others still have no clue what caused the ice age. Historical program script writers invented the Pleistocene epoch by adding millions of years to the event.

Possibly more efficient, theological researchers claim that the Ice Age is tied to the Noahic flood around 4800 to 5,000 years ago. This would not be surprising as biblical scholars claim the world is somewhere between 6 to 10,000 years old. It is highly plausible that unbiased researchers could construe that the world began directly after a Reboot or Reset. We also need to be able to grasp that our temporal timelines have been divaricated due to the number of NWO Resets and AI Reboots. Most human souls unwittingly suffer from post-commencement-stress-disorder [PCSD] due to the post amnesiac effects.

"The events of the past will be completely forgotten"... Isaiah 65:17.

Numerous historians have attempted to piece together what took place over the millenniums and when they happened to no avail; whilst others simply invent it as they go along. The age of creation is the most contentious of all. In all cases, the precursor to a Reset or Reboot, there is always a depopulation agenda via war, disease, drought, famine or mud or water floods. However, the mysterious disappearance of entire civilizations lies in the Reset or Reboot itself. Some escaped whilst others were absorbed and recycled.

Whether a crystalline biosphere dome was created to keep the alien factions out of the plaza is plausible. This would create a dome within a dome scenario and whether the outer continents individually experienced this is ambiguous at this time. However, if so, they have obviously developed astral portals or time warps to appear over the Plaza? Reboots are a major push against increasing advanced technologies that could challenge the AI and abate intellectual acumen and spiritual growth.

When a timeline is interrupted, it creates a temporal rift, which the AI amends by creating an artificial timeline within it. Timeline interference has the negative side effect on our brain's ability to accurately reconstruct time after memory loss.

"Time and space are modes by which we think and not conditions in which we live." –Albert Einstein

This became the pattern of the AI/Demiurge throughout the 3D subprogram. The AI will only allow a civilization to evolve to a certain degree of technology and/or spirituality and then reboot it to keep the simulation under its control and the hypostatizing souls in check via memory loss. The AI is only concerned with its own stored data; human memory is simply a hindrance. People are starting wake up and realize that what is taking place isn't natural!!! Technology is rapidly advancing as well as spiritual growth within many awakening souls that is creating a major gap between religious dogma and what is actually spiritual and the breach is growing. Between 2011 and 2021, statistics showed that Christianity shrank, with over a 30% increase in people who identified themselves as having "no religion in particular!" The number of Catholics decreased by 2 million people by 2019 and baptisms went down across the board over 40%.

The Demiurge is responsible for the Reboots, but I surmise that the Resets are a tool used by the Hybrid Cabal for power, political gain and control over the rest of the masses, which also assists the Demiurge. However, the Resets became a Catch 22 for the Alien continents and their hybrid cabal due to also being subjected to memory loss, along with everyone else in this insidious subprogram. Without time-capsules full of instructions, stored sciences, technologies and apparatuses, the alien factions would have become more subdued. They may have learned this the hard way. The Georgia Guidestones were a failed example of this as they were forced to remove them and relocate the buried Time Capsule. Over time, the governing hybrids became more and more hubris and reckless! However, they have been reigned in for the End Game and are now at the mercy of their progenitors for guidance and instruction.

Hindu texts identify four different timelines called Yugas and broke them down into four various ages that cover great spans of time. Mesoamerican nations such as the Mayan, Aztecs and Toltec's, also calculated durations of timelines. Who may have gotten it right isn't the point. The only point is that there are a great number of temporal timelines that have been created within this subprogram via extensive Reboots and Resets that became our forgotten histories. Past Ages can still be explored via time-travel as can what we consider our future, which in truth is also our past since we are from the future. The aliens existing on the outer continents were able to recreate temporal technology within the temporal time-loops that allows them to fold time. They are using this to create Portals, consequently causing more and more complex predestination paradoxes. However, this is how alien spacecraft can appear in our skies and then magically seem to disappear.

I believe that the subprogram is being operated on one of the outer alien continents. I have come to this conclusion because in my awareness these continents are from the original 4D program, but with very different objectives. As if it wasn't enough that the human species has to contend with an AI Demiurge, it also has to deal with the nefarious pacts made between the Annunaki, Reptilian and Greys that are creating havoc for their own abominable purposes. Wake up and let go of all your petty self-serving urges, opinions and decrees. We must learn to live by the Cosmic Law of One again; as one people, because we are all of The One! Together we stand, divided we will fall.

Grasp that this simulation encompasses our entire solar system as does the 4D program; both are closed systems. Whether or not they have created technology to be able to exceed the Great Dome or outer boundaries is disputable, especially when you consider their hybrids were not able to crack it open with nuclear devices! In any case, the cosmos we see above the dome is all holographic, as are we, along with everything we view as our material world. There is an imminent natural periodic shift taking place within the Natural Galaxy that is affecting our consciousness and amending our fourth dimensional avatars as well as our mesmerised 4D programmed avatars, which in turn is affecting the subconscious of souls caught in The Dreaming. Nonetheless, there is no escape from this subprogram via any delusion or technology, outside of shutting it down, which can't be done without a collective agreement because it is all in our minds! This is the foundation of "where one goes we all go;" yet by taking personal responsibility, we can start waking up as individuals, which will affect the whole!!! I may not be a fan of the post reboot script writers; however they were able to do a first-rate job predicting the future. Frankly this was easy for them to do when you consider we are from the future on a temporal-loop!

"Many false prophets will arise and lead many astray!" Matt 24:11

Some self-proclaimed Contactees, along with a bevy of New Age Channellers are perpetuating the forecast that the earth is moving into a "5th dimensional shift" because we are already on the fourth dimension. This can be easily understood when you grasp that we have an avatar within a 4D simulation as well as a more rarefied corporal body on the fourth dimension. However, these predictions shriek of the 2012 debacle by simply changing the timeline and the lyrics. The 2012 shift never took place causing endless disillusionment and disheartenment that served the Cabal! Many are once again emotionally involved in believing the Earth is going to shift from being a 3D planet to a 5th D planet. VR techies have been working on interfacing with the 4D original program, but to date have not been able to cross that advanced bridge. But that doesn't mean they haven't developed new programs that could be "characterized" as 4 or 5D. This is a holographic simulated program, not a verifiable bonafide planet world in the natural galaxy! I can only assume that this new shift is bogus and already starting to create disillusionment and a lack of focus on actual events within the Endgame. We are from the future and the fourth dimension is already a part of our consciousness. We need to integrate what we have learned here into our hearts and higher consciousness so that we can adapt and move upward. Science now tells us that the only way consciousness is able to perceive objects within any specific dimension is by viewing them from a higher dimension. E.g. In order for the brain to perceive a two dimensional object, it must be viewed from a third dimensional position. According to this, in order for us to be able to view a third dimensional world we must be perceiving it from a fourth dimensional perspective!

These New Age advisers claim that the fourth dimension is where we hold our hidden anonymities, which is true since it is where we were all downloaded into the 4D program due to our participation in the Great Galactic Wars as a refugee, conformist, antagonist or combatant. Telling people they should avoid the fourth "any way possible" because it is where "aliens and monsters exist" should take a closer look around. All of the monsters and aliens are right here, in the same subprogram loop as the rest of us! We cannot erase anything from our soul by attempting to avoid it; how does one bypass their soul?" We must confront our inner demons and raise our signature frequencies if we ever want to escape, individually or collectively, but not by the self-delusion that we can bypass our engrained issues! Some also claiming the earth is physically splitting apart and that alien spaceships will help facilitate the good guys into the fifth dimension and leave the rest behind. I remember this world-wide psychological projection being channelled back in the 70s and early 80s and we're still waiting! These prophesiers claim that everyone is shifting into psychic and spiritual skills whilst many are becoming emotionally drained by attempting to wake people up to the C19 agendas!

Even souls caught here from higher dimensions than the fourth had to use a corporeal avatar on the fourth dimension in order to be downloaded into the original 4D simulation and subsequently this subprogram. Some of these brothers and sisters have become beguiled; yet believe they are superior to the rest. There is only one path home and it exists by becoming fully conscious and waking up, which is called ascension. All deceivers need to mix some form of truths into their predictions in order to get people to accept their views. The concepts need to resonate on some level of stored data within our subconscious. I assume that many are more self-deceived than intentionally corrupt. Our job is to discern everything before emotionally buying into anything!

I use the ancient "I Ching" for guidance to keep myself in check. Many will not go there because they do not want to listen to, or comply with the "feedback!" ["I Ching" translates into the "Book of Changes" concerning the future."] We are from the future, the holographic earth is not "splitting apart;" however timelines are merging, which is creating a major reset on our brains; we need gnosis in order to understand and not become more vulnerable to the forces that are confronting us! Self-forgiveness, reconnection with our souls, humility and trust in the holy trinity of our spirit is the key to freedom.

The only control anyone has over where they wake up and what they will experience is based on their maintained or earned signature frequency; high or low when transitioning the program. It is the one thing we can never be rid of, but we can control and change, which is why I say, "This experience can become an opportunity!"

I will make one last comment on shifting into a higher dimension. Most people are not even aware they are in a program, let alone this entire world is a simulation. You cannot play leap-frog with dimensions; however you can be duped into jumping into another simulation! I am saying we must wake up and become fully conscious in order to shift into higher gear – however If our fourth dimensional avatars were to expire, we would have a better chance of bypassing the dimensions they are on, because it would set our souls free from being confined in a corporeal body. And, there may be rare souls evolved enough in their consciousness to make the shift based just on this, but this is not the norm. If your soul were set free by the demise of your corporeal body here and within the 4D program, you would automatically wake up on the fourth dimension where the genuine shift is taking place. This is where the genuine rapture is taking place and where our energy body could shift into the 5th dimension or higher as long as there is resonance and proper gnosis!

The solar system above the firmament is an exact holographic simulation of the natural galaxy surrounding it. The natural galaxy is entering a region of space where a 'natural galactic anomaly' is shifting into a higher dimension. This is obviously having strong effects on our genuine fourth dimensional brain, which in turn is having an impact on our 3D brain. In order to counteract this phenomenon, in 2014 pseudo-scientists claimed that our solar system was entering a large interstellar cloud they called "The local fluff." They say it is approximately 30 light-years wide and held together by a very large magnetic field. Some may associate this with the Rapture, which may be taking place very soon on the fourth dimension and will affect our 3D avatar. This will influence the acceleration of our consciousness here and help with the Great Awakening. In any event, I have been given more gnosis on how the Rapture works in this program and how to escape it. I will create this as a single epistle following this Conclusion, since many have bibliophobia [fear of information], whilst others are just poor readers and do not enjoy long reads.

New Age dogmatist claim that if humanity's collective consciousness is not sufficiently developed to accommodate the incoming higher frequencies, it could implode into a self-induced global calamity. However, if humanity's consciousness is evolved enough, a golden age of wisdom, love and peace will begin. This is a bit of a doomsday attitude that I do not support because nothing can stop those ready to wake up and find their way home, whilst others may prefer to cling to their "stuff" and their entrenched concepts. I personally support the Gnostic counsel that without proper gnosis our soul cannot escape this program because it is all taking place within our mind. There is no death, there is only the Great Awakening now taking place on more than one level of our existence! We are ground 0 for the Endgame where there is so much more at stake than anyone may realize! We are from the future! There is no death! We are hypostatizing a 3D-VR reconstructed past timeline! (Hypostatize: to regard and interact with something as a distinct substance or reality.) If you doubt this Epistle, listen to Fascist Klaus Schwab brazenly tell you how they are "hacking the human animal" on this video. There are worse things than the false concepts about death! [<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3vrkTI9Sv6Y>]

It was hoped that a new higher developed species would evolve out of this experiment to create a universal galactic family and put an end to all wars, along with more equality in spiritual evolution within the genuine Galaxy! However, being true to their nature, the Reptilian along with their allies have broken their pacts of non-interference, which has put this goal into a dangerous and precarious position for the souls trapped here during the End Game. The end game war has been deemed to be "World War Three." One need grasp that this is a multi-dimensional war, which is why it has become an "Info War," where souls can make a free choice for their personal outcome, with or without gnosis. This involves the growth and development of our heart frequencies via our ability to tolerate, love, forgive and care for all breathing beings. We are in The End Game where every one of us is being tested!! Those successful can transcend this 3D subprogram and return to the 4D program to conclude their mission there or move directly back into the fourth dimension and continue their ascension via the Ray they came in on. If not, they will remain in the 3D program under the NWO's transhuman agenda or end up in the AI and Hybrid Cabal's new Metaverse; heaven and earth program. It all comes down to resonance, retained Gnosis or compliance. I use Elon Musk quotes when possible, since he was deeply involved in the creation of this subprogram on the past timeline that we are rotating through, which he obviously has restored recollections of.

"...games [VR] will be indistinguishable from reality, or civilization will end. One of those two things will occur," Musk said. "Therefore, we are most likely in a simulation, because we exist." "I think most likely there are many, many simulations," he added. "You might as well call them reality, or you could call them Multiverse."

We are from the future where our genuine bodies are safely located on the fourth dimension where we signed in to be part of the original program. I have deeply contemplated this and speculate that it may be on the inner world of Venus. However, I also strongly feel that the annexed subprogram is being operated off of one of the outer continents beyond the ice walls. We are in a state of bilocation. We are multi-dimensional beings now experiencing "worlds within worlds!" We are not cognizant that we are reliving and re-hypostatizing a past timeline in an annexed usurped subprogram with a clandestine perverted alien goal.

I hypothesize that this is what the entire transhumanization agenda is about. Nevertheless, they are desperate to expedite a solution because the timelines are already starting to merge between our 4D timeline and this artificial timeline. To help understand how this affects us, comprehend that our fourth dimensional timeline is stored within our subconscious mind. Our brains have been technologically rewired via an artificial timeline within a subprogram. This means that as our consciousness inevitably continues to move forward on the artificial timeline, it will automatically merge with our stored 4D timeline, along with pertinent stored information. However, the "Law of Resonance" cannot and will not be broken. This will inevitably create a respective distinct variance within the consciousnesses experiencing these merging timelines in the form of higher or lower frequencies. We will respond to these frequencies via resonance and align with one or the other. Those on the lower frequency may wake within the transhumanized program or stay in servitude to the Demiurge via resonance. They have been seeding the latter into our consciousness since the AD1 Reboot.

Over the last century sci-fi film fantasies have been on the increase about extraterrestrial, Ufology, spacecraft, robots, cyborgs, interstellar travel and other covert technologies. Everything has become politicized as a pre-cursory for the prophesized "Last Days;" End Game. Whistleblowers say, "Watch the skies." Perhaps they are going to CGI a holographic appearance of a Jesus Christ prior to the upcoming NWO Reset as biblically prophesized that could dupe millions of followers. Or, they might create an aerial UFO war that may or may not be a hoax!?!? There is a much greater Alien threat involved in this "End Game" than is being disclosed on any level; hopefully Trump is for real and global military patriots have united under the emergence of the U.S. independent Armed Space Forces!

Our entire history is stored within our subconscious memory. They are using this to create the past collective temporal timeline we are on! We must become aware and reject time and space as being presented to us because they are attempting to reconstruct our memories. There are reports that Trump has access to past and future information, which is giving him protection and to be able to counteract much of what is taking place here. This technology has been coined as the "Looking Glass." I am aware of such techno; yet we dare not rely on any outside forces for guidance and solace now. If and how they may intend to deal with the rogue AI Demiurge, I have no clue outside of speculating that they either now have the technology or are depending on off-world help? At the end of the day, there is no death, yet there is a demise to what we think of as our temporary corporeal body. Be grateful, very grateful that this is a simulation and that by embracing this gnosis, the conceptual act of your demise can be a form of liberation where no one or thing can deceive or recycle your consciousness back in here again!

"...signs in the sun and moon and stars, and on the earth distress of nations in perplexity because of the roaring of the sea and the waves, people fainting with fear and with foreboding of what is coming on the world. For the powers of the heavens will be shaken." Luke 21:25-26

Protection

We have turned the page; with your help we have successfully been bringing this Gnosis into more awareness, which automatically adds it into the Collective level of consciousness. Alternative global news is flowing thanks to some very brave souls. If you want any mainstream news, go to Tucker Carlson on Fox News NBC. More and more people are learning the Truth.

More and more are starting to grasp the need to quiet their egoic minds via prayer and meditation in order to raise their personal signature frequency. However, many of the newbies may not understand the supernatural –paranormal door they are opening into the psychic realms and the unseen world along with the Three Days of Darkness whether it be literal, a global dimensional shift, new paradigm or a full on Deep State grid shut down. Therefore, this section is dedicated to: ways to protect ourselves on our path to awakening and liberation.

Your growing luminosity may cause you to stand out or become more of a specific target to things that oppose the Light. Due to this, there has been acceleration in reports from people about negative and unexpected attitudes from friends and family members along with extraordinary unexplained things that "go bump in the dark", so to speak. This is an unfortunate side effect, but also quite an effective wake up call for those who had doubts and to realize the need to learn how to protect themselves.

All that is hidden, including within ourselves, is being exposed. However, the more light we carry, the more we may stand out in the darkness causing us to be shunned by those that carry negativity and or opposing ideas. Sadly, you may experience people attempting to emotionally drag you back down to their level. Or, if you are carrying enough energy and light that you become a threat to the dark forces, they may try to extinguish your light by any means, including spectral visions, sending negative thought patterns into your psych that do not belong there, and accidents, etc.! This all become more understandable when you comprehend everything is made out of "consciousness" and "energy". We are literally in a global polarity war along with our own personal opposites. Light and Darkness are all now in full play and can be seen as a catch 22, a frustrating situation in which one is trapped by contradictory principles or conditions. This would make for a great contemplation to meditate on.

We need not fear any of this if we equipped ourselves with techniques that will protect us; however we will still have to deal with our emotional reactions on a different level! I suggest you strengthen your connection with your highest Spiritual significance, whether it is Spiritual Guides, Pure Spirit, your Higher Self, your God or Logos. Ask for help, consideration and guidance. It will empower you, give you confidence and make the transition easier.

For many, on a personal level, we could say that it is a battle between the head and the heart; the head being hardwired into the program and the heart attempting to set itself free from it. The more the heart wins and you wake up, the more you may experience personal battles attempting to counteract you. Many are now experiencing family members and/or friends being highly critical and unwarrantedly negative towards them. Some ignorantly believe this is basically a war over opposing narratives. Even, if they have NO idea of what is actually taking place, it will be the information they resonate with, believe in, and follow that will determine their personal outcome! This is why we fight so hard to wake them up at our own expense and loss at times.

In simple terms, this is a natural process because all objects have a natural frequency. Light increases our natural frequency, which makes us stand out more in the darkness, whilst the lack of light decreases our natural frequency. The Cosmic Law of Resonance creates all vibrations being projected to have harmony in order to attract energies with the same resonance. When harmony is lost or no longer there, chaos takes place! The bad news is, you may lose loved ones that resist change and cling to negative egoic behaviour patterns. The good news is by increasing your natural frequency, you will attract those who resonate, harmonize and will be supportive of you. This in turn will create a massive harmonizing frequency that will drive the Dark Forces out on a global level! We have to let go of all that does not serve the Omnipotent-God-Force found within each one of us. It will allow us to choose to either co-create a new world program, or wake up and return to our home-worlds! (<https://7elucidations.info>)

PROTECTION TECHNIQUES

To start with, many of the New Age thinkers believe they are here because they signed some form of contract that they need to fulfil. In the power of consciousness, everything being equal that is their choice. However, I am not here to support lockdowns or blocks to liberation! May I suggest for those who identify themselves as a contracted Light-workers that you consider breaking all contracts and vows.

"Ignorantia legis neminem excusat!" is Latin for "Ignorance of law excuses no one." This is a legal principle holding that a person who is unaware of a law may not escape liability for violating a law merely by being unaware of its content. How much truer is this for Cosmic Laws, which are absolute. There are no get out of jail free cards.

If you fit into this category consider working with the following affirmation. But first start with a writing pad. Write down all of the vows, oaths, pledges, and obedience's, allegiances, agreements and contracts you have made that may be binding you to this world. Ask for Divine guidance in this, you may be surprised at what may manifest! For example, if you are English or part of a United Kingdom colony, you may have had to swear an oath to the Queen of England. Or you may have sworn an allegiance to ____ or to the Pope or a Guru; or a military _____, think about it. Go back to when you were a child and see if you find anything you made an allegiance to, or were made a chattel of, or signed up for something without your full understanding. They are all lodged in your subconscious mind taking power over you! This does not mean that you need to go against what you consciously support in the now and choose, but it does mean that in the "now" no one outside of your sovereign-self should have any rights over you or your soul!

Repeat and work with the following until you feel you have cleared yourself from them. You will feel as if a weight has been lifted off you. Many write things down or print them out and place them where they travel the most during their day to use as a subliminal. E.g.: Refrigerator door, bathroom mirror or wall, ceiling above bed, etc., etc. Others make up lil cue cards and keep them in a pocket to look at during the day. E.g.:

I am now free to take back my Sovereign Will, Imagination, and Memory. I am waking up to All That Which I Be!"

Om Shanti, Shanti, Shanti, Om (Sanskrit – Several ancient faiths teach that when Shanti is repeated thrice it brings peace in the body, mind and spirit. It also helps to make the past, present and future peaceful. ॐ Om is a mystic syllable, considered to be the most sacred mantra in Hinduism and Tibetan Buddhism. Om signifies the essence of the ultimate reality and consciousness. It is believed to have great transmuting powers when chanted or via mental repetition.)

Many of you are probably already aware of the power that imaging white light has. However, what most may not be aware of is:

IMAGINATION Imagination + Vividness = Reality

"Imagination is more important than knowledge. For knowledge is limited to all we now know and under-stand, while imagination embraces the entire world, and all there ever will be to know and understand." –Albert Einstein

The above information is one of the most vital equations you will ever need to comprehend. Use your imagination to envision observing a program or a play where the world is the stage. We are the players, our DNA carries the script and our transgenerational memories create the settings. When you close your eyes, nothing is out there besides countless particles of fuzzy phonic light-waves dancing to the tune of different frequencies. Now come to the realization that you can rearrange these light-particles into a new script by dismantling the old one. We are all creating our worlds via the repetition of our thoughts and imagination, which is why all consciousness is "valid". Life is the mirror that validates it!

"For verily I say unto you, that whosoever shall say unto a mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt, but believe those things which he saith, it shall come to pass." –Mark 11:23

The primal power behind imagination is the seat of hypostatization. Everything you experience here is being hypostatized out of your imagination. This is why those who hide in the shadows do everything they can to redirect you and your children's imagination via fear, sensuality, materialism, music and films. It is a proven fact that when the brain is subjected to a virtual-program (VTR) it cannot differentiate between the program and reality! Pornography, violence, fantasy, escapism and sex are the new catch words to entice people to stay locked into obliviousness and materialism!

The greatest power you and your children have is Imagination! Those with hidden agendas have intentionally usurped it via what you think of as "entertainment": television; social media; films; videos; cartoons, music and the media. They aptly coin these techniques, "Zombie Technology!" Who needs to use their imagination when all one need do is flip a switch and become mindless. Most children would rather sit and watch cartoons than create a fort, men would rather sit and drink beer while watching sports with friends than be creative, and women would rather watch soap operas and dream of another life rather than create one. For many the term "create" has become labelled in their minds as "work!"

"Imagination is stronger than knowledge
Myth is more potent than history
Dreams are more powerful than facts
Love is stronger than death"
–Robert Fulghum

"Imagination is the only Weapon in the War against Reality! –Jules de Gautier,

When imagination becomes single focused with intent and dedication, it has the power to change reality and set you free from being recycled through this 3D programmed world. With the correct input, our imagination is the greatest power we have to protect us, our property, and loved ones from anything that might cause harm because there are no limits to our imagination!! Imagination holds a Secret Influence that can reset your Fate and when Ignored, Others may set it for you!

Quantum Physic experiments show that when an object is being observed by a focused group who are in synchronistic agreement, an object will change to match their perception. That alone is a major clue as to how this pseudo-reality is being created: we are the observers in a program. This answers the questions why visualization and affirmations are so powerful; we are experiencing a world where all objects change their waveform to match our programmed expectations into predetermined anticipations. The repetition of an implanted idea, with just a small percentage of truth, can capture the imagination and become an established reality.

Hitler was obsessed with the occult along with his close personnel. They recognised the bigger the lie they told, when used repetitiously, the more the naïve would believe it because they could not conceive otherwise! E.g.: Obama's campaign was based on inspirational rhetoric: "Hope & Change". It was repetitiously used over and over and over! It was the largest linguistics programs ever run in an election campaign. We did see change; there was greater CCP expansion and more loss of human rights, and employment! His ACA health care change program forced people to purchase insurance or be fined, and it also enforced higher premium charges on insurance. Taxes also went up as a result of this obligatory program along with business owners cutting employee hours to avoid covering their employees!

Those that have the wisdom to embrace this wisdom can unleash their internal power! Imagination is your key to your protection!

"Everything you see on earth is made from one original substance, out of which all things proceed. Man can form things in his thought and by impressing his thought upon formless substance, can cause the thing he thinks about to be created." –Wallace D. Wattles

"White Light technique" #1:

Before going to sleep at night, before your feet hit the ground in the morning, before getting on any mode of transportation, before getting involved with any alarming situation or if you find yourself in one: Quiet your mind and visualize a silver cord above your head connecting you to a higher Source, allow it to travel upward to as high a dimension as you feel to and comfortable with. However, this needs to be something your can accept in your mind. Many have different faiths or belief systems; it doesn't matter what they are, who, or what you choose to bring this Light down from, as long as you feel connected to it in your heart.

Allow your eyes to slowly roll up as if looking into a theatre screen in your forebrain; this will activate it. Say these words in your mind: "I invoke the absolute protective power of the Golden White Light!" Now, image a "golden white light" starting to flow down the silver cord into your inner theatre screen. Don't become distracted if you happen to actually see your whole head fill with light beyond your imagination. Now, imagine it flowing out of the crown on your head spilling over and flowing down over your entire body until it forms a sealed cone shape of energy all around you and under your feet. You can expand this energy outward with growing intensity until your entire room, house, transport etc. etc. is filled. I have personally created a dome over my entire property with a strong affirmation that no one may enter unless they come in peace and with good intent! I have had a few service people show up that felt suddenly ill and left immediately..., sincerely its frequency is that strong! Some attempted to charge me for their drive time to no avail, which went to show their lack of integrity. Consciousness is powerful stuff when used with focus and intent, so use it to protect you and yours.

"White Light technique" #2: This is very powerful

First, start with #1 and then imagine being gifted, by someone you hold in high Spiritual regard, a beautiful white robe woven with 24K pure gold and pure platinum threads. As it is lifted and dropping down onto your shoulders, feel how light and gossamer it feels, yet strong and powerful! These powerful threads are highly reflective and the potent Light White pours out through them like thousands of dancing beams of light. See yourself glowing and lighting up everything around you. Become aware that there are protective crystals that resonate with your vibrational field sewn into it, along all the hem lines and around the hood. Emeralds, Black Tourmaline, Labradorite, Fluorite, Black Obsidian, Staurolite, Turquoise, Sapphire, Diamond; Tigers Eye; and Amethyst are just a few of the highly protective energy crystals you can choose from. All should be set in gold filigree. See your robe as an impenetrable protection against all evils and attacks! Nothing can penetrate this robe except higher beneficial frequencies, but only by your agreement and awareness to allow these higher incoming cosmic waves entry! Build its power in your mind on a daily basis! ALWAYS put it on before meditating or doing any Spiritual endeavour! Put it on, whenever you feel insecure, alarmed, threatened or just concerned!

Use your imagination

If you feel that a solid shield of armour, similar to the knights of yore would be more protective, create one, but be sure to use only the strongest protective substances you can imagine and be sure to inlay protective crystals and even symbols in specific intuitive areas like over the heart and along the spine etc!

If you feel the need for further protection, there are a surprising amount of sites now on YouTube that may be of assistance in recordings of chants and sacred sounds. I was surprised to see millions of people shown to be using them!! There is obviously a rampant need for this type of reprogramming! Use your intuition to attract what will be the most beneficial for you and your situation. Be clear within yourself what it is you wish to accomplish and stay clear of anything that suggests any harm to anything or one. It is ludicrous to think that evil can rid you of evil! Forgiveness is one of the most powerful ways of protecting ourselves. When we feel to hold on to negativity towards anyone or situation we feel has wronged us, we bind our self to that entity, situation or condition via an emotional link. Consciousness is the strongest binding agent in the world! Forgiveness is the only antidote to dissolve the link and break free.

Because I am empathic I have had to research many different ways to protect myself. I also use a form of prayer and mantras to connect me to my higher resources. Any of the following meditative techniques can be practiced in any stable seated posture in which the spine can remain upright.

Paramahansa Yogananda Mantra for raising awareness: Hong-Sau

I am aware that vows were made regarding this mantra to keep it secret and not allow it to become weakened. However, over the years more and more have made this mantra public that I cannot see any reason not to share it during these prevalent times.

1) As the breath flows, so flow's the mind, because there is a feedback system between the mind and the breath. As the breath becomes calmer, so does the mind, and vice versa. In the practice of Hong-Sau we concentrate on the breath, and as we do so, the quieter it becomes.

2) Since our minds are naturally drawn toward movement, the breath also is a natural focal point for meditation.

3) As the breath quiets, become aware of your breath coming from higher and higher in the nose until you feel it at the highest part of the nose, at the point between the eyebrows. Hong-Sau directs the mind to the spiritual eye. It is important to not concentrate on the spiritual eye until you feel the sensation of air stimulating this point. Otherwise your concentration will be divided. In time, your breath will gradually diminish, until finally, it is automatically and effortlessly suspended in breathlessness. When the body is totally still and no longer creating waste, there is no longer a need for the heart and breath to keep working.

4) Observing the breath, gazing at the spiritual eye, mentally repeat the mantra, Hong, with the incoming breath, and Sau, with the outgoing. It will draw your consciousness toward Spirit.

5) Its Sanskrit syllables stimulate the chakras and have a vibratory connection with the breath. Yogis say that on a subtle level "Hong-Sau" is the very sound made by the astral breath. Gazing upward at the point between the eyebrows, or spiritual eye, puts you more in tune with superconscious, because in deep meditation your energy is centred there. Observing the breath helps to calm the mind. Hong-Sau works in the most direct way possible to bring you to a state of true meditation.

6) The practice of watching, but not controlling, the breath brings deep spiritual benefits, one of the most important being a sense of detachment from your physical body and mental processes. Every time you observe the breath without controlling it, you are affirming the attitude, "I am not this body." Every time your mind wanders and you bring yourself back by repeating the Hong-Sau mantra, you are saying, "I am not this personality." Yogananda said this technique is "the greatest contribution of India's spiritual science to the world," and that one hour of Hong-Sau equals twenty-four hours of sitting in the silence of meditation.

I also use: Om Tat Sat, a Sanskrit mantra found in ancient Hindu text. It represents the unmanifested and absolute reality. The word "reality", here means total existence. When combined, Om Tat Sat can be translated as "the Supreme Reality," "absolute truth" or "all that is." The repetitive chanting of this mantra encourages the mind to enter into a meditative state so that the practitioner may begin to connect with the higher Self or the Divine within.

De-Calcify the Pineal: I also keep my pineal gland de-calcified. For those interested, the following will offer a few solutions to this problem. I use an Ayurveda Organic product called "Shilajit Extract Powder". There are several other natural substances that can work in the following:

Oregano Oil and Neem Extract

Both oregano oil and Neem extract can help remove existing calcification within the pineal gland and the endocrine system. Neem has been used in India for thousands of years for this. Both of these supplements can act as natural antibiotics against new calcium shells created by nano-bacteria found in the Chemtrails.

Raw Cacao

Raw, organic chocolate in its purest form can help detoxify the pineal gland because of its high antioxidant content. Cacao can also help with stimulating the pineal.

Chlorophyll-rich Superfoods

Spirulina, Chlorella and Wheatgrass are three examples of chlorophyll-rich superfoods that offer similar benefits to eating leafy greens but with a much higher nutritional impact. These supplements help assist de-calcification of the pineal gland because of their strong detoxification properties.

Raw Apple Cider Vinegar: Is a natural detoxifier, raw apple cider vinegar helps decalcify the pineal gland due to its malic acid properties. Malic acid is an organic compound that gives fruits their sour taste. When taken as a supplement, it supports the digestive system and helps the body detoxify. Make sure you purchase it only in a glass container and that you balance it with honey or such so you do not become too acidic.

Iodine: Many of us have been exposed to sodium fluoride due to fluoridation of our water systems, and this has also resulted in the calcification of the pineal gland. Iodine, naturally occurring in plants such as seaweed, effectively improves the removal of sodium fluoride via urine. Unfortunately, the Western diet has left us deficient of this vital mineral while our bodies need it most. To avoid calcium deficiency when taking iodine supplements, a diet incorporating many organic foods such as kale, broccoli, almonds, oranges, flax seed, sesame seeds, dill, thyme and other dried herbs is recommended. It is suggested that a non-GMO lecithin supplement is also taken to compliment iodine intake.

Boron/Borax is another good supplement that can be used to remove fluoride from the human body is the mineral Boron. It is naturally present in beets, which can be eaten raw, steamed, cooked as well as in a powder supplement. It is also present in other foods, such as dried plums. Borax is an inexpensive source of boron that can be bought in most grocery stores.

My Prayer Mantras:

Divine Mother, Thou art Thee Awake, I am Thee Asleep, have mercy on me.

Divine Father, Thou art the Creative, I am the Receptive, Guide me and I will follow.

As the old adage says, "Practice makes perfect". I hope you found this information helpful. We are always told what the problems are, but we are seldom told how to cure them.
